Rating Action: Moody's downgrades 19 notes and confirms one note in five TDA Ibercaja transactions

Global Credit Research - 24 Apr 2013

Madrid, April 24, 2013 -- Moody's Investors Service has today downgraded the ratings of 14 junior and five senior notes in five Spanish residential mortgage-backed securities (RMBS) transactions: TDA Ibercaja 1, FTA; TDA Ibercaja 2, FTA; TDA Ibercaja 5, FTA; TDA Ibercaja 6, FTA and TDA Ibercaja 7, FTA. At the same time, Moody's confirmed the ratings of TDA Ibercaja 5 A1 tranche. Insufficiency of credit enhancement to address sovereign risk and, in the case of TDA Ibercaja 7, exposure to counterparty risk, have prompted today's downgrade action.

Today's rating action concludes the review of four notes placed on review on 16 December 2011, following increase of expected loss assumption and expectations that credit enhancement could be insufficient to offset this increase. This rating action also concludes the review of five notes placed on review on 2 July 2012, following Moody's downgrade of Spanish government bond ratings to Baa3 from A3 on June 2012 and of 11 notes placed on review on 23 November 2012, following Moody's revision of key collateral assumptions for the entire Spanish RMBS market (http://www.moodys.com/research/Moodys-review-of-Spanish-RMBS-sector-triggers-rating-actions-on--PR_260528).

For a detailed list of affected ratings, see towards the end of the press release, before regulatory disclosures.

RATINGS RATIONALE

Today's rating action primarily reflects the insufficiency of credit enhancement to address sovereign risk. The rating action on senior note of TDA Ibercaja 7 also reflects the exposure to Ibercaja Banco SA (Ba2 on review for possible downgrade /NP) and Banco Santander S.A. Spain (Baa2/P-2) acting as collection account bank and reinvestment account bank respectively. Moody's confirmed the rating of a security whose credit enhancement and structural features provided enough protection against sovereign and counterparty risk.

The determination of the applicable credit enhancement driving today's rating actions reflects the introduction of additional factors in Moody's analysis to better measure the impact of sovereign risk on structured finance transactions (see "Structured Finance Transactions: Assessing the Impact of Sovereign Risk", 11 March 2013). This report is available on www.moodys.com and can be accessed via the following link http://www.moodys.com/researchdocumentcontentpage.aspx?docid=PBS_SF319988.

-- Additional Factors Better Reflect Increased Sovereign Risk

Moody's has supplemented its analysis to determine the loss distribution of securitised portfolios with two additional factors, the maximum achievable rating in a given country (the local currency country risk ceiling) and the applicable portfolio credit enhancement for this rating. With the introduction of these additional factors, Moody's intends to better reflect increased sovereign risk in its quantitative analysis, in particular for mezzanine and junior tranches.

The Spanish country ceiling, and therefore the maximum rating that Moody's will assign to a domestic Spanish issuer including structured finance transactions backed by Spanish receivables, is A3. Moody's Individual Loan Analysis Credit Enhancement (MILAN CE) represents the required credit enhancement under the senior tranche for it to achieve the country ceiling. By lowering the maximum achievable rating for a given MILAN, the revised methodology alters the loss distribution curve and implies an increased probability of high loss scenarios.

-- Pro-rata vs. current amortization of Classes A1 and A2 in TDA Ibercaja 5

Today's rating action takes into account the relative priority of principal payments within the A notes of TDA Ibercaja 5. The performance conditions for current amortization between the A sub-classes (18% of Available Funds for class A for series A1 and the remaining 82% for series A2) currently hold, and the notes are not anticipated to amortize pro-rata in our expected scenario. This leads to a one notch difference in the Class A1 rating compared to the Class A2 rating in this transaction.

Moody's has not revised the key collateral assumptions for any of the deals. Expected loss assumptions as a percentage of original pool balance remain at 0.47% for TDA Ibercaja 1; 0.55% for TDA Ibercaja 2; 1.50% for TDA Ibercaja 3; 2.40% for TDA Ibercaja 6 and 2.00% for TDA Ibercaja 7. The MILAN CE assumptions remain at 10% for the TDA Ibercaja 1, 2 and 5 and 12.5% for TDA Ibercaja 6 and 7.

-- Exposure to Counterparty Risk

The conclusion of Moody's rating review takes into consideration the exposure to Ibercaja Banco SA (Ba2 on review for possible downgrade /NP), which acts as servicer and collection account bank in all Ibercaja transactions. Treasury Accounts are held by Barclays Bank PLC for all five deals. Reinvestment Accounts are held by Barclays Bank PLC for TDA Ibercaja 1, 2 and 5. Reinvestment Accounts in TDA Ibercaja 6 and 7 are held by Bank of Spain and Banco Santander (Baa2/P-2), respectively. The exposure to collection account bank and reinvestment account holder has a negative impact only on the rating of Class A notes in TDA Ibercaja 7.

As part of its analysis Moody's also assessed the exposure to Banco Santander (Baa2/P-2) as swap counterparty for TDA Ibercaja 1, 2 and 5 and Banesto (Baa3/P-3 on review for possible upgrade) for TDA Ibercaja 6 and 7. The revised ratings of the notes, are not negatively affected by this exposure.

-- Other Developments May Negatively Affect the Notes

In consideration of Moody's new adjustments, any further sovereign downgrade would negatively affect structured finance ratings through the application of the country ceiling or maximum achievable rating, as well as potentially increased portfolio credit enhancement requirements for a given rating.

As the euro area crisis continues, the ratings of structured finance notes remain exposed to the uncertainties of credit conditions in the general economy. The deteriorating creditworthiness of euro area sovereigns as well as the weakening credit profile of the global banking sector could further negatively affect the ratings of the notes.

Moody's describes additional factors that may affect the ratings in "Approach to Assessing Linkage to Swap Counterparties in Structured Finance Cashflow Transactions: Request for Comment" (http://www.moodys.com/researchdocumentcontentpage.aspx?docid=PBS_SF289772), published on 2 July 2012.

The methodologies used in these ratings were Moody's Approach to Rating RMBS Using the MILAN Framework, published in March 2013 and The Temporary Use of Cash in Structured Finance Transactions: Eligible Investment and Bank Guidelines published in March 2013. Please see the Credit Policy page on www.moodys.com for a copy of these methodologies

In reviewing these transactions, Moody's used its cash flow model, ABSROM, to determine the loss for each tranche. The cash flow model evaluates all default scenarios that are then weighted considering the probabilities of the lognormal distribution assumed for the portfolio default rate. In each default scenario, Moody's calculates the corresponding loss for each class of notes given the incoming cash flows from the assets and the outgoing payments to third parties and note holders. Therefore, the expected loss for each tranche is the sum product of (1) the probability of occurrence of each default scenario and (2) the loss derived from the cash flow model in each default scenario for each tranche.

In the context of the rating review, the transactions have been remodeled and some inputs have been adjusted to reflect the new approach described above. In addition, the following have been corrected during the review: notes margins and PDL mechanism were corrected in TDA Ibercaja 2; notes margins, one of the triggers switching the priority of payments, one of the triggers for reserve fund amortization and tranche C interest deferral trigger were corrected for TDA Ibercaja 5; Class E margin, one of the triggers switching the priority of payments and one of the triggers for reserve fund amortization were corrected for TDA Ibercaja 6.

As such, Moody's analysis encompasses the assessment of stressed scenarios.
