MADRID (Standard & Poor's) March 4, 2009—Standard & Poor's Ratings Services said today that its ratings on the notes issued by Bancaja 12 Fondo de Titulización de Activos remained unaffected following the replacement of the treasury account holder in that deal.

Bancaja 12 has chosen to replace Banco Popular Espanol, S.A. (AA-/Negative/A-1+) as treasury account holder with Banco Santander S.A. (AA/Stable/A-1+). We consider that this replacement has no effect on the ratings we assigned in this transaction.

The class A notes in this transaction remain on CreditWatch negative due to the exposure to Caja de Ahorros de Valencia, Castellon y Alicante (Bancaja; NR/--/NR), the originator, which still acts as a swap counterparty. Bancaja does not meet the minimum rating as envisaged in our counterparty criteria. While we understand collateral is being posted against 125% of the mark-to-market value of the swap, continued participation of an unrated counterparty is in breach of the transaction documentation.

We placed the class A notes on CreditWatch negative on Nov. 27, 2008 following publication of our revised methodology for 'A-2' rated derivatives counterparties (see "Related Research" below). This stated that, absent any other structural mitigants, we would no longer maintain 'AAA' ratings on securitization and other structured finance-related debt instruments
