

1 July 2013

MONTHLY TRADING STATEMENTS FOR BME MARKETSTHE SPANISH STOCK EXCHANGE TRADED €58.5 BILLION
IN JUNE, UP 21.5% FROM MAY

- The number of trades in June were 3.44 million, up 8.2% from May
- In June trading on the Derivatives market came in at 6.29 million contracts, up 86% from May
- ETF trading in June was €277.4 million, up 20.6% year on year
- Trading on the Corporate Debt market in the first half totalled €755.6 billion and on SEND (Retail Fixed Income platform) it increased more than 4-fold

Equities

The equity trading volume on the Spanish Stock Exchange in June was €58.5 billion, up 21.5% from the previous month. The trading volume to the end of June totalled €326.4 billion, down 13% from the same period in 2012.

The number of trades in June reached 3.44 million, up 8.2% from the preceding month. The number of trades to the end of June reached 20.67 million, down 16.5% from the same period last year.

As for the ETF segment, the trading volume to the end of June came in at €1.5 billion, up 43.6% from the same period last year. In June, the trading volume came in at €277.4 million, up 20.6% from June 2012.

The number of trades in ETFs to the end of June totaled 31,129, up 11.8% from the same period in 2012. In June the number of trades reached 5,908, up 20.4% from the previous month.

Futures and options

In June trading on Derivatives came in at 6.29 million contracts, up 86% from the previous month. There was growth in all segments, especially in Futures on Stocks, with a five-fold increase on the preceding month. To the end of June the trading volume totaled 26.5 million contracts, down 28.1% year-on-year.

Warrants and Certificates

The volume of warrants and certificates admitted to the end of June totaled 4,847. Activity on the market in June totaled €70.2 million, up 8.1% from the same period in 2012 and up 4.5% from the previous month. The number of trades in June in this market totaled 16,038, up 9% from the previous month.

Corporate Debt

The trading volume in June on the Corporate Debt market was €82.2 billion. In the first six months the trading volume on this market totaled €755.6 billion, down 39.6% year-on-year.

New issues to the end of June reached €74.7 billion, down 64.8% from the same period last year. In June new issues were €7.5 billion, down 84.4% from June last year.

The trading volume on SEND (Retail Fixed Income platform) in the first half totalled €1.4 billion, more than 4 times as much as that for the same period last year. The number of trades on this platform during the same period reached 77,699, more than 3 times as high as that for the first half of 2012. In June the trading volume on SEND came in at €285 million and there were 20,244 trades, both figures rising more than five-fold year-on-year.

In June trading in Public Debt on SENAF, BME's wholesale trading platform, reached €4.7 billion, up 129.5% from the same period in 2012.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

BME Corporate Communication
+ 34 91 589 12 86

Email: newsbme@grupobme.es
<http://www.bolsasymercados.es>