Boadilla del Monte (Madrid), 25 February 2022

BANCO SANTANDER, S.A.

Call to ordinary general shareholders' meeting

DATE AND TIME:	1 April 2022, at 1:00 p.m. (CEST), on second call. The general meeting is expected to be held on second call, although it is also called to be held on first call on 31 March 2022, at the same place and time.
ATTENDANCE:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In person at Centro de Formación El Solaruco (Ciudad Grupo Santander), Avenida de Cantabria s/n, Boadilla del Monte; or • Remotely on the corporate website www.santander.com, through the "Annual General Meeting" section, as detailed below.
LIMITATION ON SEATING CAPACITY AND RECOMMENDATION TO REMOTELY PARTICIPATE IN THE GENERAL MEETING:	The regulations applicable as at the date of this call to the meeting require to take the appropriate measures to ensure social distancing for those attending the meeting. Without prejudice to the competent authority changing the regulations from time to time, this circumstance implies that the venue's maximum capacity has to be reduced and access to it will be restricted once that maximum capacity has been reached. If the venue of the meeting cannot be accessed because its maximum capacity is reached due to the aforementioned and other constraints caused by the changing health and epidemiological situation, shareholders and their representatives are informed that they may be unable to participate at that time through the alternative channels available if the deadline to register to participate through them has expired in accordance with the deadlines and procedures described in this call. Therefore, and to protect the general interest and the health and safety of shareholders, employees and generally those who participate in organising and holding the general meeting, the board of directors recommends that shareholders use the different channels and means that the Bank has made available to participate in this ordinary general shareholders' meeting; thus, avoiding, to the extent possible, physical attendance at the premises where the meeting will be held. Finally, please bear in mind that, depending on how the health situation evolves, the relevant authorities may pass new regulations that may restrict the freedom of movement, which would hinder the organisation and ordinary course of the meeting, or limit how many persons can attend the meeting physically, or could even result in the meeting having to be held exclusively online. In anticipation of a scenario of greater restrictions on meeting or movement, the Centro de Formación El Solaruco, at the Bank's facilities in Boadilla del Monte, has all the necessary technological and operational resources to ensure the proper holding of the meeting and the exercise of the shareholders' fully protected rights even under the most extreme circumstances, as was already shown on occasion of the general meetings held exclusively online on 26 March 2021 and 3 April 2020, and the one held in hybrid format on 27 October 2020. Likewise and aside from the above, the Bank reserves the right to amend the call to the meeting as appropriate in light of the circumstances or the statutory changes that may arise, including, as the case may be, the possibility of holding the meeting exclusively by remote means. The board of directors will continue to monitor the entire situation and will update the information contained in this announcement if necessary.

1 b) Remote attendance

In order to attend remotely, a shareholder (or his/her proxy representative) must first sign the Consumer Digital Banking Agreement or the Agreement for Access to Electronic Voting and Proxy-Granting and Remote Attendance, and follow the following steps.

- A. Registration and attendance: a shareholder (or his/her proxy representative) must register using the corresponding connection through the "Annual General Meeting" section on the Bank's corporate website (www.santander.com) or through the Bank's internet address www.juntasantander.com between 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. on the day of the meeting. Registration of attendees will not be allowed outside of this time period.

In the event that the meeting is held on second call, attendees who have registered for the meeting on first call will be required to carry out the registration process again in order to be able to attend.

In order to ensure the quality of the connection of the remote channel of attendance to the meeting and to provide attendees with an additional explanatory guide to facilitate such connection, all shareholders (or their representatives) with the required passwords to access and who intend to remotely attend the meeting are kindly requested to send an email to asistentesjunta@gruposantander.com confirming this intention before 7 p.m. (CEST) on 31 March 2022 (the day prior to the day of holding the meeting on second call). All of the foregoing is without prejudice to the required registration of the attendee between 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. on the day of the meeting and compliance with all other requirements as stated in this announcement, on the Bank's corporate website (www.santander.com) or at www.juntasantander.com.

If persons attending remotely have been granted proxies, and provided that such proxies have been received by the Bank within the deadlines for admission thereof, the software application will show them such proxies so that they accept them, if they are willing to do so.

Attendees who wish to state before the Notary in charge of preparing the minutes of the general meeting that they expressly leave the meeting must do so by using the form included for such purpose in the remote attendance software application. After this statement to the Notary, all actions taken by such attendees thereafter shall be deemed not taken.

- B. Participation: a shareholder (or his/her proxy representative) who, in the exercise of his/her rights, intends to participate in the meeting and, where applicable, exercise his/her rights to receive information, participate or make proposals shall express his/her intent to do so at the time of registration. Following such expression of intent, and exclusively by means of the participation form available for such purpose, the person attending remotely may state in writing and send the contents of their participation or their question or proposal from the time the chair declares the meeting to be validly in session until the participation period ends. The person attending remotely who wishes his/her participation to be recorded in the minutes of the meeting must expressly state such desire in it.
- C. Voting: the items on the agenda may be voted on from the time that the chair declares the meeting to be validly in session and until, following the reading of the summaries of the proposed resolutions, the vote commences on the proposed resolutions at the premises where the meeting is held.

In the event of alternative proposals, the provisions of the second paragraph of Article 21.1 of the Rules and Regulations for the General Shareholders' Meeting shall apply, with a vote in favour of a proposed resolution by the shareholders at the general shareholders' meeting being deemed to be a vote against alternative proposals that are incompatible therewith.

In the event of proposals regarding items not included on the agenda, remote attendees may cast their vote as from the moment when the secretary for the general meeting reads out such proposals for a vote to be taken thereon.

To the extent not expressly provided for in this call to meeting, remote attendance at the meeting shall be subject to the provisions set out in the Bank's corporate website (including the "instructions for proxy-granting and voting prior to the meeting, remote attendance and the Electronic Shareholders' Forum"), the law, the Bylaws and the Rules and Regulations for the General Shareholders' Meeting.

C. Other matters
Both the proxy granted and the vote cast from a distance shall be rendered ineffective by the disposition of shares of which the Bank is aware.

2 a) Specific rules for proxy-granting

- A. Electronic means: shareholders undertake to notify the appointed representative of the proxy granted. Where a proxy is granted to a director and/or the general secretary of the Bank or a remote attendee at the meeting, such notice shall be deemed given upon receipt by the Bank of such electronic proxy.

Electronic proxies must be accepted by the proxy-holder, and may not be used without such acceptance. For such purpose, all electronic proxies granted to persons other than the directors and/or the general secretary and/or a remote attendee at the meeting must be printed, signed and submitted, together with an identifying document, by the appointed proxy-holder to the staff in charge of the shareholders' register on the date and at the place of the meeting, beginning one hour prior to the time established for commencement of the meeting. In the case of electronic proxies granted to persons attending the meeting remotely, the Bank's software application will show such remote attendees the proxies received and sent through the Bank in order for them to accept such proxies, if they are willing to do so. The person to whom voting powers are delegated may only exercise such powers by attending the meeting in person (physically or remotely).

- B. Hand-delivery or postal correspondence: proxies conferred by hand-delivery or postal correspondence must be accepted by the proxy representative by signing in the space provided for this purpose. The person to whom voting powers are delegated may only exercise such powers by attending the meeting in person, for which purpose, if he/she physically attends the meeting, he/she must produce an identifying document when entering the premises where the meeting is held. In the case of proxies granted by hand-delivery or postal correspondence to persons who attend the meeting remotely, and provided that such proxies have been sent through the Bank within the deadlines specified, the Bank's software application will show such remote attendees the proxies received in order for them to accept said proxies, if they are willing to do so.

- C. Other rules: all proxies that do not expressly state the name of the individual or legal entity to which the proxy is granted shall be deemed granted to the chair of the board of directors.

It is noted for the record that if the appointed representative is a director of the Bank, such director may be affected by a potential conflict of interest in connection with items 1 C, 3 B through 3 G (if the appointment, re-election or ratification thereof is submitted to the shareholders under said item), 8 A, 8 B and 8 F on the agenda, and if the appointed representative is an executive director, also in connection with items 8 C and 8 D. Furthermore, the proxy granted to the chair shall be deemed granted to the person who chairs the meeting if the chair is unable to attend.

In order to give precise voting instructions in the case of proxy-granting, the corresponding box must be checked in the table containing the items on the agenda in the attendance, proxy and distance voting card (proxy section). If any of such boxes is not checked, the shareholder granting the proxy shall be deemed to give a precise instruction to vote in favour of the proposal submitted by the board of directors.

If the representative appointed as set forth above is affected by a conflict of interest when voting on any of the proposals submitted to the shareholders, whether or not they are included on the agenda, and the shareholder granting the proxy has not given precise voting instructions as provided for such purpose, the proxy shall be deemed granted to the general secretary. In any event, if the appointed representative is the general secretary, he may be affected by a potential conflict of interest in connection with items 8 C and 8 D on the agenda, on which he shall abstain from voting if he has not received precise instructions to that effect.

As regards possible proposals relating to items not included on the agenda of the call to meeting, the proxy shall be deemed to also cover the proposals regarding items not included on the agenda unless indicated otherwise by the shareholder granting the proxy (in which case, it shall be deemed that the shareholder instructs the representative to abstain). If the proxy also covers any such proposals, the precise instruction to the representative shall be that of voting in the negative, unless indicated otherwise by the shareholder granting the proxy. A conflict of interest shall arise if matters are submitted to the shareholders at the meeting that are not included on the agenda and that refer to the removal of or the commencement of a derivative action (acción social de responsabilidad) against the representative, if the latter is in turn a director of the Bank.

2 b) Specific rules for advance distance voting	In the case of distance voting on items included on the agenda, the shareholder must check the corresponding box in the table containing the items on the agenda in the attendance, proxy and distance voting card (distance voting section). Distance voting on possible proposals not included on the agenda is not allowed. If none of the boxes provided for voting is checked in relation to any of the items on the agenda, the shareholder shall be deemed to vote in favour of the proposal submitted by the board of directors.
Issues common to all means of participation	A. Rules of priority: I. Among proxies, advance distance voting and attendance in person <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attendance at the meeting in person (whether physically or remotely) by a shareholder who has previously granted a proxy or voted from a distance, irrespective of the means used to grant such proxy or cast such vote, shall invalidate said proxy or vote. Personal physical attendance shall invalidate remote personal attendance. • A vote, irrespective of the means used to cast it, shall invalidate any electronic or written proxy, whether granted previously, in which case it shall be deemed revoked, or subsequently, in which case it shall be deemed not to have been granted. II. Based upon the means used to grant the proxy or cast the vote <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In the event that a shareholder validly grants a proxy, electronically, on the one hand, and by means of a printed card, on the other, the latter shall prevail over the former, regardless of the respective dates thereof. • A vote validly cast under a handwritten signature on the printed card shall invalidate a vote cast electronically, whether previously or subsequently. III. Furthermore, once cast, a distance vote may not be modified, except in the event of attendance at the meeting in person (whether physically or remotely) by the shareholder who cast such vote or, in the case of electronic voting, also by a subsequent vote cast within the established deadline by means of the attendance, proxy and voting card (hand-delivery or postal correspondence). B. Other matters In the event that electronic means are used, only one electronic session shall be allowed for each type of operation (proxy-granting, advance voting or remote attendance). Excepted from the foregoing are the cases of change of shareholding. Full information on the mechanisms for participation in the meeting can be found on the Bank's corporate website (www.santander.com) ("instructions for proxy-granting and voting prior to the meeting, remote attendance and the Electronic Shareholders' Forum"). The information and requirements to sign the Consumer Digital Banking Agreement and the Agreement for Access to Electronic Voting and Proxy-Granting and Remote Attendance may also be viewed on the Bank's corporate website (www.santander.com). For further information on proxy-granting and advance distance voting and remote attendance at the meeting, shareholders may write to the e-mail address junta.accionistas@santander.com, call the Shareholder Helpline 91 276 92 90 or go to the Santander Shareholder and Investor Relations Office, Ciudad Grupo Santander, Avda. Cantabria, s/n, 28660 - Boadilla del Monte (Madrid). Further information is also available on the Bank's corporate website (www.santander.com). In the event that more than one of the joint holders of deposited securities are in attendance, the joint holder who is the first to register (physically or remotely) shall be deemed an attendee, and therefore, any subsequent access by the other joint holders shall be denied. In connection with the foregoing, and for purposes of the provisions of Section 126 of the Spanish Capital Corporations Law, the joint holder who registers first (physically or remotely) shall be deemed to have been appointed by the other joint holders to exercise the rights accruing to a shareholder.

Issues common to all means of participation (cont.)	Shareholders (or their proxy representatives) shall be solely responsible for safeguarding the passwords for accessing and using the electronic advance proxy-granting and voting and remote attendance services. If the shareholder is a legal entity, it shall give notice of any modification or revocation of the powers vested in its representative, and the Bank therefore disclaims any and all liability until such notice is given. Shareholders (or their proxy representatives) that are legal entities and non-residents of Spain must call the Shareholder Helpline in order to adapt to their particular situations, with proper safeguards, the mechanisms for proxy-granting and distance voting and for attending the meeting by remote means of communication in real time. The Bank reserves the right to modify, suspend, cancel or restrict the mechanisms for electronic voting and proxy-granting prior to the meeting and for remote attendance when so required for technical or security reasons. The Bank shall not be liable for any damage that shareholders may sustain as a result of failures, overloads, downtime, failed connections, technological incompatibilities or any other events of the same or a similar nature that are beyond the Bank's control and prevent or affect the use of the mechanisms for electronic voting and proxy-granting prior to the meeting or for remote attendance.
RIGHT TO RECEIVE INFORMATION:	In addition to the provisions of Section 197 of the Spanish Capital Corporations Law, starting on the date of the publication of the announcement of the call to meeting, shareholders may obtain from the Bank, immediately and free of charge, the annual accounts, the directors' report (including the statement of non-financial information) and the auditor's report for financial year 2021, as well as the consolidated accounts, the Group's directors' report (including the consolidated statement of non-financial information) and the auditor's report for such financial year. In connection with items 5 A through 5 I, 6 A through 6 D, 7 A through 7 D, 8 A and 8 C of the agenda, starting on the date of publication of the announcement of the call to meeting, shareholders may examine at the registered office of the Company (Paseo de Pereda 9 al 12, 39004 Santander, Cantabria) the full text of the proposed resolutions and the mandatory reports prepared by the directors (or, in the case of item 8 C, of the detailed recommendation of the board of directors), as well as request that such documents be delivered or sent to them free of charge.
