RIGHT TO ATTEND

All shareholders may attend the General Meeting, regardless of the number of shares they hold, provided that such ownership is registered in their name in the accounting records of the Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores, S.A. (Iberclear) five days prior to the date indicated for the meeting.

Shareholders who wish to attend the General Meeting in person must provide the corresponding attendance and proxy card issued by the corresponding Iberclear participant (or, failing that, the certificate issued by the Iberclear participant, as the case may be, or the separate document that, in accordance with the law, verifying them as a shareholder) or the attendance, proxy and voting card made available to shareholders on the Company's website, and identify themselves to the personnel in charge of the shareholders' registry. For the purpose of accrediting the identity of the shareholders, or of whoever validly represents them, at the entrance to the premises where the General Meeting is held, those attending may be asked, together with the attendance and proxy card, to verify their identity by presenting their National Identity Document or any other valid official document that the Company considers appropriate for such purposes. REPRESENTATION

Shareholders who are entitled to attend may be represented at the General Meeting by another person, even though that person is not a shareholder, in compliance with the legal requirements and formalities, those contained in the Bylaws and in the Regulations of the General Meeting and those specified in this notice.

The documents containing the proxies shall include the identification of the person attending in place of the shareholder. If they are not specified or if they are completed in favor of the Board of Directors, it will be understood that the representation has been granted in favor of the Chairman of the Board of Directors or the Secretary of the Board of Directors (in the event that the Chairman of the Board of Directors is in a conflict of interest in relation to any point on the Agenda).

REPRESENTATION AND VOTING THROUGH REMOTE MEDIA

Shareholders entitled to attend may delegate their representation or cast their vote through remote communication means under the terms set forth below.

The Board of Directors has agreed to authorize the exercise of representation and voting rights by means of remote communication, provided that the procedural and identification guarantees established in this section are met and the guarantees relating to the period for receipt, accreditation of shareholder status and the other requirements and formalities required in the following section or in the Articles of Association, the Regulations of the General Meeting and the Law on Corporations are complied with.

Exercise of the right of representation by postal correspondence:

In order to confer their representation by means of delivery or postal correspondence, shareholders must complete and sign the attendance, proxy and remote voting card issued on paper by one of the entities participating in Iberclear, or made available to shareholders on the Company's website, in the section provided for the signature of the represented party. The card, duly completed and signed with a handwritten signature, must be sent to the Company by post or equivalent courier service. The shareholder who grants his representation by means of delivery or postal correspondence is obliged to inform the designated representative of the representation granted. When the representation is conferred to a Director and/or the Secretary of the Board of Directors, this communication will be understood to have been made through the receipt by the Company of said card, duly completed and signed. The person to whom the vote is delegated may only exercise it by attending the General Meeting in person. On the date and in the place of the General Meeting, the designated representatives must identify themselves by means of their National Identity Document, Foreigners' Identity Card or Passport so that the Company can verify the delegation granted, including, if necessary, a copy of said delegation.

Exercise of the right of representation by electronic means:

To confer their representation by electronic communication with the Company, shareholders must do so through the Company's website <http://www.oryzon.com>. Given that the mechanism for granting proxies by electronic means must have adequate guarantees of authenticity and identity of the person granting the proxy. Shareholders who wish to use this mechanism must first have an advanced or recognized electronic signature, under the terms of Act 59/2003, of 19 December, of an electronic signature, based on a qualified electronic certificate which does not have a revocation mark, and which has been issued by the Spanish Public Certification Authority (CERES), a branch of the Royal Spanish Mint (FNMT-RCM), or of the electronic National Identity Document. Once the shareholder has the corresponding electronic signature, he/she may, through the "General Meeting" space on the Company's website (<http://www.oryzon.com>) and following the instructions provided thereon, grant his/her representation to another person, even if not a shareholder, to represent him/her at the General Meeting. The shareholder who grants his representation by electronic means is obliged to inform the designated representative of the representation granted. When the proxy is granted to a director and/or the Secretary of the Board of Directors, this communication shall be understood to have been made through the receipt by the Company of the said electronic proxy. The person to whom the vote is delegated may only exercise it by attending the General Meeting in person. On the date and in the place of the General Meeting and within the hour immediately prior to the time announced for the beginning of the meeting, the designated representatives must identify themselves by means of their National Identity Document, Foreigners' Identity Card or Passport so that the Company can verify the delegation granted, including, if appropriate, a copy of said delegation.

Exercise of the right to vote by postal correspondence:

For remote voting by delivery or postal correspondence, shareholders must complete and sign the "Remote Voting" section of the attendance, proxy and remote voting card issued on paper by any of the entities participating in Iberclear, or made available to shareholders on the Company's website. The card duly completed and signed with a handwritten signature must be sent to the Company by post or equivalent courier service. In the event that the attendance, proxy and remote voting card issued by the entity participating in Iberclear does not include the section dedicated to "Remote Voting", the shareholder who wishes to vote remotely by postal vote must download from the Company's website and print out the attendance, proxy and remote voting card, completing and signing the section dedicated to "Remote Voting" and signing it. Once completed and signed, the shareholder must send it to the Company by post or equivalent courier service.

Exercise of the right to vote remotely by electronic means:

In order to cast a vote remotely by electronic communication with the Company, shareholders must do so through the Company's website (<http://www.oryzon.com>). Shareholders who wish to use this delegation mechanism must first have an advanced or recognized electronic signature, under the terms of Law 59/2003 of 19 December on electronic signatures, based on a recognized electronic certificate which does not contain a revocation notice and which has been issued by the Spanish Public Certification Authority (CERES), which reports to the Royal Spanish Mint (FNMT-RCM), or the electronic National Identity Document. Once the shareholder has the corresponding electronic signature, he may, through the "General Meeting" space on the Company's website (<http://www.oryzon.com>) and following the instructions provided thereon, cast his or her vote remotely in relation to the items on the Agenda of the General Meeting.

COMMON RULES ON THE EXERCISE OF RIGHTS OF REPRESENTATION AND ABSENTEE VOTING

Period for receipt by the Company and register of shareholders / Shareholder status:

In order to be valid, both the delegations conferred and the votes cast prior to the General Meeting by means of remote communication must be received by the Company at the registered office or through its website before 23:59 on the working day immediately prior to the date scheduled for the General Meeting on first call.

After the indicated period, only proxies issued by card of the entities participating in Iberclear that are presented by the representative to the personnel in charge of the register of shareholders within the two hours prior to the time scheduled for the start of the General Meeting will be admitted for the purpose of exercising voting and proxy rights by remote communication means.

The delegation, vote or attendance will only be considered valid if the condition of shareholder is confirmed, verifying that the ownership and the number of shares provided by each of the persons who attend, issue their representation or vote by remote communication means coincide with the data provided by Iberclear.

Priority rules between delegation and voting by remote means of communication and attendance at the General Meeting:

The attendance to the General Meeting of the shareholder who has previously delegated his representation or voted through remote communication means, whatever the means used, will cause the delegation or vote to be invalid.

In the event that a shareholder makes several delegations or votes, the action (delegation or vote) that has been made in the last term will prevail, although the delegation or vote validly issued by means of a handwritten signature on the card printed on paper will make the one made by electronic means invalid, either before or after. If there is no certainty as to when the shareholder made any of the proxies or votes, the vote, regardless of the means used to issue it, will prevail over the proxy. If the shareholder has voted in different ways, the vote that was made last will prevail.

Other forecasts:

The disposal of the shares whose ownership confers the right to vote, provided that it is known to the Company at least five days before the date of the General Meeting, shall render the vote and delegation conferred ineffective.

It is the exclusive responsibility of the shareholder to keep the electronic signature for the use of the electronic delegation and voting service.

Shareholders with the right to attend who cast their votes remotely in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be present for the purposes of constituting the General Meeting.

For the purposes of Article 126 of the Spanish Capital Companies Act, it is presumed that the co-owner who at any time performs an action (delegation, vote or in-person attendance) is designated by the other co-owners to exercise the rights of the shareholder.

If the shareholder is a legal entity, it must provide a copy of the proxy of the signatory of the attendance, delegation and remote voting card and communicate any modification or revocation of the powers held by its representative and, therefore, the Company declines any liability until such notification is made and provided that it is made before the start of the General Meeting.

Technical incidents:

The Company reserves the right to modify, suspend, cancel or restrict the electronic voting and delegation mechanisms when technical or security reasons so require or impose.

The Company shall not be liable for any damages that may be caused to the shareholder as a result of breakdowns, overloads, line failures, connection failures, malfunctioning of the postal service or any other event of the same or similar nature, beyond the control of the Company, that prevents the use of remote voting and delegation mechanisms. For further information on remote proxies and voting, shareholders may visit the Company's website (<http://www.oryzon.com>), send an e-mail to accionistas@oryzon.com and call the Shareholders' Service Department at (+34) 93 70 74 100.

ELECTRONIC ATTENDANCE

In view of the current situation resulting from the health crisis caused by COVID-19, the Board of Directors has agreed, under article 41 of Royal Decree Law 8/2020 of 17 March, on urgent extraordinary measures to deal with the economic and social impact of COVID-19, to additionally allow electronic attendance to the Ordinary General Meeting, allowing shareholders and proxies who so wish to attend and participate in the General Meeting by remote and simultaneous connection.

In this regard, all shareholders entitled to attend and vote at the General Meeting in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraphs may additionally attend and vote at the same, either by themselves or by proxy, by electronic means that allow them to be connected simultaneously with the place where the meeting is held.

Electronic attendance at the General Meeting will be subject to the provisions of the Law and to the following basic rules, which are complemented and developed by those published on the Company's corporate website (www.oryzon.com) in the space dedicated to the General Shareholders' Meeting 2020 ("Electronic Attendance")

(i) Identification and prior registration: in order to guarantee the identity of those attending, the correct exercise of their rights, interactivity and the adequate development of the meeting, shareholders and representatives who wish to use the mechanisms of electronic assistance must first register in the space dedicated to the General Shareholders' Meeting 2020 ("Electronic Assistance") on the corporate website, from 11:59 p.m. on August 25, 2020 until 11:59 p.m. on August 31, 2020. After that time, no registration will be admitted for the exercise of the right to electronic assistance.

The aforementioned prior registration shall be carried out by one of the following means: (i) Electronic National Identity Document; or (ii) Recognized or advanced electronic signature, based on a recognized and valid electronic certificate, issued by the Spanish Public Certification Entity (CERES), which reports to the Fábrica Nacional de Moneda y Timbre. Without prejudice to the above, in order for the representative to be able to attend the General Meeting electronically, the delegation and identity of the representative must be accredited to the Company, by sending the attendance, delegation and remote voting card duly completed, and a copy of the representative's DNI, NIE or passport, which must be sent to the address accionistas@oryzon.com or received by the Company at the registered office at least 24 hours prior to the date scheduled for the General Meeting on first call.

The Company may provide additional means of identification that duly guarantee the identity of the shareholder. The Company reserves the right to request from shareholders such additional means of identification as it deems necessary to verify their status as shareholders and to guarantee the authenticity of the vote or proxy.

Once the shareholder or, if applicable, his representative, has registered in accordance with the indicated means and within the established period, he may attend and vote at the General Meeting through electronic means, making the corresponding connection on the day of the General Meeting.

(ii) Connection and attendance: in order to allow the adequate management of the electronic attendance systems, the shareholder or representative who has previously registered to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting electronically in accordance with section (i) above, must connect to the space dedicated to the General Shareholders' Meeting 2020 ("Electronic Attendance") on the Company's corporate website between 4 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. on 1 September 2020 (if the Meeting is held on first call) or on 2 September 2020 (if, as expected, the Meeting is held on second call), and identify themselves in accordance with any of the means set out in section (i) above or as indicated in the corresponding instructions.

In the event that the General Meeting is held on second call (as expected), those attending by electronic means who were connected on first call will have to connect again to attend the General Meeting on second call, i.e. between 4:00 and 4:30 p.m. on 2 September 2020.

(iii) Intervention: in accordance with the provisions of the Law on Corporations, any interventions and proposals for agreements or requests for information or clarifications that, in accordance with the Law, are intended to be made by those who will attend by electronic means, must be sent to the Company, in writing and in any case, in accordance with the form, terms and conditions established on the aforementioned website of the Company, before 4:30 p.m. on 1 September 2020 or, as the case may be, on 2 September 2020, depending on whether the General Meeting is held on first or second call, respectively, and until the time of its constitution.

The attendee participating electronically who wishes his or her intervention to be recorded verbatim on the minutes of the Board shall expressly indicate this in the text of the minutes. Requests for information or clarification from shareholders attending electronically will be answered verbally during the General Meeting or in writing during the seven days following the Meeting, in accordance with the provisions of the Law on Corporations.

In the event that the General Meeting is held on second call (as expected), the electronic attendees who, having connected to the meeting on first call, have sent in speeches and proposed resolutions or requests for information or clarification will have to send them again the following day, under the terms indicated in this section (iii); otherwise they will be considered not to have been made.

(iv) Voting: the vote on the proposals relating to items included on the agenda may be cast from the moment the shareholder or, where appropriate, the representative is connected on the day the meeting is held and until the Chairman or, where appropriate, the Secretary of the meeting announces the end of the voting period for the proposed resolutions relating to items on the agenda. With regard to the proposed resolutions on those items which, by legal mandate, do not have to be included on the agenda, those attending by electronic means may cast their votes from the moment these proposals are read out in order to vote on them and until the Chairman or, where appropriate, the Secretary of the Meeting, announces the conclusion of the voting period for these proposed resolutions. Unless otherwise stipulated, the procedure and voting rules stipulated in the Bylaws and the Regulations of the General Meeting for shareholders attending in person shall apply to the voting on proposed resolutions. Voting on proposed resolutions shall be made through the web site and according to the corresponding voting form.

(v) Withdrawal from the meeting: those attending by electronic means who wish to expressly withdraw from the Meeting must do so by sending an electronic communication through the "Electronic Attendance" link on the Company's corporate website. Once they have notified their express wish to leave the meeting, all subsequent actions will be deemed not to have been carried out.

(vi) Other issues:

The Company will broadcast the General Meeting live to be followed on the corporate website (www.oryzon.com).

The Company may adapt, with due guarantees, the means to allow electronic attendance to the General Meeting for shareholders who are not residents of Spain, qualified investors, legal entities, representatives and other similar cases.

Shareholders who cast their votes by electronic means shall be considered as present for all purposes.

Electronic attendance to the General Meeting by the shareholder will render delegation or voting by remote means of communication prior to the General Meeting invalid. On the other hand, in-person attendance to the Meeting will render electronic attendance null and void.

It is the exclusive responsibility of the shareholder or his or her representative to keep the means of identification or, if applicable, passwords necessary to access and use the electronic attendance service.

The Company shall not be liable for any damages that may be caused to the shareholder or proxy holder as a result of breakdowns, overloads, line failures, connection failures or any other event of the same or similar nature, beyond the control of the Company, that may cause the occasional unavailability of its website, without prejudice to the adoption of the measures required in each situation, including the possible temporary suspension or extension of the Meeting if necessary to guarantee the full exercise of their rights by the shareholders or their proxies.

Electronic attendance to the General Meeting is considered an extraordinary and additional measure to the different channels made available to the shareholders of the Company to participate in the General Meeting.

The mechanisms for electronic attendance at the Meeting will be applicable both in the event that the General Meeting is held at the place indicated in this announcement with the possibility of physical attendance by shareholders and representatives, and in the event that the General Meeting has to be held exclusively by electronic means because any measure or recommendation of the administrative or health authorities affecting the free movement of persons and/or the possibility of holding meetings with the attendance of multiple persons is in force.

For matters not expressly regulated, the same rules provided for in-person attendance to the General Meeting shall apply to shareholders who attend the meeting electronically.

SPECIAL INFORMATION TOOLS

In accordance with the provisions of article 539.2 of the Spanish Capital Companies Act, the Company will set up an Electronic Shareholders' Forum, in the section "Electronic Shareholders' Forum" on the Company's website (<http://www.oryzon.com>), which will be accessible with the adequate guarantees for both individual shareholders and voluntary shareholders' associations which, where applicable, may be set up in accordance with the provisions of article 539.4 of the Spanish Capital Companies Act.

The Forum may publish proposals that are intended to be presented as a complement to the Agenda announced in the call, applications to join such proposals, initiatives to achieve a sufficient percentage to exercise a minority right provided for by law, as well as offers or requests for voluntary representation.

The Forum is not a mechanism for electronic conversation between shareholders, nor is it a place for virtual debate. Nor does the Forum constitute a channel of communication between the Company and its shareholders. The Forum is set up to facilitate communication between the Company's shareholders on the occasion of the call and until the General Meeting is held.

Once they have accessed the Forum through the Company's website, shareholders must identify themselves on the Forum by adding their electronic signature based on an Electronic User Certificate issued by the Spanish Public Certification Authority (CERES), which reports to the Royal Spanish Mint (FNMT-RCM) or the electronic National Identity Document. Legal entities and non-residents in Spain should direct their queries to accionistas@oryzon.com order to adapt, with the appropriate guarantees, the mechanisms of participation in the Electronic Shareholders' Forum. From the date of publication of the notice of call, the information and requirements necessary for the aforementioned participation will be available on the Company's website (<http://www.oryzon.com>).
