

The AFM warns against The Armstrong Group

The Netherlands Authority for the Financial Markets (AFM) is warning investors not to respond to offers of securities services made by The Armstrong Group (www.the-armstrong-group.com <<http://www.the-armstrong-group.com>>).

The Armstrong Group is offering securities services in the Netherlands, without having the requisite licence to do so nor has The Armstrong Group been granted an exemption from this license obligation. The AFM has received several complaints about The Armstrong Group who has approached persons in the Netherlands for that purpose (by telephone). The Armstrong Group is not established at the address that it gives: Leutschenbachstrasse 95, 8050 Zurich, Switzerland. The Armstrong Group also uses postal addresses on the British Virgin Islands and Mauritius.

Institutions offering securities services in the Netherlands without possessing a licence or without having been granted an exemption are in breach of Section 7(1) of the 1995 Supervision of Securities Transactions Act (Wet toezicht effectenverkeer 1995 - Wte 1995). This public notification is issued in accordance with Section 48n, in conjunction with Section 48s of the Wte 1995.

The AFM advises anyone who wants to do business with an institution or person, to check beforehand in the Institutions Register for securities services whether the institution or person concerned is registered and allowed to offer or perform securities services in the Netherlands. The register can be found on the AFM website. Alternatively, investors who have any questions or complaints may call the AFM Supervision Line on 0900- 5400 540.
