Violation of prospectus requirement: Deutsche Edelfisch DEG GmbH & Co. II KG not allowed to publicly offer the securities „Anleihe 2022/2025“ and „Anleihe 2022/2030“

On 05 July 2023, the Financial Supervisory Authority (BaFin) prohibited Deutsche Edelfisch DEG GmbH & Co. II KG from publicly offering the securities „Anleihe 2022/2025“ and „Anleihe 2022/2030“ in Germany.

BaFin imposed the prohibition because the company had infringed Article 3(1) of the EU Prospectus Regulation. For this reason, Deutsche Edelfisch DEG GmbH & Co. II KG may not offer the securities „Anleihe 2022/2025“ and „Anleihe 2022/2030“ of Deutsche Edelfisch DEG GmbH & Co. II KG to the public in Germany.

This action by BaFin has not yet become final but is immediately enforceable.

On 27 April 2023, BaFin had already announced that there were sufficient grounds to suspect that the securities in question were being offered to the public in Germany without the required prospectus.

Deutsche Edelfisch DEG GmbH & Co. II KG is domiciled in the Gerber-Straße 2-4 in 19306 Neustadt-Glewe, Germany.

Background information:

As a rule, securities may be offered to the public in Germany only if a prospectus has been published. This prospectus must be approved by BaFin prior to publication. Offering securities to the public without an approved prospectus constitutes a violation of the prospectus requirement under Article 3(1) of the EU Prospectus Regulation – unless an exemption applies.

During the prospectus approval process, BaFin checks whether the minimum information required by law is included in the prospectus and whether its content is understandable, coherent and consistent. However, BaFin is not responsible for checking whether the information contained in the prospectus is correct, for assessing the integrity of the issuer, or for monitoring the product in question.

Offerors and issuers can be held liable for failing to publish a prospectus as required (section 14 of the German Securities Prospectus Act (Wertpapierprospektgesetz – WpPG). The parties responsible for the prospectus are liable for the accuracy and completeness of the information contained in the securities prospectus (sections 9 and 10 of the WpPG).

Violations of the prospectus requirement are punishable by a fine of up to EUR 5 million or 3% of total revenues for the previous financial year. Fines of up to twice the economic advantage gained from committing the offence may also be imposed.

BaFin advises consumers to base all investments in securities solely on the information offeror's are required to provide by law.

You can check whether an approved prospectus for an offer of securities to the public has been filed with BaFin by consulting the Prospectuses filed database on the BaFin website.

In accordance with section 4 (4) of the German Act Establishing the Federal Financial Supervisory Authority (Finanzdienstleistungsaufsichtsgesetz – FinDAG), BaFin performs its functions and exercises its powers exclusively in the public interest. Due to their statutory obligation of confidentiality, BaFin's staff are not in a position to provide third parties with information regarding the progress and results of administrative proceedings.

However, there are ways in which you can support BaFin's work: if you have any specific information about the offerors mentioned above – such as contract templates, e-mail addresses, telephone or fax numbers of contact persons or the offeror's account details – please do not hesitate to get in touch with our contact point for whistleblowers.
