Fitch Ratings-London-28 May 2010: Fitch Ratings has today downgraded 10 classes of CDO notes and affirmed 14 classes of CDO notes following the agency's downgrade of Spain's Long-term foreign and local currency Issuer Default Ratings (IDR) to 'AA+' from 'AAA'. A full list of the affected securities is available on Fitch's website at www.fitchratings.com.

All of the CDO notes benefit from an irrevocable and unconditional guarantee by the Kingdom of Spain. Fitch has downgraded the notes that do not have sufficient standalone credit protection to withstand a 'AAA' stress and had therefore relied on the Kingdom of Spain guarantee for their prior 'AAA' rating. The notes Fitch has affirmed have sufficient credit enhancement to maintain a 'AAA' rating without the guarantee. Spain's Country Ceiling remains at 'AAA'.

"The sovereign downgrade reflects Fitch's assessment that the process of adjustment to a lower level of private sector and external indebtedness will materially reduce the rate of growth of the Spanish economy over the medium-term," says Brian Coulton, Fitch's Head of EMEA Sovereign Ratings.

"Despite government debt and associated interest costs remaining within the 'AAA' range, Fitch anticipates that the economic adjustment process will be more difficult and prolonged than for other economies with 'AAA'-rated sovereign governments, which is why the agency has downgraded Spain's Long-term IDR to 'AA+'," Coulton adds.

This issue is addressed further in a special report published today, entitled 'Sluggish Recovery a Key Risk for Spain', which is available on Fitch's website.

Although the rebalancing of Spain's economy is firmly underway, the inflexibility of the labour market and the restructuring of regional and local savings banks (cajas) will, in Fitch's opinion, hinder the pace of adjustment, particularly in the aftermath of the real estate boom.

Fitch used a combination of its Rating Criteria for European Granular Corporate Balance-Sheet Securitizations, its Global Rating Criteria for Single-and-Multi-Name Credit-Linked Notes and its Global Rating Criteria for Corporate CDOs to assign these ratings.
