The Electronic Forum for Shareholders contains its own rules of operation. This Forum is accessible, subject to all the warranties required, both by individual shareholders and by those voluntary associations that might be eventually established, so that they can get in touch before the holding of the Meeting. Subject to the requisites, formalities and consequences foreseen in the legal regulations applicable to the Electronic Forum for Shareholders, Shareholders may post any proposals they intend to submit as an addendum to the Agenda included in the notice of summons to the meeting, as well as any requests for endorsement of such proposals, initiatives to reach the percentage required for the exercise of any minority rights foreseen by the legislation in force, and any other offers or requests for voluntary representation.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE NOTICE OF SUMMONS AND SUBMISSION OF PROPOSALS

Shareholders who represent at least three percent (3%) of the capital stock of the Company may request the publication of a supplement to this notice, including one or more additional points in the Agenda, provided that such new points are duly justified or, if appropriate, a grounded resolution proposal is attached.

This right should be exercised through an official notice, including all the necessary information, addressed to the Secretary of the Board of Directors. Such notice must be received at the Registered Office of the Company, within five days from the publication of this Notice of Summons. If appropriate, the supplement to the Notice of Summons would be published at least fifteen days before the date fixed for the holding of the Meeting.

Shareholders who represent the same percentage of the Capital Stock (within the same term of five days stated in the previous paragraph, and provided that the relevant notice has been sent to the Registered Office of the Company) may also submit grounded resolution proposals on issues already included or to be included in the Agenda of the General Meeting. In such a case, the Company will guarantee that such resolution proposals and the documentation attached, if any, are divulged under the same terms and conditions as the remaining proposals, according to the legal provisions established in that respect.

ATTENDANCE RIGHT

The General Meeting may be attended by shareholders who hold at least 400 shares, provided that such shares have been registered in their name in the relevant shareholders registry book, five days in advance to the date on which the General Meeting will be held, and their condition as shareholders is evidenced through the relevant Attendance, Delegation and Voting Card, issued by the Institution where their shares are deposited or, failing this, by the Company itself; a certificate issued by any of the entities belonging to the Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores (Iberclear) or any other method admitted by the legislation in force may also be used.

Any shareholder who has not received the Attendance, Delegation and Voting Card issued by the institution where his/her shares have been deposited may request it to Atresmedia Corporación until three days before the date of the meeting, through any of the procedures established in this notice of summons, or download it from the corporate website, under the section 2018 General Meeting, Attendance, Delegation and Voting Card.

The personal attendance of the shareholder to the Meeting will represent an actual revocation of any prior vote or delegation.

GROUPING OF SHARES

Shareholders who own less than 400 shares may group with other shareholders in the same situation until the necessary number of shares to attend the meeting has been reached. In such a case, the representation will be granted to one of them. The grouping of shares shall be specifically carried out for this General Meeting, and must be executed by any written means that allows providing the evidence of such grouping.

The shareholder who represents the grouped shareholders must contact the Shareholder's Office to obtain an Attendance Card which includes all the shareholders grouped, after submitting all the relevant proxies duly signed. This request must be made by mail sent to the Corporate Office.

REPRESENTATION AND VOTING RIGHTS

Shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting may be represented by another person, even if such person is not a shareholder. The representation can be granted through the delegation form included in the Attendance, Delegation and Voting Card or through any other way accepted by the legislation in force.

Shareholders who own less than 400 shares may delegate the representation of their shares and the exercise of their right to vote in one shareholder entitled to attend the Meeting, through any of the procedures mentioned in this notice of summons.

The vote can be fractioned in order to allow those professional financial intermediaries who appear legitimated as shareholders, but act in the name of different clients, to cast their votes in accordance with the instructions of their principals, even though such instructions may be different. Furthermore, the financial intermediary may delegate the vote to a third party designated by the client, without restrictions as to the number of delegations conferred.

Intermediaries who are appointed as proxies must forward to Atresmedia Corporación, within the seven days preceding the date on which the Meeting is to be held, a list stating the identity of each client and the number of shares whose voting rights they will exercise on behalf of those clients, as well as the voting instructions received by the intermediary, if any.

If the shareholder does not clarify in the proxy who should represent him/her, the Person who chairs the General Meeting will assume such representation and will act in accordance with the instructions received.

In the absence of specific voting instructions from the shareholder, the representative will vote in favour of the proposals of the Board regarding the points included in the Agenda.

The representation also extends to other matters not included in the agenda and that may be voted during the Meeting, unless the shareholder has indicated otherwise in the delegation document. In this case, it will be understood that the instructions provided by the shareholder will be to abstain from voting.

In the absence of specific voting instructions from the shareholder, and in case of an eventual conflict of interest for the Chairman, it will be understood that the shareholder will be represented by the Deputy Chair of the Board of Directors, or by the Secretary of the Board, in case that the former is also affected by any eventual conflict of interest.

RIGHT OF REPRESENTATION THROUGH REMOTE COMMUNICATIONS MEANS

Those shareholders who do not attend the meeting may delegate their representation through remote communications means, provided that they comply with (i) the procedural and identification guarantees listed below; (ii) the guarantees of satisfactory evidence of the condition of shareholder included in the section "Common rules related to the exercise or delegation of the voting right through remote communications means" of this notice of summons; and (iii) any other requirements and formalities that might be required by the legislation in force.

- a) Procedure: those shareholders who wish to grant their representation by mail must complete the sections regarding delegation included in the Attendance, Delegation and Voting Card issued by the institution where their shares have been deposited or, in its absence, in any equivalent card which has been obtained through any of the means already indicated. Once duly signed the Card must be sent by post addressed to: (i) the Official Address, in case that the delegation is granted in favour of the Chairman or any other Member of the Board of Directors, or (ii) in other cases, to the address of the proxy appointed by the shareholder. In this latter case, the proxy must attend the venue of the Meeting, with the attendance card and his/her Identification Card or Passport, before the time scheduled for the commencement of the Meeting.
- b) Validity of the delegation through postal correspondence: The delegation will be considered valid by the Company only in the case that it is received within the deadlines foreseen and the status of shareholder of the principal has been duly evidenced.

The vote through remote communications means may be cast through:

d) Additional information: more information on the exercise of the voting rights through remote communication means is available in the document "Delegation and Vote through remote (electronic and postal) communications means", which can be found in the website of the company, under the section "2018 General Meeting".

2. Postal Correspondence

a) Procedure: those shareholders who wish to cast their vote by mail must complete and sign the 'Postal Vote' Section of the Attendance, Delegation and Voting Card issued by the institution where their shares have been deposited or, in the absence of such card, of any equivalent Card obtained through the procedures already explained. This Card, once it has been duly completed and signed, must be delivered at the corporate office or sent by mail to the Shareholder's Office, at the official address, within the deadlines established to that effect.

b) Validity: the vote so cast will be considered valid by the Company only in the case that it is received within the deadlines foreseen and the status of shareholder of the voter has been duly evidenced.

COMMON RULES RELATED TO THE EXERCISE OR DELEGATION OF THE VOTING RIGHT BY REMOTE COMMUNICATIONS MEANS

1.- Deadline for their reception by the Company and certification of the condition as Shareholder

The delegations granted and votes cast through remote communications means (either through electronic means or by post) must be: (i) granted through the specific link created for the purposes of this General Meeting at the website of the Company, or (ii) received at the official address of the Company. In both cases, the minimum deadline will be 24 hours before the holding of the Meeting, i.e., before 17:00 hours of 17th April. The Company will verify whether the ownership and the number of shares indicated by those shareholders who have granted their representation or cast their votes are correct, on the basis of the data available at the Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores, S.A. (IBERCLEAR) or the Record Book of Shareholders.

2.- Rules of Precedence

The personal attendance to the Meeting of any shareholder who had previously delegated his/her representation or who had already voted through a remote system, notwithstanding the means used, will leave without effect such voting or delegation. In the case that a shareholder validly makes several delegations (either through electronic means or by mail) the last action (delegation or voting), performed before the Meeting is held will take precedence. If it cannot be ascertained the exact time when the shareholder did delegate or cast his/her vote, the casting of the vote (irrespective of the means used to cast such vote) will prevail over the delegation. If the shareholder had cast several votes in a different sense, either through electronic means or by post, the last vote cast before the holding of the Meeting will prevail.

3.- Electronic signature

To guarantee the authenticity and correct identification of the shareholder who exercises his/her representation and voting rights, the legal provisions on advanced and recognised electronic signature, regulated by Law 59/2003, of 19th December, on Electronic Signature, will be applied, provided that they are based on a recognised electronic certificate, which has not been revoked and which has been issued by the Spanish Public Certification Authority (CERES), dependent upon the Spanish National Mint, or if the Shareholder has a Valid Electronic National Identification Card.

4.- Other forecasts

- Both the casting and the delegation of votes through remote electronic means before the holding of the Meeting will be void in case of disposal of the shares that grant such rights.
- The shareholder will be exclusively responsible for the custody of his/her electronic signature.
- Those shareholders who are companies or who are not residents of Spain should consult the Shareholder's Attention Office to consider the possibility of applying, on a case by case basis, the general procedures to vote and delegate through remote communications means. Similarly, in the case that the shareholder is a company, such company must notify the Company, in a reliable manner, any change or revocation of the faculties of its representative, and the Company declines any responsibility until such notice has been forwarded.

5.- Suspension of the electronic systems and interconnection failures

The Company reserves the right to modify, suspend, cancel or restrict the electronic voting and delegation mechanisms when so required or imposed by technical or security reasons. Upon the occurrence of any of such assumptions, this will be immediately notified in the website of the Company.

PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Information of a personal nature provided to the Company by the shareholders in connection with the exercise or the delegation of their attendance and voting rights on the occasion of the General Meeting, as well as those data provided by registered users or generated as a consequence of the use of the Electronic Forum shall be processed by the Company, as data controller, in connection with the management of the relationships with shareholders, and the calling, holding, control of the participation and divulging of the General Meeting, as well as the management of the compliance with the applicable regulations. To that effect, such data will be provided to the Notary Public in charge of recording the minutes of the General Meeting.

The General Meeting may be fully or partially recorded in audio and video, and publicly divulged through the website of the Company. The attendance to the General Meeting implies that the attendant expressly authorises the recording of still pictures, live images and/or voice, as well as their dissemination as indicated above. Similarly, registered users of the Forum expressly accept and consent that their personal information may be published on such Forum.

When appropriate, the data subject may exercise his/her right of access to, and the right to rectify, object and cancel such data through a written notice forwarded to the Office for the Consultation of Personal Information Files, located at Avda. Isla Graciosa Nº 13, 28703 San Sebastián de los Reyes, Madrid.

In the event that the shareholder had included in the delegation card or the remote voting card personal information concerning other individuals, the shareholder must inform them about the contents of the preceding paragraphs, and comply with any other applicable requirements in connection with the proper disclosure of such personal information to the Company, and the Company shall not be obliged to undertake any additional action in terms of information or consent.

OTHER INFORMATION OF A GENERAL NATURE

- The Meeting will foreseeably be held in first call.
- The Board of Directors has agreed to request the presence of a Notary Public to prepare the Minutes of the Meeting.

- Attendance Cards will be issued by those Institutions where the shares are deposited. Notwithstanding the foregoing, those shareholders who have not received them from the Institutions where their shares are deposited may also request the Attendance Cards to the Company itself or download such Cards from the Corporate website.
- No Meeting attendance premium will be paid, irrespective of whether the Meeting is attended personally or by proxy. No gifts will be distributed.
