

CHANGES TO SENIOR MANGEMENT

Coca-Cola European Partners plc (CCEP) announces that Ron Lewis will depart as Chief Supply Chain Officer at the end of August to take up a new role with Ball Corporation as President, Beverage Packaging Europe. A further announcement about Ron's successor will be made in due course.

Ron has made a significant impact on many parts of the Coca-Cola system since he joined in 2001. He has held several executive global and European supply chain and procurement roles, as well as commercial leadership roles in the United States.

Damian Gammell, CEO said, "I would like to thank Ron for his leadership at Coca-Cola European Partners, where he has helped establish a strong supply chain organisation since our company was formed three years ago. Ron's legacy will be felt across the Coca-Cola system through his development of people and passion for creating a sustainable business and supply chain."
