C.1.5 State whether the company has diversity policies in relation to its Board of Directors in areas such as age, gender, disability, training and professional experience. Small and medium-sized enterprises as defined in the Audit Act will have to report at least the policy they have implemented in relation to gender diversity.

Yes

No

Partial policies

Should this be the case, describe these diversity policies, their objectives, the measures and the way in which they have been applied and their results over the financial year. Also state the specific measures adopted by the Board of Directors and the Appointments and Remuneration Committee to achieve a balanced and diverse presence of Directors.

If the company does not apply a diversity policy, explain the reasons why.

Description of policies, objectives, measures and how they have been implemented, including results achieved.
In February 2016 the Director Candidate Selection Policy was approved, which was amended in January 2020. It seeks to ensure that proposed candidates are people who are honourable, suitable, with a solid reputation, competence, experience, qualification, training, availability and commitment to their role. It also strives to ensure that the selection of candidates achieves the right balance on the Board of Directors as a whole which enhances decision-making and brings plural points of view to the discussion of matters within its remit and also fosters diversity of knowledge, experiences and gender on the Board of Directors. On the occasion of the vacancies occurring within the Board of Directors during 2019, the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee proposed, with the favourable report of the Board of Directors, the appointment of 2 Independent Directors, and the ratification of the appointment of another Independent Director appointed by the co-optation method. The General Meeting of Shareholders held on 9 April 2019 approved of this ratification and appointments, and they were carried out in compliance with the parameters and guidelines established in the Director Candidate Selection Policy, analysing to what degree they met the requirements of suitability, competence, experience, training, merits and commitment, bearing in mind the Board diversity targets, specifically in relation to academic training and professional experience, and in gender diversity, since one of these appointments was that of a woman, who in addition to being a member of the Audit Committee is also its Chairwoman. Following these appointments, the presence of women on Aena's Board of Directors is 26.67% of the total number of Directors, a percentage very close to the 30% proposed in the Recommendations of the Code of Good Governance for 2020 and which is expected to be reached by the end of this year. Aena is also continuing to ensure that in the future the Board will remain diverse in terms of its members' professional experience and age. Training has also been considered when assessing diversity on the Board. Accordingly training sessions have been held in 2019 for its members separately from Board meetings on different days and with external advisers and internal directors of the Company, as decided in the training plan for 2019, to cover issues which come up in the Board.

In July 2019, the Board of Directors amended its Regulations, in which, following the publication by the CNMV of Technical Guide 1/2019 on Appointments and Remuneration Committees on 20 February 2019, it included the Director selection recommendations, such as ensuring that the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee is knowledgeable about and has experience of: a) corporate governance, b) strategic analysis and evaluation of human resources, c) selection of Directors and executives, d) performance of senior management duties and e) design of remuneration policies and plans for Directors and senior management, and that in its proposal to the Board of Directors, the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee must identify who has suggested the candidate, record the evaluation made and the suitability of the candidate for the category to which he/she has been assigned, in the report/proposal submitted to the Board for appointment or re-election. We have also established in the Regulations that proposals for appointment must be justified, both in the circumstances relating to the candidate and in the specific circumstances that have been relevant to the decision.

C.1.6 Describe any measures agreed by the appointments committee to ensure that selection procedures do not contain hidden biases which hinder the selection of female Directors and that the company deliberately seeks out and includes women who meet the target professional profile among potential candidates and makes it possible to achieve a balance between men and women:

Explanation of measures

As noted above, Section 7.(b) of Article 24 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors, establishes that the competencies of the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee include setting a representation target for the least represented sex on the Board of Directors, setting guidelines as to how to achieve this target and reporting to the Board on gender diversity issues.

Likewise, the Aena Director Candidate Selection Policy specifies that the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee has to ensure that proposed candidates are people who are honourable, suitable, with a solid reputation, competence, experience, qualification, training, availability and commitment to their role. It also has to ensure that the selection of candidates achieves the right balance on the Board of Directors as a whole which enhances decision-making and brings plural points of view to the discussion of matters within its remit and also fosters diversity of knowledge, experiences and gender on the Board of Directors.

For this purpose, as established in the Director Candidate Selection Policy, Aena uses external advisors for Director selection processes. The advisors present three profiles for each candidate to the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee, after which the Committee prepares the proposal (in the case of Independent Directors) and the report (in the case of Proprietary Directors) proposing the best candidate from the list of three in each case.

If there are few or no women Directors in spite of any measures adopted, please explain the reasons that justify such a situation:

Explanation of reasons

C.1.7 Explain the conclusions reached by the appointments committee on verification of compliance with the Director selection policy. In particular, state how this policy is helping to achieve the target that the number of female Directors accounts for at least 30% of the total number of members of the Board of Directors by 2020.

Aena's Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee's annual report on verification of compliance with the Director selection policy supports the selection of Directors in 2019 inasmuch as all appointments were made following the parameters envisaged in the Director Candidate Selection Policy, such as the suitability, competence, experience, training, merits and commitment of the candidates, while also promoting diversity of knowledge, experience and gender on the Board of Directors. As for the target that by 2020 the number of female Directors represents at least 30% of the total number of members of the Board of Directors, the Board takes note of the need to continue working steadily to achieve this objective.

C.1.8 If applicable, explain the reasons why Proprietary Directors have been appointed at the request of shareholders with less than a 3% equity interest:

Name or company name of shareholder	Justification

C.1.16 State the procedures for selection, appointment, re-election and removal of Directors. Mention competent bodies, procedures to be followed and criteria to be applied in each of the procedures.

In its Board of Directors meeting on 23 February 2016, the Company approved a Director Selection Policy, which has been amended on 28 January 2020.

This Policy establishes that the selection of candidates will be based on an analysis of the Company's needs, which will be performed by the Board of Directors with the advice of and a report from the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee, which will submit its proposals to the Board.

The Company must use external advisors to select candidates when selecting Independent Directors, and it will be optional to use such external advisors when selecting Proprietary Directors. In this candidate selection process, any kind of implicit bias that may entail discrimination, and especially any which hinders the selection of people of either sex, will be avoided. Efforts will be made so that in 2020, the number of female Directors accounts for at least thirty percent (30%) of the total number of members of the Board of Directors.

The company hired to carry out the work necessary for the selection of candidates will present the reports prepared on the selected candidates, submitting three profiles for each candidate to the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee and, once these reports have been analysed by the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee, the latter will prepare the proposals to appoint Directors, choosing the best candidate from the list of three in each case.

When re-electing Directors, the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee shall prepare the proposals, after analysis, of both the curriculum vitae of the Directors and their track record on the Company's Board of Directors, plus the opinions in favour of re-election held by the other Directors, in this case without needing external advice.

The proposals for the appointment and re-election of Directors that the Board of Directors submits to the Shareholders' Meeting for consideration and the appointment decisions that are made by the Board of Directors fall to the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee in the case of Independent Directors, and to the Board itself in all other cases, subject to an explanatory report of the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee that assesses the skill, experience and merits of the proposed candidate.

In addition, the procedures of selection and re-election of Directors are regulated in Articles 31, 33 and 34 of the Company Bylaws and Articles 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14 of the Board Regulations.

The procedure must be carried out in application of the principle of balanced composition of the Board in terms of classes of Directors as considered in Article 8.4 of the Board Regulations.

The Members of the Board of Directors of the Company shall be appointed by the General Shareholders' Meeting or, in the event of an early vacancy, by the Board of Directors itself by co-optation.

Thus, the Board Regulations establish:

“Article 9.- Selection of candidates:

1. The Board of Directors shall work towards ensuring that: (a) the selection policy of the directors (i) is specific and verifiable (ii) ensures that the proposals for appointment or re-election are based on a previous analysis of the needs of the Board of Directors; and (iii) supports the diversity of knowledge, experience and gender in the Board of Directors; and (b) the result of the preliminary analysis of the needs of the Board is reflected in the explanatory report of the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee to be published at the summons of the General Shareholders' Meeting that must ratify the appointment or re-election of each Director.

2. The Board of Directors –and the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee within the scope of its powers– shall endeavour to ensure that the proposals for candidates made to the General Shareholders' Meeting for appointment or re-election as Directors, and the appointments made directly to cover vacancies in the exercise of its co-optation powers, are made of honourable and suitable persons of recognised solvency, competence, experience, qualification, training, availability and commitment to their duty. It shall also strive to ensure that the selection of candidates achieves the right balance of the Board of Directors as a whole, which enriches the decision making process and contributes plural perspectives to the discussion of matters of its competence.

3. In the case of a Director that is a legal entity, the individual representing it in the exercise of the duties inherent to the office of Director shall be subject to the same criteria set forth in the previous paragraph. Any incompatibilities that may be applicable and any duties enforceable for Directors as set forth in the Company Bylaws and these Regulations shall be equally applicable to the representative on a personal level.

Article 10.- Appointment:

1. The Directors shall be appointed by the General Shareholder's Meeting by agreement or, in the event of co-optation, by the Board of Directors, with the provisions set forth in the law and in the Company Bylaws.

2. The proposals for appointment and re-election of Directors that the Board of Directors submits to the General Shareholders' Meeting, and the appointment decisions that are adopted by the Board of Directors, by virtue of the powers of co-optation legally attributed thereto, must be preceded by:

(i) the pertaining proposal from the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee in the case of Independent Directors, which must go hand in hand with an explanatory report evaluating the competency, experience and merit of the proposed candidate; or

(ii) the report from the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee report in the case of other Directors, with assignment of the new Director to one of the categories considered in these Regulations.

The provisions of this section shall also apply to individuals who are designated as representatives of a Director that is a legal entity, and the proposal for the appointment of such representative must be submitted to the report of the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee.

3. The proposals and reports from the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee must value the honourability, suitability, solvency, competency, experience, qualification, training, availability and commitment to duty of the candidates.

4. When the Board of Directors should choose to act contrary to any of the proposals or reports from the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee it shall explain the reasons for its action and record it in a document.

5. The appointment of Directors by co-optation must respect the rules of appointment of Directors set forth in the law, in the Company Bylaws and in these Board of Directors Regulations. In the event of a vacancy arising after the General Shareholder's Meeting, has already been called and prior to it being held, the Board of Directors may designate a Director until the holding of the following General Shareholder's Meeting.

Article 11.- Term of office

1. Directors shall hold their office for a period of four (4) years unless the General Shareholders' Meeting should agree their dismissal or they should resign before the end of this term.

2. Directors may be re-elected once or several times for periods of four (4) years, although in the case of Independent Directors the maximum term of office shall be of twelve (12) years for this category.

3. The vacancies that might arise may be covered by the Board of Directors in accordance with the law, the Company Bylaws and these Regulations, until the following General Shareholders' Meeting is held, which will then either confirm the appointments or elect the persons who must replace the non-ratified Directors, unless elimination of the vacancies should be decided.

Article 12.- Re-election

1. The proposals for re-election of Directors that the Board of Directors should decide to submit to the General Shareholders' Meeting must follow a procedure which will necessarily include a proposal (in the case of Independent Directors) or a report (in the case of remaining Directors) issued by the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee, which will evaluate the quality of the work and the dedication to office of the Directors proposed during the previous term of office as well as the honourability, suitability, solvency, competency, availability and commitment to duty thereof.

2. To this end, the Directors who form part of the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee shall be evaluated by this Committee, using whatever internal and external means are deemed necessary, and each one shall have to leave the meetings when the deliberations and voting affecting each one take place.

3. The Chairman, the Deputy Chairmen (if any), the Independent Directors especially empowered and, in the event that they are Directors, the Secretary and the Deputy Secretaries (if any) of the Board of Directors that are re-elected as members of the Board of Directors by agreement of the General Shareholder's Meeting shall continue to hold the offices they have held hitherto within the Board of Directors, with no need for a new appointment, and all notwithstanding the power of revocation in regard to such offices held by the Board of Directors itself.

Article 13.- Resignation, dismissal and termination

1. The Directors shall terminate their term of office when the term for which they were appointed has elapsed or when so decided by the General Shareholder's Meeting exercising the powers attributed thereto.

2. The Board of Directors shall not propose the termination of any Independent Director before the end of the term of appointment, unless there should be just cause for this in the opinion of the Board of Directors, following a report from the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee. In particular, a just cause shall be understood to have occurred when the Director takes on new offices or undertakes new obligations which prevent him/her from dedicating the necessary time to the performance of the duties inherent to the office of Director, should fail to meet the duties inherent to his/her office or should be subject to circumstances that cause him/her to lose his/her condition of independent, in accordance with applicable legislation. This termination may also be proposed as a result of public takeover bids, mergers or any other similar corporate operations that lead to change in the capital structure of the Company.

3. Directors must present their resignation to the Board of Directors and formalise said resignation in the following cases:

(i) When for unexpected circumstances they should be subject to the situations of incompatibility or prohibition set forth in general provisions, in the Company Bylaws or in these Regulations.

(ii) When as a result of actions or conducts attributable to the Director serious damage should have been caused to the assets or reputation of the Company or the Company should be at risk of criminal liability.

(iii) When they should lose the honourability, suitability, solvency, competency, availability or commitment to duty necessary to be a Director of the Company.

(iv) When their permanence in the Board of Directors might endanger, for any reason, and directly, indirectly or via parties related to him (in accordance with the definition of this term contained in these Regulations), the fair and diligent performance of his/her duties in accordance with social interest.

(v) When the reasons for which he/she was appointed should no longer exist and, in particular, in the case of Proprietary Directors, when the shareholder they represent has fully or partially sold his/her shareholding, thus losing the qualification thereof as significant or sufficient to justify the appointment. The number of Proprietary Directors proposed by a shareholder must be reduced in accordance with its reduction of their shareholding in the share capital of the Company.

(vi) When an Independent Director should unexpectedly become involved in any of the circumstances he/she is barred from as set forth in Article 8.5 of these Regulations.

4. In any of the cases set forth in the foregoing paragraph, the Board of Directors shall ask the Director to resign from office and, as the case may be, shall propose their dismissal at the General Shareholder's Meeting.

5. C.1.17 Explain to what extent the annual assessment of the Board has led to important changes in its internal organisation and the procedures applicable to its activities:

Description of amendments

Aena was assisted by an external consultant (Deloitte) to assess the functioning of the Board of Directors in 2018. As a result of this analysis, the Board of Directors of Aena, in its meeting of 26 February 2019, established the following proposals for action for the year 2019:

- Review of the amounts of the contracts to be submitted for the approval of the Board of Directors, in order to lighten the points to be dealt with in the Agenda, and to free up time in the sessions for the discussion of strategic issues.
- Preparation of executive summaries presentations related to the different points of the Agenda, whenever possible.
- Adaptation of the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee functioning to the recommendations in CNMV Technical Guide.
- Systematisation of Training Programs for Directors and members of the Commissions in matters related to their specific needs.
- Incorporation of new professional profiles of Directors related to international business, real estate or digital sectors in the selection process.
- Creation of at least one Working Group within the Board in terms of strategy, or in real estate aspects or international expansion or digitisation.

All these proposals have been fully implemented throughout 2019, with the 2019 Action Plan having been fully complied with.

Describe the evaluation process and the areas evaluated by the Board of Directors with the help, if any, of external advisers regarding the function and composition of the Board and its committees and any other area or aspect that has been evaluated.

Description of the evaluation process and evaluated areas

The Board of Directors of Aena evaluates performance on an annual basis in accordance with the applicable regulations and Section 19.8 of the Board of Directors Regulations. In accordance with Recommendation 36 of the Code of Good Governance of the CNMV, the following areas have been evaluated:
--

|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Quality and efficiency of the functioning of the Board of Directors and its specialized committees, including the degree of effective use by the board and the commissions of the contributions of its members. – The size, composition and diversity of the Council and commissions – Performance of the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the chief executive of the Company. – Performance and contribution of each director, paying special attention to the Presidents of the different Committees. – The frequency and duration of meetings. |
|---|

- Agenda and the sufficiency of the time dedicated to dealing with the different issues depending on their importance.
- The Performance of the Coordinating Director and the Secretary of the Board.
- The quality of the information received.
- The breadth and openness of debates, avoiding group thinking.
- If the decision-making process within the Council is dominated or strongly influenced by a member or a small group of members.

The 2019 evaluation has been carried out internally without the assistance of an external consultant. Thus, the purpose of the evaluation has been the Board of Directors overall, and its Committees, and the evaluation has included a special section in order to assess the degree of compliance with the action plan for the financial year 2019 approved by the Board of Directors for the implementation of improvements identified as a result of the self-assessment carried out in the previous year.

The methodology used, which is consistent with that used in previous years, was the gathering of information from the different directors through (i) the completion, from a quantitative and qualitative point of view, of an evaluation questionnaire which included different questions about the points that are the object of the evaluation and (ii) the Secretary of the Board conducting personal interviews with the different members of the Board of Directors who joined the Board in 2019.

The result of the evaluation process was included in a report presented to the Audit Committee on 23 January 2020 and to the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee on 28 January 2020. The Board of Directors, in its session held on 28 January 2020, approved the results of the evaluation of the 2019 fiscal year and the measures to be implemented as part of the action plan for the 2020 fiscal year.

C.1.18 Describe, for those financial years in which the evaluation has been assisted by an external consultant, the business relationships that the consultant or any company in its group has with the company or any company in its group.

Not applicable, as there was no external advice in the evaluation of the Board of Directors in 2019.

C.1.19 State the cases in which Directors are obliged to resign.

In addition to the case of incompatibility or prohibition legally established, Article 13 of the Board Regulations sets forth:

“(...) 3. Directors must present their resignation to the Board of Directors and formalise said resignation in the following cases:

(i) When for unexpected circumstances they should be subject to the situations of incompatibility or prohibition set forth in general provisions, in the Company Bylaws or in these Regulations.

(ii) When as a result of actions or conducts attributable to the Director serious damage should have been caused to the assets or reputation of the Company or the Company should be at risk of criminal liability.

(iii) When they should lose the honourability, suitability, solvency, competency, availability or commitment to duty necessary to be a Director of the Company.

(iv) When their permanence in the Board of Directors might endanger, for any reason, and directly, indirectly or via parties related to him (in accordance with the definition of this term contained in these Regulations), the fair and diligent performance of his/her duties in accordance with social interest.

(v) When the reasons for which he/she was appointed should no longer exist and, in particular, in the case of Proprietary Directors, when the shareholder they represent has fully or partially sold his/her shareholding, thus losing the qualification thereof as significant or sufficient to justify the appointment. The number of Proprietary Directors proposed by a shareholder must be reduced in accordance with its reduction of their shareholding in the share capital of the Company.

(vi) When an Independent Director should unexpectedly become involved in any of the circumstances he/she is barred from as set forth in Article 8.5 of these Regulations.

4. In any of the cases set forth in the foregoing paragraph, the Board of Directors shall ask the Director to resign from office and, as the case may be, shall propose their dismissal at the General Shareholder's Meeting.

5. Exceptionally, the foregoing shall not be of application in the event of resignation considered in paragraphs (v) and (vi) above when the Board of Directors should consider that there are causes to justify the permanence of the Director, following a report from the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee, notwithstanding the incidence that the new circumstances may have on the qualification of the Director.

6. In the case of an individual representing a legal entity that is a Director being involved in any of the abovementioned situations, said person shall be rendered invalid to carry out that representation.

7. In the event of resignation or termination of a Director prior to the end of his/her term of office, the Director must explain the reasons for this resignation/termination in a letter addressed to all members of the Board of Directors. In any event, the reason for the termination must be included in the Annual Corporate Governance Report of the Company”.

D RELATED-PARTY AND INTRA-GROUP TRANSACTIONS

D.1 Describe, if applicable, the procedure and competent bodies for approval of related-party and intra-group transactions.

Procedure for reporting approval of related-party transactions

Article 5.4. (xx) of the Regulations of the Board of Directors reserves for the Board of Directors the competency to approve, after a report by the Audit Committee, the transactions that the Company or the companies within its group perform with Directors or shareholders, either individually or in conjunction with others, involving a significant equity interest, including shareholders represented by the Board of Directors of the Company or other companies that are part of the same group, or with individuals linked to them. The Directors concerned or who represent or are related to the shareholders concerned must abstain from participating in the discussion and voting of the resolution in question. Only transactions which meet all three of the characteristics listed below shall be exempted from this approval:

- a) That they are performed by virtue of contracts whose conditions are essentially standard and are applied en masse to a large number of customers.

- b) That are performed at prices or fees that are generally established by whoever operates as a supplier of the good or service in question, and
- c) That the amount involved does not exceed one percent of the Company's annual receipts.

In turn, Article 38 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors sets forth that:

“1. The Board of Directors will be informed of transactions that the Company carries out, directly or indirectly, with Directors, with significant shareholders or with representation on the Board or with persons linked to them. These operations or transactions will require the authorisation of the Board of Directors, following a favourable report by the Audit Committee, which must be approved with the favourable vote of at least eighty percent (80%) of the Directors attending, in person or represented, the meeting referred to.

Directors who are affected by the aforesaid transactions, in addition to being unable to exercise or delegate their voting right, must absent themselves from the meeting room while the Board of Directors discusses and votes on the matter.

2. The authorisation envisaged in the preceding section will not be required, however, when referring to transactions which simultaneously meet the following three conditions:

(i) That they are carried out pursuant to contracts that are basically standardised and which are habitually used with customers who contract the type of product or service in question.

(ii) Which are carried out at prices or rates that are generally set by whoever acts as the supplier of the good or service in question or when the transactions refer to goods or services for which there are no set rates, under usual market conditions, similar to those applied to commercial relations with customers of similar characteristics.

(iii) Whose value does not exceed one percent (1%) of the annual revenue of the Company.

If these conditions are met, the Directors affected will not be obliged to report these transactions or to apply to the Board for their authorisation as a precaution.

3. The transactions referred to will be assessed from the viewpoint of equality of treatment and market conditions, and will be set out in the Annual Corporate Governance Report and in the information made public regularly in the terms envisaged in the regulations applicable.

4. Exceptionally, for reasons of urgency, related-party transactions may be authorised by the Executive Committee, with subsequent ratification by the Board of Directors”.

In addition to the Board's Regulations, an “Internal procedure for the approval of related-party transactions” has been drawn up which was reviewed favourably by the Audit Committee and subsequently approved by the Board of Directors at its meeting on 24 October 2017.

Remarks

D.6 Provide details on the mechanisms in place to detect, determine and solve possible conflicts of interest between the company and/or its group, Directors, senior executives or significant shareholders.

For the purposes of what has been set forth in this paragraph, related parties is understood to mean the persons referred to in Article 231 of the consolidated text of the Corporate Enterprises Act.

DIRECTORS. The situations involving conflict of interest which may affect the Company Directors are regulated in Article 29 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors and include the following:

Directors may not perform transactions with the Company except ordinary transactions conducted in standard conditions for customers and minor transactions operations, meaning those whose information is not necessary to express the faithful image of the Company's assets, financial situation and results.

No Director or any individual related to them may perform activities on their own account or on behalf of others that may entail effective competition, either actual or potential, with the Company or which in any other way places them in ongoing conflict with the Company's interests.

Directors should refrain from participating in the deliberation and vote on agreements or decisions in which they or a person linked to them has a conflict of interest, either direct or indirect, except for agreements or decisions which affect them in their capacity as an administrator, such as their appointment or revocation for posts on the Board of Directors or other comparable posts.

No Director or person associated with a Director may either directly or indirectly perform professional or commercial operations or transactions with the Company or with any of the companies within its group when these operations do not simultaneously meet the conditions stipulated in Article 38 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors regarding related-party transactions, unless the Board of Directors is informed in advance and approves the transaction in conformance with the provisions of Article 5.4 (xx) of the Regulations of the Board of Directors.

The Directors are obliged to inform the Board of Directors of any situation of conflict of interest, whether direct or indirect, which they might have in regard to Company interests. In the event of conflict, the affected Director shall refrain from carrying out the transaction involving said conflict.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company may lift the bans set forth in the previous paragraphs in specific cases, authorising the performance by a Director or a related party of a certain transaction with the Company, the use of certain company assets, the use of a specific business opportunity, the obtaining of a benefit or remuneration from a third party. The authorisation must be necessarily agreed by the General Shareholders' Meeting when seeking to lift the ban on obtaining a benefit or remuneration from a third party, or when it affects a transaction whose value exceeds ten (10) percent of corporate assets. In all other cases, the authorisation may also be granted by the Board of Directors provided the independence of the Directors granting the authorisation is guaranteed in regard to the authorised Director, and it will be necessary to ensure the harmlessness of the authorised transaction for the Company assets or, as the case may be, its performance under market conditions and the transparency of the process.

The obligation to not compete with the Company may only be subject to dispensation in the event that no harm is to be expected for the Company or that it may be compensated by the benefit expected from such a dispensation. This dispensation shall be granted by express and separate agreement of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

MECHANISMS OF IDENTIFICATION AND RESOLUTION OF CONFLICTS. The aforementioned Article 29 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors states that the Directors must inform the Company, via the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee, of all jobs performed and activities carried out in other companies or entities, of any significant changes in their professional situation, any court or administrative proceedings or those of any other nature which in light of their importance might seriously affect the reputation of the Company and, in general, of any event or situation which may be relevant for their action as Directors of the Company.

Directors may not, unless expressly authorised by the Board of Directors, and following a report from the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee, form part of more than five (5) Board Committees, excluding (i) the Boards of Management of companies belonging to the same group as the Company; (ii) the Boards of Management of family businesses or estates of the Directors or their relatives; and (iii) the Boards to which they belong as a result of their professional relationship.

Given that no Director, nor person related thereto, may directly or indirectly carry out professional or commercial transactions with the Company or with any of the companies in the group when such transactions do not simultaneously meet the abovementioned conditions, the mechanism requires that the Director previously informs the Board of Directors of the professional or commercial transaction he/she wishes to carry out.

If the Board of Directors has been informed of or detected the existence of a related transaction, the Article 23(ii)10(d) of the Regulations of the Board of Directors assigns the Audit Committee the competency to inform it of the related-party transactions, and this information must be sent prior to the Board's decision.

In addition to the provisions of the Regulations of the Board of Directors, the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee of the Company approved, in November 2018, a Conflict of Interest Management Procedure in order to establish Aena's procedures for action, in relation to prevention of conflicts of interest in which the Directors and shareholders of the Company and its Group as well as their related people could be involved, in accordance with the provisions of corporate and other regulation and in the Corporate Governance system from Aena.

Likewise, it is also the subject of this procedure the prevention of conflicts of interest that members of the Aena's management team, as well as its Directors, who have the status of Senior Government Official, subject to Law 3/2015 of March 30, regulating the exercise of the High Position of the Spanish Government Administration.

E RISK MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL SYSTEMS

E.1 Explain the scope of the Company's Risk Management and Control System, including tax compliance risk.

Aena has implemented a Risk Management and Control System (hereinafter, the Risk Management System or the System) that identifies the strategic, operational, financial, compliance (including tax regulation) and information risks, which are prioritised according to their criticality based on their impact (economic, operational and reputational) and probability of occurrence. This System develops the principles defined in the Risk Management and Control Policy approved by the Board of Directors, whose ultimate aim is to ensure a suitable overall framework of management of threats and uncertainties of any kind that could affect the Company.

All the risks identified by the System are added and classified in the corporate Risk Map. Each risk is managed at least by one Corporate Management Department, which documents its management in accordance with parameters defined and approved in the Risk Management and Control Policy, focusing on:

- Helping to achieve strategic objectives.
- Defending the rights of the shareholders and any other significant stakeholder of Aena.
- Protecting the financial solidity and sustainability of Aena.
- Assisting in the development of transactions by providing the security and quality required.
- Protecting the reputation of Aena.

The corporate Risk Map is updated annually by the Management Committee based on the information provided by the Corporate Management Departments and is supervised by the Audit Committee and ultimately approved by the Board of Directors.

The Aena Risk Management System therefore works in an integral and continuous way, focusing its management on the various corporate business and support areas, and comprises the following stages:

- 1) Risk identification.
- 2) Risk assessment.
- 3) Risk management.
- 4) Risk reporting and monitoring.
- 5) Risk update.
- 6) Oversight of Risk Management System.

The risks inherent to the international development of Aena form an integral part of its Risk Management System. Additionally, the subsidiary London Luton Airport Operations Ltd. (LLAOL) has a specific business risk management process adapted to its size and economic reality. The fundamental principles of the risk management in LLAOL are in line with those contained in the Risk Management and Control Policy of Aena.

E.2 Identify the bodies in the company responsible for the development and execution of the Risk Management and Control System, including tax compliance risk.

The roles and responsibilities of the areas involved in risk management are set forth in the Risk Management and Control Policy as follows:

- The Board of Directors defines, updates and approves Aena's Risk Management and Control Policy and sets the acceptable risk level in each situation. The Board is ultimately responsible for there being and for the operation of an adequate and effective risk management system.
- The Audit Committee supervises the Risk Management System, making sure that the main risks are identified, managed, reported and kept at planned levels. This oversight covers the different types of risks faced by the Company and specifically includes:
 - The measures in place to mitigate the impact of identified risks and their effectiveness;
 - The systems of internal information and control used to control and manage said risks;
 - That the level of risk is kept at variables defined as acceptable.
- The Corporate Departments identify and assess the risks that fall within their area of responsibility, and also mitigating activities, proposing and reporting indicators to monitor such risks, and establishing action plans to mitigate the risks and reporting on their effectiveness.
- The Internal Audit Department helps the Audit Committee in coordinating the activities defined in the Risk Management and Control Policy of Aena; overseeing the proper operation of the Risk Management System; standardising and consolidating reports on risk identification and assessment and their indicators, mitigation actions, and action plans, prepared by the corporate and operational areas of the Company; and reporting to Aena's Management Committee and the Audit Committee.

E.3 State the primary risks, including tax compliance risks, and those deriving from corruption (with the scope set out in Royal Decree Act 18/2017) to the extent that these are significant, which may affect the achievement of business objectives.

The business objectives of Aena may be affected by a variety of risks inherent to its activity, the environment in which it operates and its regulatory framework, as well as by certain financial risks. Below are the main risks:

- Following the referendum in the United Kingdom in which the vote was to leave the European Union (Brexit), and its materialisation as from 31 January 2020, the following risks are considered whose final form is subject to the negotiation process that the British government has to initiate during the transitional period (until 31 December 2020) with the European Union to decide the final deal for leaving as well as the regulatory changes that both the United Kingdom and the European Union may make in the event of no deal as from 1 January 2021:

- Absence of agreements or shareholder changes which would allow the operation of airlines in the European Union whose ownership and control is no longer in the hands of citizens of European Union member states.
 - Absence of agreements which would allow the movement of aircraft between the European Union and the United Kingdom.
 - Depreciation of the pound against the euro which entails a loss of purchasing power for British passengers.
 - Reduction in tourist flows from the United Kingdom and/or activity at London-Luton airport as a result of adverse economic developments.
 - Investment, expenses and operational difficulties brought about by the reshaping of passenger flows at airports.
- The business of Aena is directly related to levels of passenger traffic and airline operations. Aena may be affected by external factors (economic, financial or other) with a negative impact on Spain and other countries, both those that are the origin/destination of the traffic (United Kingdom, Germany, France and Italy, among others) and others that are competing tourist destinations. The recovery in geopolitical stability, which is beginning to be noticed in competing tourist destinations, affects the number of passengers in Aena's airport network who can return to those destinations. Aena also faces risks arising from its dependence on airlines, plus potential airline bankruptcies and mergers.
 - Aena operates in a competitive environment both in terms of other airports, and in terms of other means of transport that can affect its revenues.
 - Aena is exposed to risks related to the airport operations (operational and physical security). Events such as terrorist attacks, wars, global epidemics or aviation accidents could have a negative impact on air traffic.
 - Aena depends on information technology and communications and the systems and infrastructures face certain risks, including those inherent to cyber security.
 - The European Commission initiated infringement proceedings against the Kingdom of Spain to assess whether there has been incorrect inclusion in national law of Directive 2009/12/EC or incorrect application of Regulation (EC) No. 1008/2008 on common rules for the operation of air services. The resolution of these proceedings could lead to changes in the regulatory framework applicable to airport charges.

- Pursuant to Act 18/2014, the Airport Regulation Document for the period 2017-2021 lays down the following obligations where breach may result in penalties in the Maximum Annual Revenue per Passenger:
 - Service quality standards.
 - Start-up dates for strategic investments.
- Aena is a listed State-owned company and, as such, its management capacity in certain areas (international expansion, recruitment of staff and suppliers, inter alia) is affected by the application of public and private laws.
- Aena depends on the services provided by third parties at its airports. Matters such as labour disputes and non-compliance with service levels by these suppliers could have an impact on operations.
- Aena is exposed to the impact of climate change. This risk entails impacts at the economic, operational and reputational level arising from changes in regulations that could prompt an increase in the price of carbon emissions, the way the air transport business is perceived by society at large, measures adopted to bring down emissions that could affect short haul flights, and necessary actions to revamp and upsize airports in the medium to long term.
- Aena's international activity is subject to risks associated with the planning and subsequent development of operations in countries beyond Spain and the fact that expected profits may not be as expected. In particular, the investment made by the Company in Brazil requires continuous analysis of its recovery and the evolution of its main indicators, which may be affected by the circumstances of the market/country in which it operates.
- Risk that Aena may suffer sanctions, financial losses or damage to its reputation or that it may be found criminally liable, due to non-compliance or defective compliance with legal norms, rules of conduct and other standards required in its operation.
- Changes in tax legislation may lead to additional taxes or other detrimental factors for the tax situation of Aena.
- Aena is, and may continue to be in the future, exposed to a risk of loss in the judicial or administrative procedures in which it is held liable.
- Aena is exposed to certain risks related to commercial activity and which are connected with the sales of the companies that rent commercial spaces. Commercial revenue can be affected both by the volume of passengers and by their greater or lesser spending capacity.
- Aena's profitability might be affected if it is not able to keep up its current efficiency levels.
- Aena operates in a regulated sector and changes or future developments in the applicable regulation may have a negative impact on the income, operating profit and financial position of Aena. In particular, this regulation affects:

- The management of the network of airports based on public service criteria.
 - System of airport charges.
 - Airport security measures.
 - Operating safety.
 - Allocation of time slots.
- Environmental protection legislation might limit operations or growth at Aena airports, and/or require important financial outlays.
 - Natural disasters and weather conditions can negatively affect business.
 - Risk of losing competitive advantages due to not developing innovation and technological development policies appropriate to business needs.
 - Insurance coverage may be insufficient.
 - Aena is exposed to risks related to its indebtedness, and its obligations may limit Aena's operations and the chance of accessing funding, distributing dividends or making investments, among others. As well as what has been mentioned in this regard in previous sections, Aena is exposed to market financial risks (currency rate and interest rate fluctuations), credit and liquidity risk.

E.4 Identify whether the Company has a level of tolerance to risk, including tolerance for tax compliance risk.

The Management Committee periodically identifies the risks that threaten achievement of the business targets and carries out an assessment of criticality based on impact and the probability of occurrence, these being understood as:

- Impact: Damage that would be caused to Aena's targets that the risk would lead to in an actual event. In order to assess the risks, different types of possible impacts are considered for each risk:
 - Economic: the impact takes the form of loss of profit or through damage to assets.
 - Operations: via the temporary difficulty or impossibility of carrying out activities in certain areas, airports or being able to provide certain services to the customers.
 - Reputation: via the potential loss of reputation regarding the stakeholders, mainly those who have a significant influence on the business such as customers, regulators, employees, financial entities and investors.

- Probability of occurrence: Likelihood that the risk will materialise in an actual event once the controls in place to mitigate the risk have been considered.

This assessment is reflected in the corporate Risk Map, which is approved by the Board of Directors.

Aena's Risk Management System establishes that each risk in the corporate Risk Map, including that of compliance with tax regulations, has associated key monitoring indicators, for which tolerance thresholds are determined (maximum and/or minimum accepted limits for each indicator) with the aim of maintaining the impact or probability of occurrence of the risk at the levels defined as acceptable. When such tolerance thresholds are surpassed, the need to design and execute specific action plans must be considered.

E.5 State which risks, including tax compliance risks, have materialised during the year.

The main risks identified in the Company's Risk Management System are detailed in section E.3 of this Report.

During the year, risks inherent to the activity, the business model and the environment in which Aena operates have materialised. The control systems, policies and procedures established by the Company have worked correctly, allowing risks to be managed appropriately.

These are some of the risks that have materialised in whole or in part:

- Even though the United Kingdom exited the European Union (Brexit) on 31 January 2020, uncertainty remains as to the outcome of the British Government's negotiations with the European Union to be conducted during the transitional period (until 31 December 2020) and their impact on air traffic, tourist flows, the Pound Sterling-Euro exchange rate and the management of Luton airport. The Company has analysed the impacts of the possible scenarios derived from Brexit, and concluded that the risk of experiencing a decline is remote.
- In September 2019, the company Thomas Cook Group plc and consequently Thomas Cook UK, which carried more than 2.6 million passengers between Spain and the United Kingdom in 2018, went bankrupt and ceased its operations. To mitigate the effects of the reduction in activity in the most affected markets, the Canary and Balearic Islands, the Company's Board of Directors created the so-called "Extraordinary incentive to mitigate the reduction in activity of the Thomas Cook Group" whereby airlines will be entitled to an incentive for the number of additional seats to international destinations and on commercial flights, operated during the entire 2019 winter season with respect to those scheduled on 31 August of that year, at the airports of the Canary and Balearic Islands. In addition to this measure, other operational and management actions have been implemented to allow Thomas Cook's operations to be replaced with other airlines and operators.

- The Company was involved in litigation arising from the possible noise impact of aircraft overflying in towns near Madrid airport, which could have had a negative impact on both traffic and operations at the airport. Lastly, during the year 2019, these disputes have been resolved in favour of the Company.

No tax risk materialised during the year.

E.6 Explain the response and monitoring plans for all major risks, including tax compliance risks, of the company, as well as the procedures followed by the Company in order to ensure that the Board of Directors responds to any new challenges that arise.

The Aena Risk Management System incorporates response plans to the risk identifying mitigatory activities, actions plans and contingency plans of the risks contained in the corporate Risk Map, based on their valuation or level of criticality, in order to ensure the management of risk within established tolerance parameters.

Mitigatory activities vary by type of risk and include the following:

- Operational Security Management System.
- Internal Financial Information Control System.
- Regulatory compliance system including anti-corruption and anti-fraud policies and procedures and corporate governance policy.
- Working group for monitoring and establishing activities concerning Brexit.
- Cybersecurity Plan.
- Disaster Recovery Plans (DRPs).
- Organisational Model and Information Security Policy.
- ICT security checks under ISO norm 27002:2013.
- Master Plans.
- Air traffic capture plan and airline loyalty.
- Investment planning, monitoring and execution procedure.
- Emergency plans and contingency, preparation and response procedures for emergencies.
- External airport safety and security audits.
- Occupational Risk Prevention System.
- Human resources processes and programmes (planning and organisation, training management, personnel selection and development).

- Corporate fiscal policy.
- Internal regulations and contracting control systems.
- Management Centres for Airport Incidents.
- Action procedures to ensure the correct management of plans and projects with an environmental impact.
- Climate change strategy, climate scenario analysis and evaluations of airport modification requirements.
- Integrated Quality and Environmental Management System, certified by an accredited external entity in accordance with the UNE-EN ISO 9001 and UNE EN-ISO 14001 standards.
- Management of noise pollution of surrounding towns: preparation of strategic noise maps, noise monitoring systems and flight routes, sound insulation plans.
- Interest rate hedging instruments, guarantees and bonds.

In addition, Aena carries out an insurance approach designed to reduce, prevent and transfer existing risks in the airport network and possible complaints that might arise in the performance of its activity, for which Aena has taken out the usual policies for its activity, including:

- Airport operator civil aviation liability policy + war and terrorism liability.
- All-risk material damage, business interruption and machinery breakdown policy + Insurance Compensation Consortium natural disaster and terrorism risk excess coverage.
- Technology protection policy (loss of or damage to computer systems and loss of stored data).
- Employee protection policy (life, health and safety).

Likewise, in order to limit Aena's liability for operations performed by any company operating within the airport premises (handling agents, airlines, suppliers, tenants, etc.), Aena requires these companies, including Aena, as additional insured, to take out different civil liability policies, without losing its status as a third party in these policies.

In relation to the procedures the Company follows to ensure it responds to new challenges (emerging risks), the Risk Management and Control Policy lays down that the Corporate Risk Map are to be reviewed annually and identified risks are to be evaluated, mainly by using the information about the defined risks provided in the monitoring system which their managers have to report based on the management conducted during the year. In addition to these regular updates, the Management Committee and the Board of Directors also regularly examine the new risks the Company is exposed to by collating the action plans, mitigating measures or contingency plans they consider necessary from the relevant management areas.

F INTERNAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL SYSTEMS RELATED TO THE INTERNAL FINANCIAL INFORMATION CONTROL SYSTEM (SCIIF).

Describe the mechanisms comprising the risk management and control systems in relation to your company's Internal Financial Information Control System (SCIIF).

F.1 The company's control environment

Report, including main characteristics, on at least:

F.1.1. Which bodies and/or functions are responsible for: (i) the existence and maintenance of an adequate and effective SCIIF; (ii) its implementation; and (iii) its supervision.

The Internal Financial Information Control System (hereinafter, SCIIF) at AENA is a process designed to provide reasonable security in regard to the reliability of the financial information, and, specifically, of the Annual Accounts in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

The model of responsibilities of this system is structured via the following bodies and functions which perform, maintain and supervise the process of generating financial information:

- Board of Directors:

The Board of Directors has a set of Regulations, which was last modified by resolution of the Board of Directors on 30 July 2019.

As stipulated by these Regulations, the Board is entrusted with the following functions, among others:

- Supervising the effective operation of any Committees it has set up and the performance of any delegated bodies and managers it has appointed.
- Presenting the Annual Accounts, the Management Report and the proposal for application of the Company's profit as well as the Consolidated Annual Accounts and Management Report and their presentation to the General Shareholders' Meeting.
- Determining the Risk Management and Control Policy, including policies related to taxation, the Regulatory Compliance Policy and supervising the internal information and control systems.
- Approving the financial information that the Company has to report on a regular basis.
- Specifying tax strategy.

- Audit Committee:

The Board of Directors shall establish a permanent Audit Committee made up of five External Directors, as the internal informative and consultative body, to which it shall assign the following functions in relation to the information and internal control systems:

- Supervising the process of preparation, presentation and integrity of the essential financial information relating to the Company and, where applicable, the group, presenting to the administration body recommendations or proposals intended to safeguard its integrity, reviewing compliance with regulatory requirements, the adequate definition of the scope of consolidation and the correct application of accounting criteria.
 - Regularly review the internal control and risk management systems in order to identify, manage and properly inform of the main risks.
 - Evaluating everything relative to non-financial risks in the company, including operational, technological, legal, social, environmental, political and reputational risks.
 - Supervising the effectiveness of internal control in the Company, the internal audit and systems of risk management, discussing with the auditor of accounts any significant weaknesses in the internal control system detected during the audit, all this without impairing its independence. To these ends, and where applicable, it can make recommendations or proposals to the Board of Directors and the relevant period for their follow-up.
 - Establish and supervise a mechanism that enables employees to report in a confidential manner and, if possible and appropriate, anonymously, any irregularities of potential importance, particularly financial and accounting, that they may have detected within the Company.
 - Watching over the independence of the unit which takes on the function of internal audit; proposing the selection, appointment, re-election and cessation of the internal audit service manager; proposing the budget for this service; approving the orientation and working plans, ensuring that its activity is focused principally towards the Company's relevant risks; receiving information regularly on its activities; and verifying that the senior management takes into account the conclusions and recommendations of its reports.
 - Coordinate and receive information from the Compliance Bodies, concerning initiatives to modify Aena's General Regulatory Compliance System.
 - Review the regulatory compliance policy and other policies and procedures to prevent improper conduct, and also oversee the management of the Complaints Channel and the annual report on the Compliance System that will be submitted to the Board.
- Finance Department:

The Finance Department ensures the design and operation of the internal control and guarantees compliance with the targets set to ensure the reliability of the financial information regularly prepared.

In the performance of its responsibilities, the Finance Department is supported by the Internal Control Department, whose functions are the following:

- Design and implement the internal financial information control model when there are changes in the Group's scope of consolidation due to the takeover of new components, supporting and supervising until its full operation.
- Identify, along with the management functional unit or relevant airport, the changes to be made in the SCIIF due to modifications of risks, in processes or in systems and as a consequence update the risk and control matrices and their flowcharts.
- Receive and respond to all consultations regarding the operation of the SCIIF, either directly or with the assistance of the most appropriate experts in each case.
- Ensure the homogeneity of the SCIIF at the various levels in the Group, via continuous or sporadic assessments.
- Check the operation of the controls and that the evaluations and certifications are being carried out.
- Identify training needs in internal control and provide necessary training.
- Report to the Internal Audit Department on any change in the risks, controls and evidence in the risk and control matrices, flowcharts and the SCIIF Compliance Handbook for its consideration for the purpose of updating its review programmes, as well as report any other change that affects its configuration and definition.
- Maintain and update the SCIIF Compliance Handbook.

The people in charge of processes and airports participate in the design, review and updating of the SCIIF in the part that is applicable to them, such that their involvement, the task of the Internal Control Department and the supervision by the Internal Audit Department, enables the Finance Department to evaluate the efficiency and quality of internal control of the financial information.

- Internal Audit:

Aena has an Internal Audit Department which reports to the Chairman of the Board of Directors of Aena and functionally reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee.

The charter of the Internal Audit Department, approved in March 2014, states that this Department's mission is to provide to the Chairman of the Company and to the Board of Directors, via the Audit Committee, the analysis, assessment and efficient supervision of the internal control systems and management of relevant risks of the Company.

Its purposes include supervision of the reliability and integrity of financial information, both accounting and management; the procedures to record it; the information systems; the accounting and data processing; and the procedures used to share this information; and in particular to evaluate the reliability of the regulated financial information the Company has to report at regular intervals in compliance with applicable regulations as well as the SCIIF established.

F.1.2. Whether, in the process of preparation of the financial information, the following elements exist:

• Departments and/or mechanisms responsible for: (i) the design and review of the organisational structure; (ii) clearly defining the lines of responsibility and authority, with a proper distribution of tasks and functions; and (iii) that sufficient procedures exist for correct dissemination thereof in the entity.

The responsibility for the establishment of the bases of corporate organisation, in order to ensure its highest efficiency, pertains to the Board of Directors.

The Appointments and Remuneration Committee is made up of five External Directors and in charge of presenting the proposals for appointment and dismissal of senior executives and for proposing to the Board of Directors the basic terms of their contracts.

In 2019 there have been three changes in Aena's top-level management structure which have been approved at the relevant meeting of the Committee. Once approved they are reported across the entire organisation through internal memos.

The Department of Organisation and Human Resources is responsible for analysing, designing and developing the organisational structure of Aena, guaranteeing it is aligned with the Company's strategic targets.

The lines of responsibility, hierarchical levels and functions of each of the posts are defined in the Organisational Handbooks of each Department, where organisational charts reflect the existing hierarchical structure and the job descriptions outline the objectives, functions and jobs of each of the managerial and responsible posts in the Company. All Company employees may access both the organisational chart and the directory of it via the Intranet.

In order to comply with transparency, access to public information and good governance obligations, the website provides public access to information about the top-level organisational structure, profile of the management team, composition of the Board of Directors and remuneration of Directors, which is presented in a clear, free and structured way.

In accordance with these lines of responsibility and authority, the Finance Department is in charge of the process of drawing up the financial information and ensuring that there are sufficient procedures and channels for its proper recording and dissemination within the entity.

Aena has a Performance Management System in place which analyses the outcomes achieved to evaluate and recognise work done by employees in attaining Aena's targets.

This system draws on a number of tools including the "Foundation of the PMS System" which sets out the general principles underlying it.

The applicable documentation and the foundations are posted on Aena's Intranet so they can be viewed by all the Company's employees.

• Code of conduct, approval body, extent of dissemination and instruction, principles and values included (indicating whether there are specific mentions to the recording of transactions and the preparation of financial information), body responsible for analysing defaults and proposing corrective actions and penalties.

On 24 July 2018 the Board of Directors of Aena approved the review of the Regulatory Compliance Policy along with the Code of Conduct, and the Management Committee also approved in 2018 the revision of the operational Regulations for the Compliance Monitoring and Control Body.

The Compliance Monitoring and Control Body reports to the Board of Directors and has independent powers of initiative and control over all areas of the Company so it can perform the surveillance and supervision functions of the Company's General Regulatory Compliance System. It has full authority to:

- Request and obtain whatsoever information and documentation it may need to carry out its supervision and control functions on the compliance with the policies and procedures established in the Company.
- Establish, update and modify in all areas of the Company whatsoever monitoring and control measures it should deem appropriate to prevent or mitigate the risk that illegal acts may be committed in Aena, either by the Company itself and its executives or by their subordinated personnel, and giving priority to the regulatory areas which represent a greater risk for the Company. Aena has implemented a Regulatory Compliance System through which internal and external regulatory requirements are periodically identified, controls to prevent or mitigate risks are detected, risks of non-compliance are evaluated and recommendations are made in those cases where it is considered necessary to reinforce the controls or include new ones. Accordingly, it has put in place the SAP GRC application (Compliance Module) for the integral management of the system, which documents all the risks, controls, evidence and recommendations and is used to manage all risk assessments.
- Prepare a global training plan for regulatory compliance matters.

The Compliance Monitoring and Control Body submits an annual report to the Board of Directors on the actions taken in the previous year, including the management of the Complaints Channel, as well as a proposal for actions to be taken in the following year.

The purpose of this Code of Conduct is to set out Aena principles and values on ethical questions and matters of integrity, legality and transparency. These are to be observed in their conduct by all the persons included within the scope of its application, whether between each other or in their relations with customers, shareholders, suppliers and, in general, all those persons and entities, both public and private, with which they deal in the pursuit of their professional activity, likewise fostering the effective compliance with the standards applicable to the entire set of activities under the principle of zero tolerance of any type of unlawful behaviour.

The section in this Code on “General behaviour guidelines” distinguishes between those related to the surroundings, the stakeholders and the image of Aena. Specifically, point 4.9 states that the Company’s relations with customers, suppliers and partner companies must be based on respect, transparency and trust in order to obtain mutual benefit. Likewise, relations with investors and shareholders, as contained in point 4.10, should be based on transparency, trust and sustainable reciprocal benefit, and that to ensure this the principle of official channel of communication through the corporate website (www.aena.es) is established, which shall publish all the information that may be of interest to these third parties. Regarding relations with the authorities and public administrations, point 4.11 indicates that they should be guided by institutional respect and transparency. And regarding the image and corporate reputation of Aena, point 4.14 states that everyone subjected to the Code must use it correctly and adequately.

In regard to the financial information, point 4.19 of the Code of Conduct sets forth:

“All of Aena’s accounting and financial information shall be prepared with reliability and rigor, ensuring at all times that any economic information that Aena may present to its shareholders and investors, the securities markets or any public authorities or public or private oversight body, is true and complete.

In this regard, the Persons Affected by the Code of Conduct responsible for preparing the financial information of Aena must ensure that all the information reflects all of the transactions, events, rights and obligations affecting Aena, and that these have been recorded, classified and valued at the right time and in accordance with the applicable legislation, thus making sure that this information offers a true image of the equity, the financial situation, the profit and loss and cash flows of Aena.

Likewise, persons responsible for preparing financial information must comply with all of the internal and external control procedures established by Aena in order to guarantee that all transactions receive the correct accounting treatment and are properly reflected in the financial information published by Aena.

The Audit Committee shall supervise the financial reporting process and the effectiveness of any internal controls, internal and external audits, and risk management systems.”

The Code binds and is applicable to the members of the Board of Directors, senior management and in general to all employees of Aena or any other company wholly owned by Aena and domiciled in Spain without exception and regardless of their position, responsibility, occupation or geographical location. They are further required to be familiar with and fulfil the spirit and meaning of the Code. The document is available on the corporate Intranet and on Aena's public website.

The members of the Board of Directors consider it relevant that all employees should be familiar with the Regulatory Compliance Policy and the Code of Conduct and that adequate training is provided. To this end, regular online training programmes are run for all the Company's employees and Directors which involve doing a course on the corporate Intranet which is designed to prevent or mitigate the risk of the commission of criminal actions at Aena and share the Company's Code of Conduct and Complaints Channel. Furthermore, in-person training has been given to the Company's Management Committee and Division heads.

Likewise, the Compliance Monitoring and Control Body has set up a specific mailbox (organocumplimiento@aena.es) for queries about the Code of Conduct. Nine queries have been received in 2019 which were resolved by the CCSB.

In addition to Aena's Code of Conduct, mentioned above, the Company also has an Internal Regulations for Conduct in the Securities Markets which is accessible to everyone via the corporate website. It is applicable within the Company and the companies that are part of the Group, and it is used to set the rules for the management, control and transparent communication of relevant information, as well as to impose certain obligations, limitations and prohibitions on the individuals affected and those with relevant information. The overarching purpose is to protect the interests of the investors in the shares of the Company and its Group and the prevent and avoid any situation of abuse, in addition to fostering and facilitating its administrators' and employees' shares in the Company's capital within the strictest respect for the laws in force.

To supplement and develop Aena's Code of Conduct and General Regulatory Compliance Policy, the Anti-bribery Policy, approved by the Board of Directors in 2018, constitutes Aena's commitment of permanent monitoring and sanction of fraudulent acts or conducts that somehow propitiate corruption, of maintenance of effective communication and awareness mechanisms among all employees, executives and government bodies, and the development of a business culture based on ethics and honesty.

• A Complaints Channel for reporting to the Audit Committee of any financial and accounting irregularities as well as possible infringements of the code of conduct and irregular activities in the organisation, including, if applicable, whether it is confidential.

Aena has a confidential Complaints Channel for reporting irregularities or failures to comply with the Code of Conduct.

In accordance with the Procedure for Managing the Complaints Channel and the Reporting of Irregular Actions, its purpose is to provide a confidential channel for internal reporting and other notification of irregular conduct that may entail the commission of an act that runs counter to the law or the Company's policies or procedures or to the rules of action contained in Aena's Code of Conduct.

The Complaints Channel is managed by the Compliance Monitoring and Control Body (OSCC) which ensures that all reports received are analysed independently and guarantees the confidentiality of the identity of the person making the complaint and the person reported by only informing the people who are strictly necessary in the process. The OSCC evaluates the complaints received, decides whether they meet the conditions to be admitted for processing, and entrusts the investigation of the complaint to the most appropriate department or body. The OSCC follows up the complaints made and makes its final decision based on the information provided by the department or body which carried out the investigation.

In 2019, 53 complaints were received. All of them were processed and the appropriate measures were taken. None of the complaints referred to fraud or errors in financial information.

In January and July 2019, the Board of Directors was informed of the actions taken by the OSCC and the Compliance Unit, and these reports included the complaints processed.

• Training and regular refresher programmes for the personnel involved in the preparation and review of the financial information, as well as the assessment of the SCIIF which at least covers accounting rules, auditing, internal control and risk management.

For the Departments involved in the preparation and review of the financial information, as well as the assessment of the Internal Control System, specific training actions on accounting rules, auditing, internal control and risk management have been carried out, to enable the persons responsible to carry out their duties correctly.

Aena also has a training plan whose main mission is to become a key factor in the achievement of strategic objectives and personal and professional development of its workers, covering both the training required for job performance and that designed for the development of the skills required to perform jobs of greater responsibilities. It includes special training in master's, languages and skills development programmes and seminars and training forums with professionals from the corresponding sectors, among others.

A total of 159 people were trained, with 2,020 hours of training, mainly on accounting standards; management of internal control applications and regulatory compliance; cash and means of payment; corporate and international taxation; auditing; and investment analysis.

Furthermore, and as mentioned in Section 2 in point F.1.2., all employees do legal courses about the Regulatory Compliance Model which encompasses the implementation of the Code of Conduct and the establishment of the Complaints Channel. During 2019, 7,195 employees have been trained, for a total of 14,612 hours, including those who joined the workforce or who had not yet done so. Ninety-seven percent of the total workforce took part in this training initiative.

Since this exercise, Aena and other relevant companies have taken part in the common SCIIF initiative to share experiences, knowledge and best practices in this field.

F.2 Financial reporting risk assessment

Provide information on at least the following:

F.2.1. The main characteristics of the risk identification process, including risks of error and fraud, regarding:

- Whether the process exists and is documented.

Aena has documented all SCIIF processes related to transactions, book accounts and any other financial reporting associated with risks that may involve a material error.

To this end, in order to determine the scope of the SCIIF, we consider the calculation of the materiality of the Consolidated Annual Accounts of Aena and its subsidiaries, applying both quantitative risk factors and factors inherent to the business (growth trends, unusual transactions, possible corporate transactions, processes that generate provisions, depreciations, estimates or calculations based on subjective criteria, and processes with the risk of fraud). As a result, a total of 16 processes with an impact on financial reporting have been identified, which encompass both general business and also management and support activities.

These processes describe the relevant control activities that enable an adequate sufficiently in advance response to the risks associated with the reliability and integrity of the financial information.

Based on the closed financial statements for the previous year, in every financial year the model's coverage is reviewed based on quantitative and qualitative materiality and relevant amendments are made.

- Whether the process covers all financial reporting objectives (existence and occurrence; completeness; assessment; presentation, breakdown and comparability; and rights and obligations) and whether it is updated and how frequently.

All financial information preparation processes developed in Aena aim at recording all financial transactions, valuing the assets and liabilities in accordance with applicable legislation and breaking down the information in accordance with the requirements of regulators and needs of the market.

Aena analyses each of these material processes in order to ensure that the risks are reasonably covered by the Internal Control System and that this system operates efficiently. It is updated when significant changes in processes occur or as the outcome of the periodic revisions that are performed throughout the financial year.

In each of the process matrices, among other theoretical control data, the objectives of the financial information are clearly marked (existence and occurrence; completeness; assessment; presentation, breakdown and comparability; and rights and obligations) covered by each one.

• The existence of a process of identification of the scope of consolidation, taking into account, among other aspects, the possible existence of complex corporate structures, instrumental entities or special purpose vehicles.

The Group encompasses all of the entities that comprise the scope of consolidation.

To identify the entities that should be part of the scope of consolidation, a procedure is implemented as part of the SCIIF reporting and consolidation process which is essentially controlled by the Accounting Consolidation and Regulation divisions at Aena SME, SA, and the Legal Advice Department at Aena Desarrollo Internacional S.M.E., S.A., a subsidiary which currently holds the shares of companies in the group and associates which comprise Aena Group's scope of consolidation.

This procedure allows for the identification not only of those entities over which the Group is able to gain control via the voting rights granted by the direct or indirect participation in their capital, but also of those other entities over which control is exercised by other means. This procedure enables the analysis of whether the Group controls the entity, has rights there over or is exposed to the variable returns thereof, and whether it has the capacity to use its power to influence the amount of the returns. If after this analysis the conclusion is that the Group has control, the entity is added to the scope, which is revised on a quarterly basis, and is consolidated by the global integration method. If this is not the case, it is examined whether significant influence or joint control exist. If this is the case, the entity is also added to scope of consolidation and is valued according to the equity method.

• Whether the process takes into account the effects of other types of risks (operational, technological, financial, legal, tax compliance, reputational, environmental, etc.) insofar as these might affect the financial statements.

As detailed in chapter E above, Aena has implemented a Risk Management System that identifies risks of any nature that could affect the Company, categorising them into strategic, operational, financial, compliance and information risks. All risks identified are evaluated in terms of impact (financial, operational and reputational) and probability of occurrence, and are classified according to their criticality in a Corporate Risk Map that is approved annually by the Board of Directors.

In line with the above, the financial information internal control model is applied not only to the processes of preparation of the aforementioned information, but also for all those of an operational or technical nature which may have a relevant impact on the accounting or management figures.

- Which governance body in the Company supervises the process.

The supervision of the efficacy of the SCIIF is the responsibility of the Audit Committee. This function must include the risks of Aena's financial reporting targets and the controls set by senior management to mitigate them.

This supervision is carried out by the Audit Committee on three levels:

- ✓ Risk supervision and management: the risks that affect the reliability of financial information are evaluated and supervised.
- ✓ Quality and reliability supervision: supervision of the effectiveness of the internal control of the financial information and the preparation of the financial statements.
- ✓ Audit supervision: supervision of the work of internal auditors and establishment of the appropriate relations with the external auditors within the framework of their accounts auditing task.

The purposes of the Management and Audit Committees in the general process of identifying Aena's risks are described in greater detail in Chapter E above.

F.3 Control activities

State, mentioning the main features, whether your entity has at least:

F.3.1. Procedures for review and authorisation of financial information and description of the SCIIF, for publication in the securities markets, indicating persons responsible, as well as documentation describing the flows of activities and controls (including those relating to fraud risk) of the various types of transactions that might materially affect the closing of the accounts and the specific review of the relevant judgements, estimates, valuations and projections.

The Company has an Accounting Policy Handbook which has been recently updated for 2019 to include the amendments derived from the new IFRS applicable in 2019 (specially IFRS 16). This Handbook is distributed to the finance departments of the subsidiaries along with duly updated instructions on closing and reporting. Based on this Handbook, the economic-financial information is developed on an individual basis in each of these Group subsidiaries on a monthly basis and is reviewed by the persons in charge of the closing of the accounts in each of them.

On a quarterly basis, in accordance with the securities markets publication schedule, information on the close of each quarter is supervised in accordance with the following procedure:

- Once the quarterly closure has been carried out and verified in each of the units of the Group, in accordance with the closing instructions issued by the Financial Department, the information is sent to the Accounting Consolidation and Regulation area, which is responsible for verifying it to then prepare the consolidated information of the Group in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS).

- The Financial Department, following review and supervision, presents it to the Management Committee for approval.
- Once approved, it is sent to the Audit Committee, which supervises the preparation, presentation and integrity of the mandatory financial information, compliance with regulatory requirements, proper demarcation of the scope of consolidation and the correct application of accounting criteria. It also contains the report on procedures agreed upon regarding the revision of certain consolidated financial information of the Group prepared by its external auditors.

In the closing of the accounts which come at the end of the six-month period, the Audit Committee also gathers the conclusions of the limited review conducted by the Group's external auditors.

Likewise, the Audit Committee must inform the Board of Directors, prior to the adoption by the Board of the relevant decisions on the financial information which, in light of its listed status, the Company must regularly make public.

- For the closing of the year, the plenary of the Board of Directors approves the formulation of the Annual Accounts, the Management Report and the proposed application of the Company's results, as well as the Consolidated Annual Accounts and Management Report, and their submission to the General Shareholders' Meeting. Additionally, for the closing of the quarterly and biannual accounts, it reserves the competency to approve the financial information that the Company should periodically make public.
- Lastly, the information is published in the markets and other public bodies.

The preparation of the accounts uses estimates made by the units responsible for the risk to value some of the assets, liabilities, revenue, expenses and commitments that are contained in them. Basically these estimates refer to:

- Possible impairment of intangible assets, tangible fixed assets and investment property.
- Useful life of PPE.
- Evaluation of litigation, provisions, commitments, assets and contingent liabilities at closing date.
- Fair value of derivative financial instruments.
- Hypotheses used in the determination of liabilities for commitments to pensions and other commitments to the personnel.

Some of these accounting policies require the application of a significant degree of judgement by Management in selecting the appropriate assumptions to calculate these estimates. These assumptions and estimates are based on their historical experience, the advice of external experts, forecasts and other circumstances and expectations at the close of the period in questions. The valuation of the Management is considered in relation to the global economic situation of the industry of the Group, taking into account the future development of the business. Due to their nature, these judgements are subject to an inherent degree of uncertainty and therefore actual results may materially differ from the estimates and assumptions used. In such cases, the values of assets and liabilities would be adjusted.

As has already been mentioned in Section F.2.1., in its internal control model, Aena has documented all the processes that it considers carry a risk of material impact in the preparation of the financial information. They are classified into three groups:

- a) General: control environment matrix and information systems.
- b) Business: aeronautical revenue, commercial revenue and parking.
- c) Management and support: fixed assets, legal, procurement, human resources, tax compliance, financing, cash, budgets, accounting closing, reporting and consolidation and collections and payments.

These processes are shown via risk and control matrices, as well as flowcharts and narratives, which describe the relevant control activities that enable an adequate and sufficiently far in advance response to the risks associated with the reliability and integrity of the financial information.

As noted earlier in this chapter, Aena conducts regular reviews with the support of the functional management units to ensure that these flowcharts and descriptions are consistent with the actual operation of the processes.

The review activities that have been carried out during 2019 are:

- The parent company's review of the Information Systems process for all Group companies.
- The implementation of the control system at the International Airport of the Region of Murcia.
- Definition and implementation of the control environment matrix at Luton airport, adapted to the conditions and control procedures of the airport and ensuring compliance with Aena standards.

The SAP GRC Process Control application is used to ensure adequate control of the integral management of the SCIIF. It documents all processes and risks, and manages the entire evaluation of controls by introducing evidence that demonstrates the control activity carried out. This assessment allows, if possible, the identification and information of weaknesses and necessary action plans.

The managers of the SCIIF request evidence that the controls are being made by the units involved in it, in accordance with the frequency stipulated in each case.

Each SCIIF process and sub-process has a person in charge of the analysis and control of each of the risks associated with the area. In addition, each identified control area has two persons responsible for the evaluation of the efficacy, who carry out the functions of documentation and supervision, in accordance with the established systematic frequency.

Additionally, every year, a system certification process is issued within the SAP GRC tool, whereby the supervisors of the different levels of internal control validate the SCIIF to reasonably guarantee the reliability of the financial information. No significant deficiencies were detected during the 2019 financial year.

As a result of this evaluation, Management concludes that the Group maintains an effective Internal Financial Information Control System (SCIIF) at 31 December 2019.

All of Aena's internal control operations are detailed in the Handbook for Compliance with the Internal Financial Information Control System (SCIIF), which was update in 2019.

F.3.2. Internal control policies and procedures for information systems (including secure access, control of changes, system operation, continuity and segregation of duties) supporting key processes regarding the preparation and publication of financial information.

In the Information Systems environment, Aena has the necessary policies and procedures to cover the risks in that environment that might affect the process of preparation of financial information and gain reasonable security as to the operation of the SCIIF.

To facilitate control of those risks, Aena has implemented a solution which entails comprehensive management of the control and compliance process through the development of a matrix defined for the Information Systems process. It includes all the controls needed to mitigate the existing risks in this area. This solution is supported by the Company's Department of Information and Communication Technologies. This matrix is reviewed periodically by said Department and the Internal Control Department. For the improvement recommendations identified, action plans are designed for its resolution.

Below we describe the main policies and procedures associated with the Company's information systems.

By executing an Annual Plan of Security Audits of Information Systems based on information security requirements, results from past audits and legal or regulatory requirements, the aim is to verify the situation in the production environment of security of the systems and communications, as well as detect potential technical vulnerabilities. In addition, Information Security Policies and other Information Systems regulations have been implemented which establish mechanisms of system access control, and there are also operational procedures which define the security requirements of infrastructures and developments.

Operating systems, databases and applications are continuously monitored in order to detect possible security incidents. In addition, security procedures and configurations of items associated with telecommunications networks (firewalls, routers, etc.) are reviewed, as well as response mechanisms to a potential cyber-attack or incident arising from malware infection. Tools are also available to regulate control of access to the Company's network and improve protection against advanced persistent threats while implementation of a security event and information management system is in progress.

A User Applications Management Standard has been defined and implemented, which considers the various movements that may form part of the life cycle of an entity in Aena, and guarantees that only users who have been duly authorised by their superiors may access the applications and have the right profile for the performance of their functions. An identity management tool is being implemented that will improve service quality and lessen security risks.

Through the monitoring carried out on the users accessing with administration permits or privileges to platforms and systems which support the business units, one can control that only authorised users are using the system. A privileged accounts management tool, to help monitoring, has almost been completely deployed. This will reinforce monitoring of user accounts with administration privileges (superusers). Furthermore, in order to restrict access at the physical security level, an Access Procedure for Aena's DPCs has been implemented.

There is also an ICT Disaster Recovery Plan designed to ensure recovery of information systems considered as critical by the business areas and which is regularly reviewed. In addition, procedures are in place to monitor systems and applications (system availability, storage, network capacity, etc.) and make backups.

In the area of development and management of changes, methodologies based on ITIL good practices are used. It also uses a Secure Development Rule, a Change Management Policy and a Procedure for Applications Deployment to ensure the quality of the software produced, as well as an appropriate methodology when maintaining and implementing new infrastructures (networks, servers, base software, etc.).

Finally, in order to be informed of the situation of the systems at all times, Aena has an updated Systems Operation Plan featuring the information on the inventory or systems and actions planned for them.

In addition to the above and in order to complete the current security measures for information systems, Aena has a Cybersecurity Plan approved by the Board of Directors for the period 2018-2021, which has entailed the execution of the following jobs:

- ICT Security Management System. Improvement of the ICT Security Office to cover the actions envisaged in the Cybersecurity Plan. In 2018, this service implemented an ICT Security Incident Response Centre (CSIRT) which provides information security incident management services, monitors corporate systems and reviews the security rules and controls implemented in security management systems with a 24x7 point of contact for stakeholders.
- Automation of DPC infrastructure management. Tools for managing and automating ICT processes to improve efficiency and security.
- Preventing information loss and managing mobile devices. Tools to reduce information loss risks and improve security in mobile devices.

- Antivirus add-ons. New Antivirus features (Advanced Protection, Response, Remediation and White Lists).

Lastly, a Strategic Information Systems Plan has been defined, for which a number of actions are planned to improve the level of information security and its management mechanisms.

F.3.3. Internal control policies and procedures for overseeing management of outsourced activities and the appraisal, calculation or valuation services commissioned from independent experts when these may materially affect the financial statements.

Generally speaking, Aena does not outsource any activity regarded as relevant and/or significant that could materially affect financial information.

In 2019, the only actions in this area concerned valuation of pension liabilities in a subsidiary, valuation of the Group's real estate portfolio, estimating the provision needed to meet employment commitments and similar obligations, support work for the fixed asset inventory review at some airports, and drawing up the Transfer Pricing Dossier which analyses and values transactions performed with companies considered as related parties for Aena.

In all cases, Aena assures the competency and technical and legal qualifications of the professionals hired in accordance with the evaluation and technical solvency criteria established in Aena's General Rules on Internal Contracting. Aena has also implemented SCIIF controls over the contracting process and the execution of any activity subcontracted to a third party.

F.4 Information and communication

State, mentioning the main features, whether your entity has at least:

F.4.1. A specific function in charge of defining and maintaining accounting policies (accounting policy area or department) and settling doubts or disputes over their interpretation, which is in regular communication with the team in charge of operations, and a manual of accounting policies regularly updated and communicated to all the entity's operating units.

The Accounting Consolidation and Regulation area, which is part of the Financial Department and is responsible for the preparation, implementation, communication and update of the Group's accounting policies.

It is also responsible for permanently keeping the Accounting Policy Handbook of the Group updated and to ensure proper dissemination of it.

To do so, this area analyses whether new accounting features affect the accounting policies of the Group as well as the date of entry into force of each of the rules. When it is deemed that the new regulations or their interpretations have an effect on the accounting policies of the Group, these are added to the Handbook, also communicating this fact to the people responsible for preparing the financial information of the Group via appropriate instructions.

As noted in Section F.3.1, the Group's Accounting Policy Handbook was updated in 2019.

F.4.2. Mechanisms in standard format for the capture and preparation of financial information, which are applied and used in all units within the entity or group, and support its main financial statements and accompanying notes as well as disclosures concerning the SCIIF.

The process of consolidation and preparation of the financial information is carried out in a centralised manner coordinated by the Accounting Consolidation and Regulation area, supervised by the Financial Department. All this process is controlled using Aena's accounting closing and reporting and consolidation matrices.

For the purposes of the preparation of the annual, half-yearly, quarterly and monthly financial information, the Group has a procedure that works in the following way to obtain the information required for its preparation:

The financial information obtained on a half-yearly basis from each individual entity is reviewed and supervised by the managers of these companies. It is homogenised centrally at Group level and reviewed by a series of established controls.

In order to prepare annual, half-yearly, quarterly and monthly consolidated financial statements, there is a homogeneous reporting package which has been developed internally that allows all the information to be centrally added in relation to the breakdowns required by international regulations.

Specific controls are carried out to validate the information received at the centralised level and on the resulting consolidated financial information. These controls are designed to validate equity items, significant variations and other verifications that the Consolidation area deems necessary to ensure that the financial information has been properly captured and processed.

Every year the reporting package is updated with any regulatory modifications which might have been made and require information to be received from the Group subsidiaries.

This homogenised information is added via the internal consolidation tool and the necessary adjustments are made to obtain the consolidated financial statements of the Group.

The financial information reported to the Spain's Comisión Nacional del Mercado de Valores (National Stock Market Commission - CNMV) is prepared on the basis of consolidated financial statements, as well as certain additional information reported by the subsidiaries, required for the preparation of the annual and/or half-yearly report. In parallel, specific controls are carried out to validate that information.

F.5 Supervision of the system's operation

Report, stating its main characteristics, on whether it has at least:

F.5.1. The SCIIF supervision activities carried out by the Audit Committee as well as whether the entity has an Internal Audit function whose duties include providing support to the Committee in its task of supervising the internal control system, including the SCIIF. State the extent of the SCIIF evaluation carried out in the year and the procedure used by the person carrying out the evaluation to notify its results, whether the company has an action plan with details of the possible corrective measures, and if the impact on financial reporting has been taken into account.

The Audit Committee has carried out, among others, the following activities during the year in regard to the SCIIF supervision activities:

- It has reviewed the Group's Consolidated Annual Accounts and the regular financial information – quarterly and half-yearly - that must be provided to the markets and to the regulator, ensuring compliance with regulatory requirements and the proper application in their preparation of generally accepted accounting principles.
- It has reviewed the scope of the professional mandate of the external auditors, supervising compliance with their contract and with independence requirements and regularly evaluating their results.
- It has approved the annual report on the activities of the Internal Audit Department, the budget and the annual audit plan.
- It has analysed the annual audit plan of the external auditors which includes the audit objectives based on the assessment of financial information risks, as well as the main areas of interest or significant transactions subject to review in the year.
- It has reviewed along with the external auditors and Internal Audit any recommendations for improvement of the Internal Control System detected in the course of the various auditing and review tasks, finding out about the proposed actions plans designed to resolve them.

As noted in Section F.1.1., Internal Audit has functions in oversight of Internal Control. They are carried out by providing independent and objective assurance and advice designed to add value and improve the transactions in the organisation which contributes towards good corporate governance and lessens the impact of the risks in the achievement of Aena targets to reasonable levels.

The Internal Audit team spearheads the development of its functions, and uses external companies for support in certain tasks.

The scope of action of Internal Audit includes all companies that belong to the Aena Group. It is therefore a centralised function with a corporate scope which carries out its work in any national or international company, process, area or system managed by Aena or the subsidiaries it controls.

Internal Audit drafts a multi-year plan for regular review of the SCIIF that is submitted for the approval of the Audit Committee once a year. This multi-year plan involves the performance of reviews of the SCIIF for the significant processes and components of the financial statements of the Group, establishing review priorities according to risks identified and the materiality of the balances and transactions affected.

In particular, the following are reviewed: the design, effective operation and adequate documentation of key transactional and supervision codes and the general controls of the main software applications involved in the preparation of the financial information. In order to carry out its tasks, Internal Audit uses different auditing techniques, mainly interviews, analytical reviews, specific control tests and substantive tests.

The results of the work, along with the corrective measures proposed, if any, are reported to the Financial Department and to the units responsible for the audited process or centre. The implementation of these measures is subject to subsequent monitoring by Internal Audit.

During fiscal year 2019, Internal Audit issued reports on four of the fifteen corporate processes identified in AENA's SCIIF: Collections and Payments, Financing, Budgeting and Information Systems. It also reviewed the SCIIF controls applicable at two of the network's airports, Madrid-Barajas and London-LUTON. Likewise, it conducted detailed follow-up of the reviews carried out in previous years.

F.5.2. Whether the company has a discussion procedure whereby the auditor (in accordance with what is set forth in the NTAs), the Internal Audit staff and other experts are able to inform senior management or company Directors of any significant internal control weaknesses identified during the processes of review of the annual accounts or any others entrusted to them. In addition, state whether there is an action plan to try to correct or mitigate any observed weaknesses.

The Regulations of the Board of Directors of Aena establish that the competencies of the Audit Committee include the following:

- Regularly receive from external auditors information on the results of the execution of the audit plan and verify that senior management takes its recommendations into account.
- Establish the appropriate relations with the accounts auditor to receive information on the issues related to the accounts auditing process, as well as the communications set forth in the legislation on accounts auditing and auditing regulations.
- Discuss with the accounts auditor any significant weaknesses of the Internal Control System detected in the course of the audit.
- Ensure that the Board of Directors presents the Accounts to the General Shareholders' Meeting without reservations or qualifications in the audit report.

In accordance with these Regulations, in the meetings prior to the preparation of the financial information held between the Audit Committee and the external auditors, any potential discrepancies in criteria are discussed. In turn, the external auditors report, as the case may be, on the main aspects for improvement of the internal control that they have identified in the course of their work.

In this respect the Audit Committee has welcomed the external auditor to five of its meetings in 2019.

In addition, the Regulations of the Board of Directors of Aena establish that the functions of the Audit Committee include receiving regular information on Internal Audit activities and verifying that senior management takes its conclusions and recommendations into account.

Internal Audit regularly monitors the incidents and recommendations included in their reports with the departments/units concerned.

Subsequently it informs both the Management Committee and the Audit Committee of the status of the main points outstanding and the evolution of the associated action plans.

F.6 Other relevant information

No other relevant information.

F.7 External auditor report

Indicate whether:

F.7.1. Whether the SCIIF information sent to the markets has been reviewed by the external auditor, in which case the company must include the corresponding report as an annex. If this is not the case, it should explain why.

Aena has requested the External Auditor to examine, with a reasonable degree of independent assurance, the Internal Financial Information Control System (SCIIF) system of Aena S.M.E., S.A. (parent company) and subsidiaries (the Aena consolidated Group or the Group) at 31 December 2019, based on the criteria established in the Internal Control-Integrated Framework (2013) issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO).

It has made this request to the External Auditor pursuant to ISAE Standard 3000 Assurance Engagements other than Audits or Reviews of Historical Financial Information, issued by the International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board (IAASB).

In its opinion, the Group maintains, in all material respects, an effective internal control system over financial reporting as of 31 December 2019.

Independent Reasonable Assurance Report on the System of Internal Control over Financial Reporting of Aena S.M.E., S.A. and Subsidiaries at 31 December 2019

To the Directors of Aena, S.M.E., S.A.

Further to your request, and in accordance with our engagement letter dated 6 May 2019, we have examined the information concerning the Internal Control over Financial Reporting (ICOFR) system of Aena, S.M.E., S.A. (Parent company) and subsidiaries (the Aena consolidated Group or the Group) described in note F of the accompanying Annual Corporate Governance Report at 31 December 2019. This system is based on the criteria established in the Internal Control - Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations (COSO) of the Treadway Commission.

An entity's ICOFR is designed to provide reasonable assurance that its annual financial reporting complies with the applicable financial reporting framework. It includes policies and procedures that (i) pertain to the existence and maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and assets of the Group; (ii) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of the Group's consolidated annual accounts in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework; and (iii) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use or disposal of the Group's assets that could have a material effect on the consolidated annual accounts. In this respect it should be borne in mind that, irrespective of the quality of the design and operation of the internal control system adopted in relation to annual financial reporting, the system may only provide reasonable, but not absolute assurance in relation to the objectives pursued, due to the limitations inherent in any internal control system.

Directors' and management's responsibilities

The Board of Directors of the Parent and Senior Management of the Group are responsible for adopting appropriate measures to reasonably ensure the implementation, maintenance and oversight of an adequate ICOFR system, evaluating its effectiveness and developing improvements to that system, and defining the content of and preparing the accompanying information concerning the ICOFR system.

Our responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's ICOFR system based on our examination, as well as on the preparation of the disclosures contained in the general information concerning the ICOFR system included in note F of the Group's Annual Corporate Governance Report at 31 December 2019.

We conducted our examination in accordance with ISAE 3000 (Revised) (International Standard on Assurance Engagements 3000: Assurance Engagements other than Audits or Reviews of Historical Financial Information), issued by the International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board (IAASB) of the International Federation of Accountants (IFAC) for the issue of reasonable assurance reports. This standard requires that we plan and perform our work to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Group maintains, in all material respects, effective ICOFR. Our work included obtaining an understanding of the Group's ICOFR system, testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of that system, and performing such other procedures as were considered necessary in the circumstances. We consider that our assessment provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

We apply International Standard on Quality Control 1 and accordingly maintain a comprehensive system of quality control including documented policies and procedures regarding compliance with ethical requirements, professional standards and applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

We have complied with the independence and other ethical requirements of the Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants issued by the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants, which is founded on fundamental principles of integrity, objectivity, professional competence and due care, confidentiality and professional behaviour.

Inherent limitations

Due to the limitations inherent in any internal control system, there is always a possibility that the ICOFR system may not prevent or detect misstatements or irregularities that may arise as a result of errors of judgement, human error, fraud or misconduct. Moreover, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Conclusion

In our opinion, the Group maintains, in all material respects, effective ICOFR at 31 December 2019, in accordance with the criteria established in the Internal Control - Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations (COSO) of the Treadway Commission. Furthermore, the disclosures contained in the information concerning the ICOFR system included in note F of the Group's Annual Corporate Governance Report at 31 December 2019 have been prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the requirements set forth in article 540 of the Revised Spanish Companies Act and in Spanish National Securities Market Commission (CNMV) Circular 5/2013 of 12 June 2013, subsequently amended by CNMV Circular 7/2015 of 22 December 2015 and CNMV Circular 2/2018 of 12 June 2018 with respect to the description of the ICOFR system in Annual Corporate Governance Reports.

Other matters

Our examination did not constitute an audit of accounts and is not subject to the legislation regulating the audit of accounts in Spain. As such, in this report we do not express an audit opinion on the accounts under the terms provided in the above-mentioned legislation. However, on 25 February 2020 we issued our unqualified audit report on the consolidated annual accounts of the Group for 2019, in accordance with the legislation regulating the audit of accounts in Spain.
