

28 February 2022

Dear Shareholder,

Schroder International Selection Fund – Emerging Europe (the “Fund”)

Temporary suspension of NAV and dealing in shares in the Fund

The decision to suspend dealing in shares in the Fund has been taken on the recommendation of the Company's management company, Schroder Investment Management (Europe) S.A., and notified to the Company's depository and transfer agent as well as relevant regulators.

It has been made in accordance with article 22 of the articles of incorporation of the Company (the “Articles”) and the “Suspensions or Deferrals” section of the prospectus of the Company (the “Prospectus”) which enable suspensions of the calculation of NAV (and dealing suspensions), including in circumstances where the valuation of investments is impracticable or subject to material change.

All dealing instructions received after 13.00 on 25 February 2022 (the last dealing day before the NAV and dealing suspension) have been and will be suspended until further notice (the “Suspension Period”), and will be dealt with as of the Fund's first dealing day after the termination of the Suspension Period, with the NAV calculated as of that day and published accordingly.

During the Suspension Period, shareholders may withdraw their subscription, switching or redemption request in relation to the Fund, provided that such request is received before the termination of the Suspension Period.

We will continue to monitor market developments and manage the Fund consistently with its investment objectives, as far as reasonably practicable.

We aim to resume dealing as and when market conditions allow, taking into account the best interests of shareholders of the Fund. We will notify shareholders of any significant further decisions made with respect to the Fund, including the lifting of the Suspension Period. Information relating to the suspension will be made available on our website at:
