

Fraudulent credit offers

29/06/2021 Warning

The Financial Services and Markets Authority (FSMA) warns the public against the activities of unauthorized lenders who offer false credits to consumers. The FSMA also

This website uses cookies

Some cookies are necessary to ensure the proper functioning of the website. You cannot refuse these necessary cookies if you wish to visit the website. All other cookies can be managed via the settings below. You can withdraw your consent or change your cookie settings at any time. Click on 'Show details' below for more information. The full Cookie Policy can be found here.

Use necessary cookies only

Allow selection

Allow all cookies

Necessary cookies

Functional cookies

Analytical cookies

Show details

Cookies of social networks and media

consumers. The providers are fraudsters pretending to be lenders or collaborators of credit institutions and they do not shy away from using the names or logos of authorized entities. These are cases of cloned firms.

These fraudsters offer consumers credits at very attractive conditions. If a consumer wishes to take up the offer, he/she is asked to make certain payments supposedly to cover costs relating to the credit (e.g. an insurance premium to protect the lender against the risk of the loan not being repaid, dossier fees, administrative costs, etc.). Those costs are, however, fictitious.

Once those so-called costs are paid, the lender disappears without a trace, making it nearly impossible to recover the amounts paid.

The FSMA thus advises absolutely against responding to such offers of credit.

Companies operating unlawfully and against which the FSMA warns the public are the following:

- 24Quest (<https://twentyfourquest.com/>)
- BKR-Investbank (<https://bkr-investbank.com/>)
- Credit Horizon (<https://credit-horizon.com/>)
- Direct Golden Bank (<https://www.direct-golden.com/>)
- Successful Kredit (<https://successful-krediet.com/>)

***

The FSMA offers the following general recommendations for recognizing these fraudulent offers of credit:

- Be wary if you receive an unsolicited credit offer via the internet or via social media.
- Beware of any offers of credit on unusually favourable terms (a loan that is very large in relation to the consumer's financial situation, at an extremely low interest rate, with a particularly long repayment period, etc.) that would not usually be granted by authorized lenders.

This website uses cookies

Some cookies are necessary to ensure the proper functioning of the website. You cannot refuse these necessary cookies if you wish to visit the website. All other cookies can be managed via the settings below. You can withdraw your consent or change your cookie settings at any time. Click on 'Show details' below for more information. The full Cookie Policy can be found here.

Use necessary cookies only

Allow selection

Allow all cookies

Necessary cookies

Functional cookies

Analytical cookies

Show details

Cookies of social networks and media

the website of the FSMA, you can easily determine whether the person has the requisite authorization or registration. Persons without an authorization or registration may not offer you credit.

- Consider doing a search for the person using the customary search engines. You may find testimonials by people who have already been approached by him or her. But be alert, as sometimes these are falsely positive testimonials posted by the lenders themselves in order to gain the confidence of investors.

More than ever, then, prudence is necessary. In case of any doubt, and before making any (more) payments, don't hesitate to contact the FSMA using the consumer contact form. As well, please feel free to notify it of any suspicious company that has not yet been the subject of a warning by the FSMA.

Watch the new videos about fraudulent credit offers! (French - Dutch available only)

---

This website uses cookies

Some cookies are necessary to ensure the proper functioning of the website. You cannot refuse these necessary cookies if you wish to visit the website. All other cookies can be managed via the settings below. You can withdraw your consent or change your cookie settings at any time. Click on 'Show details' below for more information. The full Cookie Policy can be found here.

Use necessary cookies only

Allow selection

Allow all cookies

Necessary cookies

Functional cookies

Analytical cookies

Show details

Cookies of social networks and media