SUPPLEMENT TO THE ANNOUNCEMENT AND PROPOSAL OF RESOLUTIONS

Shareholders representing at least three per cent (3%) of the share capital are entitled to request the publication of a supplement to the announcement of the Meeting including one or more items of the agenda insofar as these new items are accompanied by a justification or, if applicable, a reasoned proposal of resolution and to file proposals of resolutions on the items already included or to be included in the agenda of the General Meeting by notice sent to the corporate address within the five (5) days following the publication of the announcement.

ELECTRONIC FORUM FOR SHAREHOLDERS

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 539.2 of the Spanish Companies Act, on the occasion of the announcement of the General Meeting, the Company has created an Electronic Forum for Shareholders on its website (www.ohl.es). Both individual shareholders and voluntary associations incorporated in accordance to the current legislation may access such forum in order to ease their communication before the Meeting.

In this forum proposals intended to be filed as a supplement to the agenda included in the announcement can be published, as well as requests of adherence to such proposals, initiatives to reach the necessary percentage to exercise the minority right provided for by the law as well as offers or requests for voluntary representation.

The forum is not a communication channel between the Company and its shareholders and it is only intended to ease communication between the shareholders of the Company on the occasion of the General Meeting.

In order to access the forum, shareholders shall obtain through the website (www.ohl.es) an access code following the instructions and conditions of use approved by the Board of Directors.

ATTENDANCE AND VOTE FOR ELECTRONIC MEANS

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 13 of the Articles of Association, the General Meeting will be held only telematically, this means, without physical attendance of shareholders, representatives or guests. The Company will provide the necessary technical means for shareholders and its representatives to connect in real time and to participate remotely the same day of the General Meeting.

Shareholders may exercise their right to attend the General Meeting by electronic means following the instructions below and the Rules for the delegation of online vote and electronic attendance:

Connection, registry and attending the General Meeting. The shareholder (or if applicable, representative) willing to attend the General Meeting telematically shall register using the means provided for such purpose at 09:00 and at 11:45 on 1 June 2022. Therefore the shareholder shall access the section on the General Meeting on the corporate Web Page of the Company (www.ohl.es) section "Asistencia Telemática" (Telematic Attendance), follow the instructions and complete the necessary information. Should the General Meeting fail to be seated on first call, shareholders (or their representatives) shall register the next day at the same time for the second call. Outside the time established no registry will be admitted for the exercise of the online attendance right. In order to guarantee the identity, shareholders and representatives willing to attend telematically to the General Meeting shall evidence their identity by electronic identity document or electronic signature based on a e-certificate in force and valid, issued by the Public Entity of Certifications (CERES for its Spanish initials) belonging to the National Mint. The Company may provide additional identification means dully guaranteeing the identity of the shareholder.

As for the case of representatives they shall certify their representation at least 24 hours before the time expected for the beginning of the seating of the General Meeting on first call, should delegation fail to be sent to the Company by e-notification, sending a scanned copy of the national identity document, foreign identification number or passport and the attendance card signed by the represented shareholder and by the representative of the management to the email relacion.accionistas@ohla-group.com. In the case of representatives of entities, they shall send to the address mentioned above a scanned copy of powers or the certificate in virtue of which they are empowered to represent the legal entity.

Once the shareholder or if applicable, its representative has registered using the options mentioned and in the term foreseen, it may attend, appear and vote in the General Meeting using online means with the relevant connection, the day foreseen for the seating of the meeting according to the provisions of the next section.

The Company reserves the right to ask shareholders or their proxies for further proof of identity as it considers necessary to confirm their status as a shareholder or proxy and to ensure the authenticity of votes cast.

Accreditation of status of shareholder of registered individuals: For the purposes of the list of attendants to the General Meeting, the Company will verify the status of shareholders and representatives of registered individuals. Online attendance will be subject to the verification that the shareholder registered has registered the shares in the relevant accounting registry with at least five (5) days prior notice before the date of celebration of the General Meeting.

Interventions and questions: Interventions, requests for information, explanations and proposals which, pursuant to the Law, may be proposed during the seating of the General Meeting, to be made by the attendants using telematics means, shall be sent to the company and in the terms and conditions foreseen in the corporate web page and in the Standards of Delegation, distance vote and online attendance from the registry and until the end of the speaking time which will be duly mentioned during the Meeting. Interventions will only appear in the minute of the meeting when expressly requested. The answers to shareholders exercising their right to information during the Meeting, when applicable, will be made orally during the meeting or in writing within the seven days following the end of the Meeting.

In the event the General Meeting is ultimately held on the second scheduled date, those attending remotely which, having connected to the meeting on the first scheduled date, sent comments and resolution proposals or requests for information and clarification, will have to send these again, in the terms stated, on the day on which the meeting is held; otherwise these will be considered not to have been made.

Voting: Votes may be cast on proposals relating to agenda items by following the instructions on the Company's website from when shareholders or their proxies connect to the General Meeting and until the Chairman or, as applicable, the Secretary, announces that voting on proposed resolutions has ended. With regard to proposed resolutions on matters that do not have to be included in the agenda, those attending by remote means may cast their votes from the time those proposals are read out for a vote to be taken.

In all aspects not specifically set out in this notice, the same rules on voting and adopting resolutions contained in the General Meeting Regulations for shareholders attending meetings in person will apply to those attending remotely.

Other aspects: Remote attendance by shareholders will be considered the same as attending the General Meeting in person. Shareholders' remote attendance will prevail over votes cast early by distance means and powers of representation granted before the General Meeting.

The Company reserves the right to adopt the relevant measures with regard to means of remote attendance at the General Meeting where required for security or technical reasons. The Company does not accept responsibility for any outages, overloading, dropouts of lines, connection failures or any other eventuality of the same or similar nature, outside the Company's control, that prevents the means of remote attendance at the General Meeting from being used. This is notwithstanding that measures are adopted as required in each situation, among others, temporary adjournment or extension of the General Meeting if necessary to ensure that shareholders or their proxies are fully able to exercise their rights.

RIGHT TO ATTEND, TO REPRESENTATION AND TO VOTE

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 13 of the Articles of Association all shareholders of the Company may attend the General Meeting. It shall be an indispensable prerequisite for any shareholder to have a right to speak and vote in the Meeting, the registry of its shares in the relevant accounting record at least five (5) days before the date of the General Meeting and the provision of the relevant certificate of entitlement or any other evidence of the ownership of shares issued for these purposes by the relevant custodian.

Any shareholder with a right to attend may be represented in the General Meeting by a third party even if it is not a shareholder. Representation may be granted in writing. The shareholder intending to grant such representation shall sign and complete the attendance card including the identification of the person representing the shareholder and, in the event of specific instructions, indications on the sense of the vote. The representative appointed shall attend with such attendance card and the national identity document or passport (and power of attorney deed in the event of representing an entity) at the place of celebration of the Meeting within the two (2) hours before the time expected for the beginning of the Meeting. Alternatively, he may send it before the General Meeting at least 24 hours before the first scheduled time to start the Meeting by postal mail to OBRASCÓN HUARTE LAÍN, S.A., (to the Investors Relations Department, Paseo de la Castellana, número 259-D, Madrid). Shareholders may use for these purposes, the original attendance cards sent to them on the occasion of the announcement of the General Meeting by their custodian.

Moreover, shareholders may grant their representation before the General Meeting at least 24 hours before the first scheduled time to start the Meeting by electronic means duly guaranteeing the representation and the identity of the represented party. The appointment of the representative by electronic means and its notification to the Company shall be made through the website of the Company (www.ohl.es) in the section created specifically for this purpose. In order to guarantee the identity, shareholders intending to grant their representation electronically shall accredit their identity by their electronic identity document or recognised or advanced electronic signature based on a recognised electronic certificate in force issued by the Spanish Public Authority of Certification (CERES) reporting to the Royal Mint.

The delegation granted as indicated in the previous paragraphs may be revoked in which case it shall be express and through the same means used to grant such representation. Such revocation shall be effective before the Company insofar as it is received by the Company at least 24 hours before the first scheduled time of the General Meeting. Moreover, the representation shall be understood as revoked by the attendance in person or remotely at the Meeting of the shareholder granting such representation or by the sale of the shares granting the condition of shareholder at least five (5) days before the date expected for the seating of the Meeting.

Shareholders entitled to attend may cast their vote by remote communication systems with respect to the proposals referring to the items of the agenda by postal mail. In order to cast a vote by correspondence, the shareholder shall send the attendance card duly signed and fulfilled to OBRASCÓN HUARTE LAÍN, S.A. (Investors Relations Department, Paseo de la Castellana, número 259-D, Madrid). Votes cast by postal correspondence must be received at least 24 hours before the first scheduled time of the General Meeting. Shareholders casting their vote by postal correspondence in the terms provided for above shall be considered as present for the purposes of the quorum of the Meeting. Votes cast in accordance to the provisions above may left without effect in the terms set out in article 13 of the Articles of Association.

Moreover, shareholders entitled to attend may also exercise their voting rights through electronic means. To this effect, the shareholder shall access the section specially created to such end on the website of the Company (www.ohl.es). The electronic vote may be cast from the same day of the publication of the announcement and until 24 hours before the first scheduled time for the seating of the General Meeting. The remote vote may be revoked by the same means used for its casting, expressly and within the period established therefor, as well as by attendance in person or remotely at the meeting of the shareholder casting it or by the sale of shares granting the condition of shareholder at least five (5) days before the date expected for the seating of the Meeting.

DATA PROTECTION

Personal data (including if applicable, picture and voice) provided either by shareholders or if applicable by their representatives to the Company in the exercise of their rights to attend, delegate and vote on the occasion of the General Meeting or which may be provided by the bank entities and companies and securities agencies holding the shares of such shareholders through the entity legally entitled to keep record of entries on account, Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores, S.A. (IBERCLEAR), shall be treated by the Company as responsible of the treatment for the management of the development and control of the shareholding relationship of the Company in fulfilment of its legal obligations (including the provision of any information requested by shareholders on the occasion of the announcement and the participation and exercise of their rights in the forum) as well as the celebration, recording and dissemination of the General Meeting. The attendance to the General Shareholder' Meeting involves the consent to the recording and dissemination of the image of the attendants. The legitimation of the treatment of data is based on the management of the shareholding relationship, the fulfilment of the legal obligations and, in what respects to the collection and dissemination of images and sounds, the legitimate interest of the Company in the recording and dissemination of the General Meeting.

Data shall be made available to the Notary attending the General Shareholders' Meeting and may be provided to third parties in the exercise of the right to information envisaged in the law or accessible to the public in the extent in which it may appear in the documentation available on the website of the Company (www.ohl.es) or expressed in the General Meeting.

In general, personal data will be stored during the shareholding relationship and once it is finished during the period of limitation of any legal or contractual liability which may arise from such relationship.

Holders of the personal data may send their access, rectification, opposition, elimination, portability and limitation of treatment applications pursuant to the provisions of the applicable legislation by written communication addressed to the corporate address of the Company, OBRASCÓN HUARTE LAÍN, S.A., (to the Investors Relations Department), Paseo de la Castellana, número 259-D, Madrid. Moreover, holders of the personal data may file claims before the Data Protection Officer of the Company (dpd@ohla-grouo.com) and/or before the Spanish Agency on Data Protection (www.aepd.es).

Should the attendance card of the shareholder include personal data referring to other individuals, the shareholder shall be responsible of informing such individuals on the wording of the previous paragraphs and fulfil any other requirement which may apply for the correct assignment of such personal data to the Company, the latter not being obliged to perform any other action towards the interested parties.

The Board of Directors has agreed to request the attendance of a Notary to record in public deed the Extraordinary General Shareholders' Meeting.

The General Meeting is expected to take place on second call.

In Madrid, 28 April 2022.

The Secretary of the Board of Directors.
Jose Maria del Cuvillo Pemán
