[December 28th, 2023]

DOMINION, the sustainable services and projects company, has reached an important milestone within its strategic plan by closing the sale of the Valdecarretas photovoltaic solar park to Renewables Japan Co, a company listed on Nikkei.

The Valdecarretas photovoltaic park, with an installed capacity of 37.83 megawatt-peak (MwP), is located in Zamora (Spain) and has been operating since its commissioning last July.

The transaction, which has been closed at a price of approximately 980,000 euros per MwP, adds a total of more than 37 million euros. The buyer, Renewables Japan Co, together with its shareholder of reference Tokyu Land Corporation, is focused on the renewable assets IPP business with projects in Japan and Europe.
