The Autorité des marchés financiers (AMF) and the Autorité de contrôle prudentiel et de résolution (ACPR) are warning the public against the activities of Patrimoine Gestion Management and PGM Patrimoine

Published on July 31, 2018

Following a number of reports from savers regarding the websites www.patrimoinegestion-management.com and www.pgm-patrimoine.com and the entities Patrimoine Gestion Management and PGM Patrimoine, the AMF and the ACPR are issuing a public warning.

These websites and entities are not authorized either by the AMF or by the ACPR to provide investment services or savings accounts contrary to their allegations.

The AMF and the ACPR recommend that investors do not take up these solicitations and do not communicate them to third parties, in any form whatsoever.

Lastly, the AMF reminds investors and individuals responsible for marketing investment products to follow these safety guidelines before making any investment:

- no advertising materials should make you overlook the fact that high returns always involve high risk;
- learn as much as you can about the company or intermediary trying to sell you a product (authorisation/certification, company history, location of head offices, etc.);
- only invest in a product you understand;
- ask yourself how, and by whom, the purchase price or selling price of the advertised product is set, and find out the precise terms and timeline for selling the product, especially in cases where the product invests in an asset class with low liquidity.
