BANKIA, S.A.

NOTICE OF THE EXCHANGE OF BANKIA, S.A. SHARES FOR CAIXABANK, S.A. SHARES FOLLOWING THE FORMER'S ABSORPTION BY THE LATTER

In accordance with the joint merger plan between CAIXABANK, S.A. (as the absorbing company) ("CaixaBank") and BANKIA, S.A. (as the absorbed company) ("Bankia") (the "Joint Merger Plan") and as resolved by CaixaBank's extraordinary general shareholders' meeting held in Valencia on 3 December 2020, on second call, and Bankia's extraordinary general shareholders' meeting held in València on 1 December 2020, on first call, the regime and procedure for exchange Bankia shares for CaixaBank shares is hereby made public.

1. SHARES TO BE DELIVERED BY CAIXABANK

CaixaBank will complete the merger exchange by delivering to Bankia's shareholders newly issued ordinary shares of CaixaBank at the exchange ratio set in the Joint Merger Plan of 0.6845 newly issued CaixaBank shares, each with a par value of one euro, with the same characteristics and granting the same rights as the CaixaBank shares existing at the time of their issue, for each Bankia share (one) with a par value of one euro, with no additional compensation in cash (without prejudice to the provisions of section 2.3 below on the procedure to acquire fractions).

For these purposes, CaixaBank will carry out a capital increase in the amount necessary to realise the exchange. There will be no pre-emptive subscription rights and the subscription of these shares will be reserved to holders of Bankia shares.

In line with article 26 of the Law on Structural Changes to Companies¹, CaixaBank's Bankia shares and Bankia's treasury shares will not be exchanged in any event; they will be redeemed. CaixaBank is not the holder of any Bankia shares and Bankia holds 31,963,300 treasury shares. In view of the above and given that Bankia's entire share capital is represented by 3,069,522,105 shares, 3,037,558,805 Bankia shares will be exchanged, each with a par value of one euro (i.e. the entire 3,069,522,105 issued shares comprising the Bankia's share capital minus the abovementioned Bankia's 31,963,300 treasury shares).

In view of the above exchange ratio and the Bankia shares not use in the exchange as explained, CaixaBank would need to deliver 2,079,209,002.0225 newly issued ordinary shares to complete the merger exchange. However, in view of the individual nature of the shares and the impossibility of issuing or delivering fractions of a share, the entities involved in the merger have established, pursuant to the provisions of the Joint Merger Plan and the resolutions passed by their respective extraordinary general shareholders' meetings held on 3 December 2020 and 1 December 2020, a procedure to ensure that the number of CaixaBank shares to be delivered to Bankia shareholders is a whole number. This procedure consists of designating a financial institution (referred to in section 2.2 below) as an odd-lot dealer that has waived the last fraction of CaixaBank shares that may correspond to it as a Bankia shareholder by virtue of the fractions it acquires according to the procedure set out in section 2.3 below, such that the number of CaixaBank ordinary shares to be issued and delivered to Bankia shareholders is a whole number of 2,079,209,002 shares.

2. SHARE EXCHANGE PROCEDURE

2.1 AWARDING CAIXABANK SHARES

Rights to CaixaBank shares will be awarded, in accordance with the exchange ratio mentioned above, to Bankia shareholders that have acquired their shares until the registration date of the merger deed with the Commercial Registry of València (it is expected that, once the merger's conditions precedent have been fulfilled, the merger deed will be registered with the Commercial Registry of València on 26 March 2021, the "Exchange Date"), and who appear as Bankia shareholders in the records of Iberclear² on 30 March 2021, the date on which Iberclear will determine the Bankia positions to be exchanged for CaixaBank shares (record date). The Exchange Date will be the last day on which Bankia's shares will be listed on the Spanish stock exchanges (last trading date).

2.2 EXCHANGE AGENT ENTITY AND ODD-LOT DEALER

The entities involved in the merger have appointed CaixaBank as the merger exchange financial entity. Through this entity, and in accordance with the relevant operating instructions, the depositary entities of the Bankia shares will have to justify the ownership of the shares and carry out the necessary steps, if any, to complete the exchange in the most efficient way possible.

On the other hand, Cecabank, S.A. has been appointed as odd-lot dealer of the merger ("odd-lot dealer").

2.3 FRACTIONAL SHARES PURCHASE PROCEDURE

Bankia shareholders who hold a number of shares that, in accordance with the agreed exchange ratio, does not entitle them to receive a whole number of CaixaBank shares, may purchase or sell shares so that the resulting shares entitle them to receive a whole number of CaixaBank shares in accordance with the agreed exchange ratio. Each shareholder is free to decide whether to purchase or sell their shares.

Notwithstanding this, and pursuant to the Joint Merger Plan, the entities involved in the Merger have agreed to establish a mechanism aimed at facilitating the completion of the exchange to such shareholders, by appointing an odd-lot dealer. The basic terms and conditions to purchase fractions of shares are the following:

- (i) Given that the exchange ratio is 0.6845 newly issued shares of CaixaBank for each share (one) of Bankia and one ordinary share of CaixaBank, at the end of the Exchange Date (i.e. 26 March 2021), each Bankia shareholder who, by applying the exchange ratio and as a result of their position in each of their open securities accounts, is entitled to receive a whole number of CaixaBank shares and has a remaining number (whole or otherwise) of Bankia shares that does not entitle them to receive one (1) CaixaBank share, or holds a single Bankia share which, therefore, does not entitle them to receive at least one (1) whole CaixaBank share — the aforementioned Bankia shares (whole or fractions) which, in aggregate, do not entitle shareholders to receive one CaixaBank share are referred to as a "fractional share", may transfer such fractional share to the odd-lot dealer. Unless expressly instructed otherwise in writing, it will be understood that each Bankia shareholder agrees to apply of the fractional share acquisition system provided herein, without having to send instructions to the depositary entity of their shares. The depositary entity must inform the shareholder of the result of the transaction upon its completion.

- (ii) The purchase price the odd-lot dealer will pay for each fractional share will be the result of multiplying (i) the arithmetic mean of the weighted average price of Bankia's shares on the Spanish Stock Exchange Interconnection System (Continuous Market) during the past three trading sessions of Bankia on the Spanish stock exchanges up to and including the Exchange Date (which is expected to be on 24, 25 and 26 March 2021), rounded up or down, to the nearest whole number, to four (4) decimal places; by (ii) the fractional share in question; rounding the result up to the nearest euro cent and, in the case of half a euro cent, to the next higher euro cent.
- (iii) The odd-lot dealer, acting on its behalf and on its own account, will purchase the remaining odd lots in each of the positions existing at the end of the Exchange Date (i.e. on 26 March 2021). The aggregate set of the odd lots thus acquired by the odd-lot dealer will be exchanged for the whole number of CaixaBank shares according to the exchange ratio, having waived, as indicated above, the last fraction of CaixaBank share to which it may be entitled by virtue of the exchange ratio.
- (iv) Once the odd-lot dealer has received the CaixaBank shares from the odd lots, the odd-lot dealer is expected to sell them to CaixaBank within five business days following the settlement date of the share exchange. The purchase price will be equal to the aggregate amount that the odd-lot dealer would have paid for the odd lots.

2.4 EXECUTING THE EXCHANGE

The exchange of Bankia shares for CaixaBank shares and the odd-lot dealer's purchase of odd lots will take place after the Exchange Date (i.e. on 26 March 2021), once the last trading session of Bankia shares on the Spanish stock exchanges has ended and after Iberclear has completed the usual procedures for this type of transaction. However, should the date or the conditions established for the exchange, this circumstance will be duly communicated.

The exchange of Bankia shares for CaixaBank shares will be carried out through the entities participating in Iberclear that are depositaries thereof, in accordance with the procedures established for the book-entry regime, in compliance with Royal Decree 878/2015, of 2 October on clearing, settlement and registration of marketable securities represented by book entries³, and with article 117 of the Spanish Companies Law⁴, as appropriate.

The new CaixaBank shares are expected to be trading for first time on the Spanish stock exchanges on 29 March 2021. For further information on when the exchanged shares will be available to them, each Bankia shareholder will need to consult the entity or entities participating in Iberclear that are depositaries of their Bankia shares.
