Rating Action: Moody's upgrades 9 notes' rating in 6 Spanish RMBS deals

Global Credit Research - 23 May 2017

Moody's affirms the ratings of 11 notes

London, 23 May 2017 -- Moody's Investors Service has today upgraded the ratings of 9 notes, and affirmed the ratings of 11 notes in 6 Spanish RMBS deals. The rating action reflects the upgrade of counterparty's CR assessment which acts as the servicer in the transaction(s).

Please click on this link http://www.moody's.com/viewresearchdoc.aspx?docid=PBS_SF452545 for the List of Affected Credit Ratings. This list is an integral part of this Press Release and identifies each affected issuer.

Maximum achievable rating is Aa2 (sf) for structured transactions in Spain, driven by Local Currency Ceiling (Aa2) of the country.

RATINGS RATIONALE

The rating action is prompted by the upgrade of counterparty's CR assessment which acts as the servicer in the transaction(s), in one case, also coupled with increased level of credit enhancement. Please see the following press release http://www.moody's.com/viewresearchdoc.aspx?docid=PR_366034.

Counterparty Exposure

Today's rating actions took into consideration the notes' exposure to relevant counterparties, such as servicer, account banks or swap providers.

Moody's considered how the liquidity available in the transactions and other mitigants support continuity of note payments, in case of servicer default, using the CR Assessment as a reference point for servicers. Moody's considers that the current back-up servicing arrangements are sufficient to support payments in the event of servicer disruption. As a result, Moody's upgraded the ratings of 9 notes, and affirmed the ratings of 11 notes in 6 Spanish RMBS deals.

Moody's matches banks' exposure in structured finance transactions to the CR Assessment for commingling risk, and to the bank deposit rating when analyzing set-off risk. Moody's has introduced a recovery rate assumption of 45% for both exposures.

The principal methodology used in these ratings was "Moody's Approach to Rating RMBS Using the MILAN Framework" published in September 2016. Please see the Rating Methodologies page on www.moody's.com for a copy of this methodology.

The analysis undertaken by Moody's at the initial assignment of these ratings for RMBS securities may focus on aspects that become less relevant or typically remain unchanged during the surveillance stage. Please see Moody's Approach to Rating RMBS Using the MILAN Framework for further information on Moody's analysis at the initial rating assignment and the on-going surveillance in RMBS.

Factors that would lead to an upgrade or downgrade of the ratings:

Factors or circumstances that could lead to an upgrade of the ratings include (1) performance of the underlying collateral that is better than Moody's expected, (2) deleveraging of the capital structure, (3) improvements in the credit quality of the transaction counterparties and (4) a decrease in sovereign risk.

Factors or circumstances that could lead to a downgrade of the ratings include (1) an increase in sovereign risk (2) performance of the underlying collateral that is worse than Moody's expected, (3) deterioration in the notes' available credit enhancement and (4) deterioration in the credit quality of the transaction counterparties.

The Credit Ratings for the above mentioned deals were assigned in accordance with Moody's existing Methodology entitled "Moody's Approach to Rating RMBS Using the MILAN Framework", dated September 2016. Please note that on 22nd of March 2017, Moody's released a Request for Comment, in which it has requested market feedback on potential revisions to its Methodology for Structured Finance. If the revised Methodology is implemented as proposed, the Credit Rating on the above mentioned deals may be affected. Please refer to Moody's Request for Comment, titled "Moody's Proposes Revisions to Its Approach to Assessing Counterparty Risks in Structured Finance", for further details regarding the implications of the proposed Methodology revisions on certain Credit Ratings.

For further specification of Moody's key rating assumptions and sensitivity analysis, see the sections Methodology Assumptions and Sensitivity to Assumptions of the disclosure form.

The analysis relies on an assessment of collateral characteristics to determine the collateral loss distribution, that is, the function that correlates to an assumption about the likelihood of occurrence to each level of possible losses in the collateral. As a second step, Moody's evaluates each possible collateral loss scenario using a model that replicates the relevant structural features to derive payments and therefore the ultimate potential losses for each rated instrument. The loss a rated instrument incurs in each collateral loss scenario, weighted by assumptions about the likelihood of events in that scenario occurring, results in the expected loss of the rated instrument.

Moody's quantitative analysis entails an evaluation of scenarios that stress factors contributing to sensitivity of ratings and take into account the likelihood of severe collateral losses or impaired cash flows. Moody's weights the impact on the rated instruments based on its assumptions of the likelihood of the events in such scenarios occurring.
