item on which he/she must vote on behalf of the shareholder, the proxy must abstain from voting.

4. The Chairman and the Secretary of the General Shareholders' Meeting, or the individuals appointed on their behalf, will be entitled to determine the validity of the appointment of proxies and the compliance with the attendance requirements for the Meeting.

2. If a vacancy arises during the term of appointment of the Directors, the Board may appoint a person by co-optation to fill that vacancy up to the next General Shareholders' Meeting. Directors appointed by co-optation may be ratified in their position at the first General Shareholders' Meeting held after their appointment. If the vacancy arises after a General Shareholders' Meeting is called but before it is held, the Board of Directors may appoint a director to perform the corresponding duties until the next General Shareholders' Meeting is held. Directors appointed by co-optation need not be shareholders of the Company.

Article 25 bis.- Prohibition of competition

1. Directors may not engage, for their own account or for the account of others, in activities the exercise of which constitutes competition with the Company unless the following circumstances apply:

a) it is reasonably foreseeable that the competitive situation will not cause damage to the Company or that the foreseeable damage it may cause to the Company is outweighed by the expected benefit the Company may reasonably obtain by allowing such competitive situation;

b) that, after having received advice from an independent external consultant of recognized standing in the financial community and after hearing the shareholder or director concerned, the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee issues a report assessing compliance with the requirement set forth in (a) above; and

c) the General Shareholders' Meeting expressly resolves to waive the prohibition of competition with the favorable vote of, at least, one-half of the share capital with voting right.

At the time of convening the General Shareholders' Meeting called to deliberate on the waiver of the competition prohibition, the Board of Directors shall make available to the shareholders the reports of the Appointments, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee and of the independent external consultant provided for in (b) above and, if it deems appropriate, its own report thereon. During the General Meeting, the shareholder or director concerned shall have the right to present to the meeting the reasons supporting the request for dispensation.

The resolutions to be adopted by the General Shareholders' Meeting pursuant to the provisions of this article shall be submitted to the General Meeting under a separate item on the agenda.

If the competitive situation arises after the appointment of a director, the director concerned shall resign immediately from his office.

a) a person shall be deemed to be engaged for his own account in activities constituting competition with the Company when he carries on such activities directly or indirectly through controlled companies.

b) a person shall be deemed to be engaged for his own account in activities which constitute competition with the Company when he has a significant shareholding or holds an executive position in a competing company or in another company concerted with the latter for the pursuit of a common policy and, in any case, when he has been appointed as a proprietary director of the Company at the request of one of those companies; and

c) (i) companies belonging to the same controlling group as the Company; and (ii) companies with which AmRest Holdings SE has entered into a strategic alliance, even if they have the same, similar or complementary corporate purpose and as long as the alliance remains in force, shall not be deemed to be in competition with the Company. Those who are proprietary directors of competing companies appointed at the request of the Company or in consideration of the Company's interest in the capital of such companies shall not be deemed to be covered by the competition prohibition for this reason alone.

3. Directors may also not provide advisory or representation services to companies competing with the Company, unless the Board of Directors, following a favourable report from the Appointments,, Remuneration and Corporate Governance Committee, authorises them to do so with the favourable vote of two thirds of the members not involved in a conflict of interest. If these requirements are not met, the authorisation must be approved by the General Shareholders' Meeting.

Article 26.- Board meetings

1. *The Board will meet at least once a quarter and as well as whenever a meeting is called by: the Chairman or Acting Chairman, the majority (at least a third) of the directors, or the lead independent director, should one exist. 2. The Board of Directors will determine the remuneration that executive directors will receive for performing the executive functions delegated or entrusted to them by the Board of Directors. date of the previous General Shareholders' Meeting and regarding the auditors' report.

2. The Board of Directors must provide such information in writing up until the date of the General Shareholders' Meeting, unless: that information is not necessary for protecting the shareholder's rights, there are objective reasons to consider that it could be used for non-corporate purposes, or if publicising the information is detrimental to the Company or related companies. Information may not be so denied when the request is backed by shareholders representing at least one-quarter of the share capital.

3. When, before the asking of a particular question, the information requested by the shareholder is clear, expressly and directly available to all shareholders in the FAQ section of the Company's website, the Board of Directors may limit its reply to a referral to the information provided in that section.

4. The Board of Directors may empower any of its members, the Secretary or one or more managers to answer requests for information made by shareholders, in the name and on behalf of the Board.

5. The means for sending the information requested by shareholders shall be the same as that used to submit the corresponding request, unless the shareholder indicates another means for the response from among those stated as suitable pursuant to the provisions in this article. In any case, the directors may send said information by certified mail with acknowledgement of receipt requested or by bureaufax.

Valid requests for information or clarification or questions made in writing, and the directors' answers provided in writing, shall be included on the company's website.

6. On the occasion of the call and until the celebration of each General Shareholders' Meeting, a Shareholders' e-forum shall be made available on the Company's website. Article 13.- Representation in the General Shareholders Meetings

1. Any shareholder entitled to attend a General Shareholders' Meeting may be represented by a proxy, who need not be a shareholder.

2. The appointment of a third party proxy must adequately guarantee the identity of the represented shareholder and their proxy and be conferred specifically for each Meeting in writing or by the distant communication means determined by the Board of Directors, where applicable, at the call of each General Shareholders' Meeting, in accordance with these Regulations. In particular, the Board of Directors may develop and complement the regulation on remote delegation provided for in these Regulations, establishing the instructions, means, rules and procedures it deems appropriate to implement the granting of proxies by remote means of communication. The implementing rules adopted by the Board of Directors pursuant to the provisions herein shall be published on the Company's website.

3. Prior to his/her appointment, the proxy must inform the shareholder in detail if there is a conflict of interest. If the conflict arises after the proxy is appointed and he/she did not warn the shareholder of its possible existence, the shareholder must be informed immediately. In both cases, if the proxy did not receive specific voting instructions for each item on which he/she must vote on behalf of the shareholder, the proxy must abstain from voting.

4. The Chairman and the Secretary of the General Shareholders' Meeting, or the individuals appointed on their behalf, will be entitled to determine the validity of the appointment of proxies and the compliance with the attendance requirements for the Meeting.

5. The power to act as a proxy is understood to not impinge on the provisions stipulated in the law with regard to family representation and the execution of general powers of attorney.

6. Representations obtained by public request shall be governed by law and these Regulations.

Article 14.- Venue of the General Shareholders' Meetings

1. The General Shareholders' Meeting will be held at the venue indicated in the call of the Meeting. If the meeting venue is not specified in the call announcement, it will be understood that the Meeting will be held at the Company's registered office.

Should it be necessary, for any reason, to hold the General Shareholders' Meeting in separate assembly halls, adequate audiovisual equipment shall be provided to allow real-time inter-communication between the assembly halls and, consequently guarantee the meeting's continuity. In the event that the assembly halls are located in different premises, the Meeting will be understood to be held at the principal location.

In such case, the principal location of the Meeting, but not the supplementary locations, must be in the municipal area of the Company's registered office. Attendees at any of the Meeting venues will be considered attendees at the General Shareholders' Meeting, provided they meet the requirements set in these Bylaws and the Regulations of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

Article 15.- Planning and means of General Shareholders' Meeting

To amend articles 17 Board of the General Shareholders' Meeting), 19 (List of attendees), 20 (Requests for intervention), 22 (Right to information during the General Shareholders' Meeting) and 23 (Extension and adjournment of the General Shareholders' Meeting) of the Regulations of the General Shareholders' Meeting, which shall hereafter read as follows:

Article 17.- Board of the General Shareholders' Meeting

1. The Board of the General Shareholders' Meeting shall be constituted at least by the Chairman and the Secretary of the General Shareholders' Meeting. It shall also include the members of the Board of Directors of the Company attending at the meeting.

2. The General Shareholders' Meeting shall be chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or the Vice-Chairman of the Board, should the Chairman: be absent, find it impossible to attend, or be unable or unwilling to attend. If there are several Vice-Chairmen, their numerical order will apply and, in the absence thereof, the Meeting will be chaired by the Director so appointed by the Board of Directors.

3. The Chairman will be assisted by the Secretary. The Secretary of the Board of Directors will be the Secretary of the General Shareholders' Meeting and, in the event of the absence, impossibility or indisposition of the latter, the Vice-Secretary of the Board of Directors will take his/her place. In the absence of either the Secretary or Vice-Secretary of the Board of Directors, the Secretary shall be the person proposed by the Chairman and chosen by the shareholders present at the meeting.

4. If for any reason, while the General Shareholders' Meeting is being held, the Chairman or Secretary has to leave the meeting, the exercise of their duties will be taken over pursuant to the stipulations in the previous paragraphs.

5. The Chairman, even when he/she is present at the meeting, may entrust the control of the discussions to the Secretary or to the director he/she deems appropriate. Likewise, the Chairman may be assisted by any expert that he/she considers convenient.

Article 19.- List of attendees

1. At the place and on the date established for the General Shareholders' Meeting to be held and from the moment when access is granted to the place where the Meeting is to be held, the shareholders attending the Meeting in person or such persons as validly represent them thereat shall deliver their respective attendance cards and proxies to the staff in charge of shareholder registration.

The list of shareholders present and represented at the General Shareholders' Meeting will be drawn up by the persons so designated by the Secretary, using, where applicable, any technical means which may be deemed appropriate. Specifically, the attendance list may be drawn up manually or using optical reading systems or other technical methods.

The number of shareholders present -including those who have cast an remote vote- or represented will be determined at the end of the list, as well as the amount of the capital they hold, specifying how much corresponds to shareholders with the right to vote.

Shareholders, or their proxies, who arrive late at the venue of the General Meeting, once the admission of attendance cards and proxies has been closed, may attend the meeting whenever deemed appropriate by the Company, but shall not be included in the list of attendees and shall not be considered as attending the General Meeting.

2. The General Shareholders' Meeting will begin at the place, on the day and at the time scheduled, at first or second call, as the case may be, once the Board of the General Shareholders' Meeting is established and the list of attendees is drawn up.

First of all, the Secretary shall confirm that the Meeting is legally called, by reading the announcement or by providing a summary thereof. Next, the Secretary shall read out the global data resulting from the list of attendees, specifying: the number of shareholders with a right to vote who are present, either in person or, as the case may be, through telematic means; the represented parties attending the meeting; the number of shares held by the attending shareholders and those represented by proxies; and the percentage of capital of the shares held by attending and represented shareholders. The Chairman shall then declare the General Shareholders' Meeting as validly held at first or second call, as the case may be, and shall determine whether to proceed to consider all of the agenda items or alternatively limit the focus of the Meeting to just some of them.

Once the establishment of a quorum for the General Shareholders' Meeting has been declared, the attending shareholders may state to the Public Notary any reservation or protest they may have regarding the existence of a valid quorum for the General Shareholders' Meeting or regarding the global data from the list of attendees which were previously read aloud, in order to duly record such reservation or protest in the minutes of the General Shareholders' Meeting, but such process shall not imply the delay, interruption or postponement of the normal proceeding of the Meeting. If the presence of a Notary has not been requested, all references to a Notary shall be understood to be made to the Secretary for the General Shareholders' Meeting.

3. If the list of attendees is not included at the beginning of the minutes of the General Shareholders' Meeting, it may be attached thereto on an annex signed by the Secretary with the approval of the Chairman.

A list of attendees may also be provided in a file or in computer format. In these cases, the minutes shall record the means used and the sealed cover of the file or medium used will include the appropriate identification certificate, signed by the Secretary with the approval of the Chairman.

Article 20.- Requests for intervention

1. Once the General Shareholders' Meeting is established, shareholders that, exercising their rights, wish to intervene in the Meeting deliberations and, if applicable, request information or clarifications on the agenda items or formulate proposals, shall identify themselves before the Secretary (or before the Public Notary, if he/she has attended the Meeting to record the minutes) or, if so instructed, to the staff assisting him/her, expressing his/her name and last name, the number of shares he/she owns and those that they represent, and the items on the agenda on which he/she will be speaking.

2. If the shareholder (or representative) wishes to ask to have his/her intervention literally recorded in the minutes of the Meeting, he/she shall hand it in writing, at the time of his/her identification, to the Secretary (or to the Public Notary, if he/she has attended the meeting to record the minutes) or, if so instructed, to the staff assisting him/her, so that it can be compared when the shareholder's intervention takes place.

3. Shareholder interventions shall take place once the Board of the General

Shareholders' Meeting has the list of shareholders wishing to participate, after the presentation of the reports that the Board of the General Shareholders' Meeting deems appropriate and, in any case, before the discussion and voting on the agenda items takes place.

Article 22.- Right to information during the General Shareholders' Meeting

1. During shareholders' interventions, shareholders may orally request: the information or explanations they consider necessary regarding agenda items; publically available information that the Company has provided, where applicable, the CNMV since the last General Shareholders' Meeting was held; or information about the auditor's report. To do so, the shareholder must first identify himself/herself pursuant to the provisions in article 20 above.

2. The directors will be obliged to furnish the requested information, pursuant to section 1 above, in the way and within the terms prescribed by the law, except in the cases indicated in article 11.2 of these Regulations.

Article 23.- Extension and adjournment of the General Shareholders' Meeting

1. The General Shareholders' Meeting may agree to extend the meeting over one or more consecutive days, when so proposed by the Chairman of the General Shareholders' Meeting or by a number of shareholders representing, at least, one fourth of the share capital attending the meeting. Regardless of the number of sessions, the Meeting shall be considered as one, with only one set of minutes being drafted for all of the sessions. Therefore, it shall not be necessary to repeat compliance with the requirements set forth by law, the Bylaws or these Regulations in the following sessions for its valid constitution. If any of the shareholders included on the attendance record do not subsequently attend the following sessions, the majorities required for the adoption of resolutions shall still be determined at the meetings based upon the data arising from that record.

2. Exceptionally, and in the event of disturbances that may significantly affect the orderly progress of the meeting or any other unusual circumstance that temporarily prevents or hinders the normal progress of the meeting, the Chairman may decide to adjourn the meeting for the appropriate period of time required in order to re-establish the necessary conditions for its continuance. Likewise, the Chairman may adopt the measures he/she deems appropriate to guarantee the safety of those present and to avoid the repetition of conditions preventing or hindering the normal progress of the meeting.

7.4. Amendment of the articles of the Regulations of the General Shareholders' Meeting relating to the voting on resolutions: articles 24 (Voting on resolutions), 25 (Issue of long-distance votes) and 26 (Adoption of resolutions and end of the Meeting).

To amend articles 24 (Voting on resolutions), 25 (Issue of long-distance votes) and 26 (Adoption of resolutions and end of the Meeting) of the Regulations of the General Shareholders' Meeting, which shall hereafter read as follows:

Article 24.- Voting on resolutions

1. Once shareholders' presentations have concluded and answers, if any, have been provided as set forth in these Regulations, the proposed resolutions shall be put to a vote. The Chairman shall be in charge of establishing the voting system he/she deems most appropriate and directing the resulting process, where applicable, in accordance with the implementing rules laid down in these Regulations.

2. The process for passing resolutions shall be carried out in accordance with the agenda included with the call of the meeting. In relation to each agenda item, votes shall be taken as follows: first, on the proposals made by the Board of Directors; and, second, on those proposed by other parties, in the order stipulated by the Chairman. If there are any proposals relating to matters which the General Shareholders' Meeting resolve which have not been included in the agenda, the Chairman shall decide when they are to be voted on and in which order.

3. Each item in the agenda shall be voted on separately. In addition, separate votes shall be taken on matters which are substantially independent, in particular (i) the appointment, ratification, re-election or removal of each director, which must be voted on individually, and (ii) when amending the Bylaws or these Regulations, those articles or groups of articles which are substantially independent. As an exception, all those proposals made that are configured as unitary or indivisible, such as those relating to the approval of a complete text of the Bylaws or the Regulations for the General Shareholders' Meeting, shall be voted on as a whole. Once a proposal for a resolution has been approved, all other proposals relating to the same matter which are incompatible with it shall be automatically dismissed and no vote shall therefore be taken in relation to them.

4. It will not be necessary for the Secretary to explain or read out, in advance, any proposals whose wording was made available to shareholders prior to the Meeting or deemed appropriate by the Chairman, in relation to either the full proposal or a part thereof. In any event, the attendees will be told the agenda item to which the proposal being voted on relates.

5. As a general rule and notwithstanding any alternative systems that the Chairman may decide to implement due to the conditions or nature or content of the proposal, the counting of votes for the proposals for resolutions shall be carried out as follows:

(a) Affirmative votes shall be those corresponding to all shares attending the meeting, whether present and represented, deducting (i) those votes corresponding to the shares whose holders or representatives have cast a vote against, protest votes or those abstaining from voting by communicating their vote or the abstention to the Secretary, the Public Notary or the staff assisting them, so that it can be placed on record; (ii) votes corresponding to the shares whose holders have cast a vote against, a protest vote or have expressly stated their abstention from voting, via distant communication means; and (iii) votes corresponding to shares whose holders or representatives have left the meeting before the voting for the resolution proposal took place and who have recorded that fact with the Secretary, the Public Notary or the staff assisting them.

- (b) Communications or statements to the Secretary, the Public Notary or the staff assisting them, referred to in the preceding section and related to the way votes are cast or manner that abstentions can be carried out individually, for each proposal, or jointly, for several or all of them. The communication or statement can be carried out by stating to the Secretary, the Public Notary or the staff assisting them, the identity and status (shareholder or representative) of the person making the communication or statement, the number of shares referred to and the nature of the vote cast or the abstention, as the case may be.*
 - (c) To adopt any resolution, the shares of shareholders that, under the law or the Bylaws, may not exercise their right to vote shall not be regarded as attending or being represented by proxy. As such, these shares will be struck from the list of attendees for the purposes of calculating majorities.*
 - (d) To adopt resolutions related to matters not included on the agenda, the shares of shareholders who have participated in the Meeting via remote voting systems shall also not be considered to be shares, whether present or represented, attending the Meeting.*
- 6. Among the alternative voting systems, insofar as it is technically possible and compliance with all legal conditions is guaranteed, the Board of Directors may establish electronic vote counting systems.*
- 7. To the fullest extent allowed by law, it will be possible to divide votes so that financial agents who appear as legitimate shareholders acting on behalf of different clients may cast their vote in conformity with their clients' instructions.*

Article 25.- Issue of long-distance votes

- 1. Pursuant to article 9 of these Regulations, voting on proposals relating to items on the agenda of any General Meeting may be exercised by the shareholder by the following means:*
- a) hand-delivery or postal correspondence, sending the Company the duly signed attendance card and ballot (together with the ballot form provided by the Company, if any), or other written means that, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, allows for due verification of the identity of the shareholder exercising his voting rights, or*
 - b) electronic correspondence or communication with the Company, which shall include the digital signature or other form of identification of the shareholder, in accordance with the conditions set by the Board of Directors, to ensure the* authenticity and identification of the shareholder casting his vote, and, in the case of electronic correspondence, accompanied by a copy in electronic format of the duly completed attendance card and ballot (together with the ballot form provided by the Company, if any). Electronic correspondence or communication may include telephone communication, when the corresponding announcement of the call to meeting provides so.

2. Shareholders who cast their vote from a distance pursuant to this article and to the provisions made by the Board of Directors by way of further development thereof shall be deemed present for purposes of determining the establishment of a quorum for the General Shareholders' Meeting in question. Therefore, proxies granted prior to the casting of such vote shall be deemed revoked, and those granted thereafter shall be deemed not to have been given.

3. Any vote cast from a distance shall be rendered void by attendance at the meeting by the shareholder who cast such vote or by a transfer of shares of which the Company becomes aware.

4. The Board of Directors is authorized to implement and supplement the regulations on voting by long-distance means of communication provided for in these Regulations, establishing the instructions, means, rules and procedures it deems appropriate to instrument the casting of votes by long-distance means of communication. Implementing rules adopted by the Board of Directors pursuant to the provisions hereof shall be published on the Company's website.

Furthermore, in order to prevent potential deception, the Board of Directors may take any measures required to ensure that anyone who has cast a distance vote is duly empowered to do so pursuant to the provisions of the Bylaws and these Regulations.

Article 26.- Adoption of resolutions and end of the Meeting

1. Resolutions will be passed by a simple majority vote of the shareholders present, either personally or by proxy, in the General Shareholders' Meeting. A resolution will be regarded as passed when there are more votes in favour than votes against in the share capital personally present or represented by proxy, except for the circumstances in which the law or the Bylaws stipulate a greater majority. Each voting share confers the right to one vote.

2. The Chairman will declare the resolutions approved once there is record that sufficient affirmative votes exist, in addition to recording in the minutes, the way that the shareholders attending the meeting have voted or their abstention from voting if so indicated to the Secretary or, if applicable, the Public Notary or staff assisting him/her.

3. Once voting for the resolution proposals is over and the result is proclaimed by the Chairman, the Meeting will conclude and the Chairman will adjourn the meeting.
