In such case, the meeting notice shall indicate the connection system and, as the case may be, the locations where the technical means to attend and participate at the Meeting are available. Resolutions shall be deemed to have been adopted in the place where the Chairman is located.

Article 17. Proceedings of Meetings

1. Board Meetings shall be validly convened if one half plus one of its members are in attendance at the meeting, in person or by proxy. The proxy shall be granted to another Director specifically for each Board meeting either in writing or by telegram, fax or e-mail. No individual Director may hold more than three proxies. Non-Executive Directors may only delegate their proxy to another non-executive director. The Chairman may decide, as it deems convenient, to let any persons attend the meeting, regardless of whether or not they are officers of the Company.

2. Subject to the provisions of law, resolutions shall be adopted by the absolute majority of the Directors attending, in person or by proxy, and the Chairman or Acting Chairman shall resolve ties and manage debates, and shall further have the authority to establish, in his or her prudent opinion, the order for such debates as well as the manner for voting.

Voting in writing in lieu of a meeting will only be accepted if no Director opposes said procedure.

3. Except where the Board of Directors has been convened on an urgent basis, the Directors shall have prior and sufficient access to the information required to form an opinion on each of the agenda items, and the Chairman shall be responsible, with the assistance of the Secretary and, as the case may be, the Legal Counsel, for preparing said information. The Chairman may invite as many officers to the meeting as he or she deems appropriate in order to supplement the information provided to the Directors on the agenda items.
4. The deliberations and resolutions of the Board shall be recorded in a minutes book, which shall be signed by the Secretary with the approval of the acting Chairman for the meeting. The minutes shall be approved by the Board itself either upon conclusion of the meeting or at the following meeting. The minutes shall also be deemed to be approved when, within five days following receipt of a draft copy of the minutes, no Director has made any objections.

Article 17 bis. Performance Assessment

1. On an annual basis, the Board of Directors shall evaluate:
 - (a) the efficiency of their functioning and quality of their performance;
 - (b) diversity in its composition and skills;
 - (c) the performance of duties by the Board Chairman and, if any, by the Managing Director, in view of the report submitted thereto by the Appointments and Compensation and Sustainability Committee;
 - (d) the performance and contributions of each Director, paying particular attention to the heads of the different Committees;
 - (e) the functioning and composition of its Committees in view of the reports submitted thereby to the Board.

For such purpose, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall organize and coordinate with the Chairmen of the Committees regarding the aforementioned assessment process.

2. In the event that the Chairman of the Board of Directors is performing executive duties, assessment of his or her performance shall be directed by the Coordinating Director.
3. An action plan to correct identified deficiencies shall be developed during the assessment process.
4. The results of the assessment shall be included in the meeting minutes or as an attachment thereto.
5. In order to carry out this assessment, the Board of Directors may be assisted by an external consultant, whose independence shall be verified by the Appointments and Compensation and Sustainability Committee, and by such internal means as it may deem appropriate in each case.

Chapter VI. APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

Article 18. Appointment of Directors and Term of Office

1. The Directors shall be appointed by the General Meeting or, in the event of an unexpected vacancy, by co-optation by the Board of Directors itself up until the next General Meeting is held and, if a vacancy arises after the General Meeting has already been called but before it is held, until the following General Meeting. Directors appointed by co-optation shall not be required to be shareholders.

The appointment of substitutes shall not be required.

2. The Appointments and Compensation and Sustainability Committee shall be responsible for the proposals for the appointment or reappointment of Directors as regards Independent Directors, and in all other cases, responsibility shall lie with the Board itself.

The proposal shall, in any case, be accompanied by a justifying report of the Board of Directors assessing the skills, experience and merits of the proposed candidate. This report shall be attached to the minutes for the General Meeting or for the Board itself.

The proposal for appointment or reappointment of any non-independent Director shall be preceded by a report from the Appointments and Compensation and Sustainability Committee.

These provisions shall also apply to natural persons designated as representatives of a corporate Director. The proposal for a natural representative shall be subject to the report of the Appointments and Compensation and Sustainability Committee.

3. The Directors shall serve in their positions for a maximum term of four years and may be reappointed for periods of like duration. The term of the mandate of the Directors shall be calculated as of the date of the General Meeting in which their appointment or ratification, in the event of prior appointment by co-optation by the Board of Directors, was made.
4. The Board of Directors may make proposals to the Shareholders Meeting for the appointment as an Honorary Director of those Directors who, based on their merits and dedication to the Company, deserve to be granted such title following their removal as members of the Board of Directors. The appointments made may be deemed void by the Board itself based on the circumstances of each case. In such case, the General Meeting shall be provided notice of such circumstances.

Honorary Directors may attend and participate in Board meetings, but with no right to vote, provided the Board of Directors itself deems it appropriate and they are called to the meeting by the Chairman in the terms required.

Honorary Directors shall have the right to receive compensation for their condition as such and, as the case may be, for advising the Board, to the extent determined by the Board of Directors itself by virtue of the relevant resolution and, as the case may be, execution of the relevant contractual advising relationship.

Article 19. Removal of Directors

1. The Directors shall be removed when the period for which they were appointed has elapsed and was not renewed as well as when determined by the General Meeting.
2. The Directors shall tender their resignation to the Board of Directors and formalize the pertinent resignation, if deemed appropriate by the Board, in the following cases:
 - (a) If they are involved in any circumstance of incompatibility or prohibition provided by law, the Corporate Bylaws or these Regulations.
 - (b) If situations arise that affect them, whether or not they are related to their actions in the Company itself, as a result of which their continued membership on the Board of Directors could put at risk or harm the Company's interests, credit or reputation.
 - (c) When they no longer hold an executive position to which their appointment was linked or, in general, when the reasons for their appointment no longer exist (e.g. when the shareholder represented by a Director disposes of its shareholding in the Company that motivated the Director's appointment).
 - (d) When the Director has missed four consecutive Board meetings without granting a proxy to another Board member.

The Board of Directors may only propose the removal of an Independent Director to the General Shareholders Meeting before the period provided for in the Bylaws has lapsed and when the Director has not tendered his or her resignation after having met any of the said circumstances referred to in this article or when any other just cause as determined by the Board exists, following a report of the Appointments and Compensation and Sustainability Committee. In particular, just cause shall be deemed to exist when the Director accepts additional obligations that prevent said Director from dedicating the required time to the performance of its duties, breaches any duties inherent in its position or otherwise is in any circumstances that prevent its independence. The Board of Directors may also propose the removal of Independent Directors as a result of public offers of acquisition, merger or other similar corporate transactions that entail a change to the Company's capital structure, provided such structural changes to the Board of Directors are a result of application of the proportionality criteria set forth in corporate governance recommendations for listed companies in Spain.

3. The Appointments and Compensation and Sustainability Committee may make a proposal to the Board of Directors for submission to the General Shareholders Meeting on the removal of Directors when their behavior could negatively affect the functioning of the Board or the credit and reputation of the Company.
4. Having been informed of or otherwise become aware of any of the situations mentioned in paragraph 2 above, the Board of Directors will examine the case as soon as possible and, taking into account the specific circumstances, will decide, following a report from the Appointments and Compensation and Sustainability Committee, whether or not to adopt any measure, such as opening an internal investigation, requesting the resignation of the Director or proposing his or her removal, reporting on this in the Annual Corporate Governance Report, unless there are special circumstances that justify it, which must be recorded in the minutes.
5. When a Director resigns or is removed by resolution of the General Meeting before the end of his or her term, he or she shall provide a sufficient explanation of the reasons for said resignation or, in the case of non-executive directors, his or her opinion on the reasons for the dismissal by the General Meeting, in a letter to be issued to all members of the Board of Directors.

6. Insofar as it is relevant for investors, the Company shall publish as soon as possible the termination of the Director's employment, including sufficient reference to the reasons or circumstances provided by the Director.

Chapter VII. INFORMATION TO DIRECTORS

Article 20. Information and Advising Powers

1. The Directors, as required to perform their duties, shall have ample powers to make inquiries on any matter related to the Company and, for such purpose, shall have access to any and all documents, registries, records or any other necessary elements. Information requests shall be made to the Chairman and will be processed by the Secretary of the Board of Directors, who shall directly provide the Directors with such information or otherwise notify the relevant intermediaries in the Company and, in general, shall establish all necessary measures to ensure full compliance with the Director's right to information.
2. Any Director, in the exercise of the specific duties entrusted thereto either individually or by virtue of its membership on any of the Board Committees, may request that the Chairman hire, at the Company's expense, legal, accounting, technical, financial, commercial or any other advisers deemed necessary to assist in the performance of its duties related to specific problems of particular relevance and complexity that warrant said advising. The Chairman, according to the circumstances of the particular case, may deny or authorize the proposal by notice to the Board Secretary, who shall, if authorized, coordinate the hiring of the expert.

The Chairman may also bring the proposal to the Board of Directors, who may refuse to approve financing for the advisory services on the grounds that they are not necessary for the performance of the duties entrusted, that their amount is disproportionate to the importance of the issue, or if it considers that such technical assistance could be adequately provided by Company personnel.

Chapter VIII. DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Article 21. Director Compensation

Directors shall have the right to the compensation established by the Board of Directors in accordance with the provisions of law and the bylaws and with the compensation policy approved by the General Meeting, following the proposal of the Appointments and Compensation and Sustainability Committee.

In this regard, both the Board and the aforesaid Committee shall take into account the Company's income and, for each Director, the objective circumstances they deem relevant, including the duties and responsibilities attributed thereto, the position they hold on the Board and its Committees, their effective dedication, attendance at meetings of the statutory bodies and of the various committees, and the Director's category, working to ensure that the compensation provided to those Directors whose connection to the Company is exclusively limited to their membership on the Board incentivizes their dedication without compromising their independence.

Notwithstanding the potential consequences of their classification in a certain director category, the position of Director shall be compatible with the performance of executive duties or the provision of certain services to the Company that give rise to compensation beyond that applicable to Directors in their condition as such, and the Appointments and Compensation and Sustainability Committee shall be fully aware of said additional duties and the pertinent compensation applicable thereto, thus ensuring compliance with the principle of transparency in relation to the compensation of Directors for all relevant items.

Chapter IX. DIRECTORS' DUTIES

Article 22. Directors' General Duties

1. The Directors shall have the duty to contribute to the functioning of the Board and to promote and monitor the day-to-day management of the Company and, to the extent legally permitted, of the investee companies. The Directors shall carry out their positions in good faith, following the guidelines of a loyal representative and with the diligence of a prudent businessman. They shall also act based on the corporate interests and in defense of the collective interests of the shareholders.
2. The Directors shall, in particular, be required to:
 - (a) Request the necessary information and adequately prepare meetings of the Board and of any Committees of which they are a member.
 - (b) Attend meetings of the corporate bodies of which they are a member and actively participate in debates, effectively contributing to the formation of the body's will and to the decision-making process. If a Director is unable, for just cause, to attend a meeting to which he or she has been called, the Director shall duly instruct the Director representing him or her, if any.

Furthermore, the Director shall encourage those individuals with the power to call a meeting of the statutory bodies to which they belong to exercise such power, when deemed appropriate in the corporate interests, proposing Agenda items as considered appropriate.
 - (c) Attend the General Meetings.
 - (d) Perform the specific duties entrusted thereto by the body to which it belongs, otherwise expressly stating the reasons that prevent them from performing the relevant mandate.
3. In any case, the Directors shall dedicate the necessary time and effort to its position in order to effectively carry out their duties and shall report to the Appointments and Compensation and Sustainability Committee regarding any other obligations held thereby, in case said obligations could interfere with the required dedication. Directors may not sit on more than four boards of directors of listed companies other than the Company. For the purposes of this rule, all boards of companies that form part of the same group shall be counted as a single board and shall not include (i) boards of asset-holding companies or companies that constitute vehicles or complements for the professional practice of the director, his/her spouse or person with an analogous relationship of affection or his/her closest relatives and (ii) boards on which the director sits as a proprietary director proposed by the company or any company in its group.

Article 23. Director's Duty of Confidentiality

1. The Director shall maintain the confidentiality of all deliberations of the Board of Directors and its delegated bodies or Committees forming part thereof and, in general, shall refrain from disclosing information to which they have access due to their position, except as required or permitted by law.
2. The obligation of confidentiality shall survive after the director ceases to hold office.
3. If the Director is a legal person, the duty of confidentiality shall also apply to the natural person representative, notwithstanding the fact that the latter may share information with the legal person.

Article 24. Non-Compete Covenant and Conflicts of Interest

1. The Company's Directors, in compliance with their duty of loyalty, shall be required to report to the Board, through the Chairman or Secretary, any conflict of interest with the Company and its group companies, prior to it arising or as soon as they become aware of its existence, and shall be required to immediately resign if based on the nature and continuance of the conflict their presence on the Board goes against the Company's interests.

The Directors shall also establish necessary measures to prevent their interests, whether for themselves or on behalf of third parties, from coming into conflict with corporate interests and their duties to the Company, in accordance with the provisions of law. In particular, the duty to prevent conflicts of interest requires that the Directors abstain from engaging in the conduct described in Article 229 of the Capital Corporations Law, except as waived in accordance with the provisions of Article 230.

A conflict of interest shall be deemed to exist when the interests of the Company and the interests of the Directors directly or indirectly clash. The Director shall be deemed to have an interest when he or she is directly affected or if any related party thereto is so affected, as provided in Article 231 of the Capital Corporations Law.

2. The Directors shall also abstain from debating and voting on those matters in which they have an interest, whether directly or indirectly through a related party, that conflicts with the interests of the Company.

This obligation to abstain shall not apply to those resolutions that affect the Directors in their condition as, including resolutions for appointment, reappointment or removal. Voting by the Directors or, as the case may be, by the Committee in question on these types of resolutions may be made anonymously if so requested by any of its members.

3. The Directors shall disclose any interest held thereby in the capital of a company engaging in activity identical, analogous or complementary to that constituting the corporate purpose, as well as any offices held or duties performed thereby for such company, as well as the pursuit, for their own account or that of another, of an activity of a type identical, analogous or complementary to that constituting the corporate purpose. This information shall be included in the justifying report.
4. The Director's duties of loyalty as addressed in various aspects in this article and other articles of these Regulations also cover the activities performed by the spouse, ancestors, descendants and siblings of the Director or by companies in which the Director holds an executive position or is a significant shareholder or is otherwise directly or indirectly involved in any of the situations provided for in Article 4 of the Spanish Securities Market Law.

Article 25. Use of Corporate Assets

Directors may not use the assets of the Company or its subsidiaries for private purposes or for the benefit of persons related thereto and may not use their position therein to obtain a financial advantage, unless sufficient consideration is paid. Waiver of this requirement shall require the prior report of the Appointments and Compensation and Sustainability Committee.

If the benefit is attained in their condition as a partner, the principle of equal treatment of shareholders must be followed.

The Board of Directors shall include a summary of the operations or transactions completed by the Company with its Directors and significant shareholders in the Annual Corporate Governance Report, all in the manner provided for by the regulations in force from time to time.

Article 26. Non-Public Information

1. Directors may only use the non-public information of the company or its investees for private purposes if the following conditions are met:
 - (a) said information is not applied in connection with transactions for the sale or acquisition of securities of the company;
 - (b) such use does not cause any harm whatsoever to the company; and
 - (c) the company does not have an exclusive right or an analogous legal position over said information being used.
2. In addition to the condition established in paragraph a), supra, Directors shall observe all rules of conduct established by securities market legislation and, in particular, those rules codified in the Company's Internal Regulations on Conduct in Securities Markets.

Article 27. Business Opportunities

Directors may not take advantage, whether directly or on behalf of a related party thereto, of any potential investments or commercial transactions or of any nature of which they became aware in the performance of their office, using the information means of the Company or of its investee companies or in such circumstances that could give rise to an assumption that the action was actually led by the Company.

This prohibition shall not govern when the Board has previously offered the business opportunity to the Company or when authorized by the Board by prior report of the Appointments and Compensation and Sustainability Committee, whenever the Company has not dismissed said investment or transaction through the influence of the Director.

Article 28. Directors' Reporting Duty

1. The Director and its representative, when a company, shall report to the Company on the shares thereof that are held directly or indirectly thereby through companies in which it is a significant shareholder or on any other shares of the Company that are owned by any other companies forming part of the group to which the Corporate Director belongs. Furthermore, any representative of a Corporate Director as well as any Director being a natural person shall report on all other shares held, directly or indirectly, by his or her spouse or children under his or her custody.

2. Directors shall also inform the Company of any positions that they hold or activities that they carry out in other companies or entities and, in general, of any other fact or circumstances that could be relevant to its conduct as a director of the Company and of any transactions that could cause harm to the Company or of any other activities that could constitute competition for the Company or any of its Group companies.
3. The Director must also inform the Company of any situations affecting him or her, whether or not they are related to his or her actions in the Company itself, which may endanger or harm the interests, credit and reputation of the Company and, in particular, he or she must inform the Board of Directors of any criminal case in which he or she appears as being under investigation, as well as of any procedural vicissitudes.

Article 29. Transactions with Significant Shareholders and Directors

1. Whenever a significant shareholder or Director of the Company wishes to carry out a transaction with the Company, it shall provide prior and immediate notice to the Board of Directors, through the Chairman, unless the transaction relates to ordinary transactions that are made under standard conditions for all clients and are immaterial, understood as those for which information is not required to express a true and fair view of the Company's equity, financial position and profits.
2. The Company may authorize performance by any Director or any related party thereto of a certain transaction with the Company. The authorization shall necessarily be granted by the General Shareholders Meeting when it relates to a transaction whose value is greater than ten percent of the corporate assets.

In all other cases, the authorization may also be granted by the Board of Directors, following a report from the Audit Committee, provided that independence of the members granting the authorization is guaranteed as regards the excepted Director or executive. In addition, it shall also be required to show that the transaction authorized will be harmless to the company's equity or, as the case may be, that it is being carried out under arm's length conditions and through a transparent process.

Chapter X. RELATIONSHIPS OF THE BOARD

Article 30. Relationships with Shareholders

1. In regular informational meetings held on the progress of the Company with those shareholders considered to hold the most relevant financial venues within Spain and abroad, as well as in any other meetings that may be held with investors that are financially significant shareholders in the Company but that are not represented on the Board of Directors, particular steps shall be taken to ensure that all shareholders and the market in general have the same information on the performance of the Company, ensuring that no special treatment is provided such as would place them in a privileged position or at an advantage with respect to the other shareholders.
2. Public proxy requests made by any Board member for the General Meeting must establish the direction of the vote, if the shareholder does not otherwise provide instructions.

Article 31. Relationships with the Markets

1. The Board of Directors shall ensure that the Company complies with the duty to report to the markets on:
 - (a) privileged information or other relevant information in accordance with applicable stock market regulations;
 - (b) substantial changes in the share structure of the Company of which it was aware and substantial amendments to the governing rules of the Company;
 - (c) treasury stock transaction in conformity with legal provisions; and
 - (d) other information as required by the regulations in force.
2. The Board of Directors, primarily through the Audit Committee, shall adopt measures to ensure that the quarterly, semi-annual and other financial reporting required to be made available to the markets is drafted in accordance with the same professional principles, criteria and practices applied to the preparation of the annual financial statements and with the same reliability as the latter.

Article 32. Relationships with the Auditors

1. The relationships of the Board with the external auditors of the Company shall be channeled through the Audit Committee.
2. The Board of Directors shall abstain from contracting those audit firms that are involved in any circumstances that could affect their independence in performing their duties, respecting in all cases the prohibitions and incompatibilities legally provided.
3. The Board of Directors shall publicly report the overall professional fees paid by the Company to the audit firm for non-auditing services.
4. The Board of Directors shall aim to prepare the final annual financial statements such that there are no reservations made by the auditor. Notwithstanding the above and as deemed necessary by the Board to maintain its criteria, the Board shall publicly explain the scope and content of the discrepancy.
