FITCH AFFIRMS PYME VALENCIA 1, F.T.A.

Fitch Ratings-London-02 August 2011: Fitch Ratings has affirmed PYME Valencia 1, F.T.A.'s class A2, B, D and E notes and downgraded the class C notes, as follows:

EUR159.3m Class A2 (ISIN ES0372241010): affirmed at 'Asf'; Outlook Negative

EUR47.6m Class B (ISIN ES0372241028): affirmed at 'BBsf'; Outlook Negative

EUR34.0m Class C (ISIN ES0372241036): downgraded to 'CCsf' from 'CCCsf'; Recovery Rating is 'RR5'

EUR13.6m Class D (ISIN ES0372241044): affirmed at 'CCsf'; 'RR6'

EUR15.3m Class E (ISIN ES0372241051): affirmed at 'Csf'; 'RR6'

Fitch expects portfolio performance to stabilise given the significant reduction in the delinquency pipeline. Loans over 90 days in arrears represent 2.2% of the portfolio balance, compared to 2.3% one year ago and an all-time high of 7.9% two years ago.

The Negative Outlook on the class A2 and B notes reflects the sensitivity of the notes to the large obligor and industry concentration in the portfolio. Moreover, the high principal deficiency ledger (PDL) balance limits the ability of the structure to protect the notes from the effects of further defaults in the portfolio. High defaults in the past have exhausted the reserve fund and have caused the PDL balance to reach EUR9.0m, up from EUR4.8m last year. The structure depends on recoveries, which have so far been low at about 10%, or excess spread to remedy the PDL balance.

The 'CCsf' rating on the class C and D notes reflects the low CE available to these notes. Neither class of notes passes any rating stress scenario considered by Fitch. The agency therefore believes a default of some kind on these two classes appears probable.

The 'Csf' rating on the Class E notes reflects that a default of the notes appears inevitable. Fitch does not believe the reserve fund, which backs the Class E notes, will be replenished to its required amount before the maturity date of the notes.

PYME Valencia 1, F.T.A. is a cash-flow securitisation of loans granted to Spanish small and medium enterprises (SMEs) by Banco de Valencia ('BB-/Stable/'B'). The notes mature in March 2040.

Fitch has assigned an Issuer Report Grade of two stars ("Basic") to the investor reports of this transaction. This IRG reflects the absence of several reporting items considered important by Fitch (ie reporting of counterparty rating triggers).
