Right of attendance

Any shareholder may attend the Shareholders' Meeting in person or electronically regardless of the number of shares he holds, provided that the shares are entered in his name on the book entry record at least five (5) days in advance of the date on which the Meeting is to be held, and that he bears the relevant attendance card, the certificate issued by the respective entity responsible for book entry, or the document evidencing his shareholder status pursuant to law.

To guarantee the rights of attendance of shareholders wishing to exercise their voting rights, the Fluidra Board of Directors offers them the possibility of participating in the Meeting by each and every one of the following means:

- (a) attendance in person;
- (b) electronic attendance;
- (c) voting remotely prior to the holding of the Shareholders' Meeting; or
- (d) through the right to representation.

(a) Attendance in person

The registration of attendance cards will commence two (2) hours before the time set for commencement of the Shareholders' Meeting (i.e. 10:30 hours (CET) on May 7, 2025).

(b) Electronic attendance

As an alternative to attendance in person, and in accordance with the provisions of article 28.bis of the Bylaws and article 10.bis of the Shareholders' Meeting Regulations, the Fluidra Board of Directors has resolved, without prejudice to the right of shareholders to attend in person or to vote by remote communications means, that the Shareholders' Meeting may also be attended electronically, as an additional means of participation in the Meeting.

The mechanisms to be used to attend the Shareholders' Meeting electronically will be made available in the section dedicated to the 2025 Shareholders' Meeting of Fluidra's corporate website (www.fluidra.com) in the terms stipulated below.

Electronic attendance at the Shareholders' Meeting shall be subject to the provisions of the Law, of the Bylaws, of the Shareholders' Meeting Regulations, and to the following basic rules, which shall be supplemented and elaborated upon by those published on the Fluidra corporate website (www.fluidra.com):

- (i) Identification and prior registration: Shareholders wishing to attend the meeting electronically must pre-register in the section of the Company's website relating to the 2025 Shareholders' Meeting (www.fluidra.com), as from 00:00 hours (CET) on May 4, 2025 and up to 11:30 hours (CET) on May 7, 2025. After that time, no prior registrations will be accepted for the exercising of rights of attendance.

In the case of proxy appointments, such appointments must have been made prior to the Meeting date.

Shareholders (or their proxies where appropriate), having pre-registered within the period stipulated above, may attend and vote at the Shareholders' Meeting electronically, by logging in on the scheduled meeting day.

In order to prove their identity, shareholders (or, if applicable, their representative) must identify themselves by means of their national electronic identity document (DNIe) or by means of a qualified and valid electronic certificate issued by the Spanish Public Certification Entity (CERES), dependent on the Spanish Mint (FNMT), or by completing the accreditation form available on the Company's corporate website (www.fluidra.com) with personalized user and passwords. The Company reserves the right to request from shareholders the additional means of identification it deems necessary to verify their status as shareholders and to guarantee the authenticity of remote attendance at the General Shareholders' Meeting.

- (ii) Login and attendance: so that the electronic attendance systems can be properly managed, shareholders (or their proxies) who have pre-registered to attend the Shareholders' Meeting pursuant to point i. above must log in to the Company's website (www.fluidra.com) between 10:30 hours and 12:30 hours (CET) on May 7, 2025, and identify themselves in the manner indicated in the pertinent instructions.

Electronic attendance of the Meeting by shareholders (provided the Meeting is constituted) will render ineffective any vote or proxy appointment made previously, through any other procedure established by the Company.

- (iii) Participation: in accordance with the Capital Companies Law, the Bylaws and the Shareholders' Meeting Regulations, addresses to the meeting and proposed resolutions or requests for information or clarification which persons who are to attend electronically intend to make in accordance with the law, must be submitted to the Company in writing and, in all cases, in the form, terms and conditions established on the aforementioned Company website, before the submission deadline set by the Chairman or, as the case may be, by the Secretary of the Shareholders' Meeting, during the course of the Meeting.

Persons attending electronically who wish to have their addresses recorded in the Meeting minutes must expressly indicate this in the text submitted.

- (iv) Voting: votes on proposals included as agenda items may be cast from the time the shareholder (or proxy where appropriate) logs in up to the point at which the Chairman or, as the case may be, the Secretary of the Meeting, announces the close of voting on resolution proposals included as agenda items.

With respect to resolution proposals on matters that, by law, do not need to be included as agenda items, shareholders or proxies attending electronically may vote as from the moment said proposals are read and opened for voting.

The procedures established in the Bylaws and in the Shareholders' Meeting Regulations will be followed when voting on resolution proposals. Shareholders or proxies attending the Shareholders' Meeting electronically may place on record any reservations they deem appropriate regarding the constitution of the Shareholders' Meeting.

- (v) Other issues: the Company may adapt, with the proper safeguards, the procedures for electronic attendance of the Shareholders' Meeting in the case of shareholders resident outside Spain.

It is the exclusive responsibility of shareholders (or of their proxies) to safeguard the login and identification credentials needed to access and use the electronic attendance service. In the case of legal entity shareholders, said entities must give notice of any change in or revocation of the powers granted to their representatives; accordingly, the Company shall accept no liability until such notice has been served.

The Company reserves the right to modify, suspend, cancel or restrict the mechanisms for attending the Shareholders' Meeting electronically when so required or necessary for technical reasons or reasons of security. The Company will not be liable for any loss or damage caused to shareholders as a result of malfunctions, overloads, line failures, failed connections or any other contingency of the same or a similar nature, beyond the control of Fluidra, that prevent utilization of the mechanisms for attending the Shareholders' Meeting electronically. Consequently, such circumstances will not constitute an unlawful privation of shareholder rights. If any of the circumstances referred to in this section should arise, shareholders should be duly informed via the Company's website (www.fluidra.com) with the shortest possible delay.

(c) Voting by remote communication means prior to the holding of the Shareholders' Meeting

Alternatively, pursuant to the Bylaws and to the Shareholders' Meeting Regulations, voting rights may also be exercised through remote communication means before the Shareholders' Meeting is held, provided that the requirements established by law and contemplated in this call notice are met.

Shareholders having voting rights who do not attend the Shareholders' Meeting may, before the meeting is held, cast their vote by ordinary mail or e-mail. To cast the vote before the Shareholders' Meeting is held, by ordinary mail or e-mail, the shareholders must complete and sign the relevant attendance card.

Shareholders may cast their vote by ordinary mail or e-mail provided that the shares they hold are entered on the relevant book entry record at least five (5) days in advance of the date of the Shareholders' Meeting. After the attendance card has been completed and signed, it may be sent to the Company through the following procedures:

- (i) By ordinary mail to "Fluidra, S.A. (Attn. Junta General de Accionistas), Avenida Alcalde Barnils,69, 08174, Sant Cugat del Vallés (Barcelona)."
- (ii) Using the "pre-stamped" envelope attached, as the case may be, to the attendance card.
- (iii) By delivery at the aforementioned address.
- (iv) By e-mail to accionistas@fluidra.com.
- (v) By accessing the space dedicated to the General Shareholders' Meeting 2025 on the Company's website (www.fluidra.com) and following the instructions for exercising voting rights prior to the General Shareholders' Meeting that will be specified. In this case, in order to prove their identity, shareholders (or, if applicable, their representative) must identify themselves by means of their national electronic identity document (DNIe) or by means of a qualified and valid electronic certificate issued by the Spanish Public Certification Entity (CERES), dependent on the Spanish Mint (FNMT), or by completing the accreditation form available on the Company's corporate website (www.fluidra.com) with a personalized user name and password. The Company reserves the right to request from the shareholders the additional means of identification it deems necessary to verify their status as shareholders and guarantee the authenticity of the vote.

In order to be valid, votes cast by ordinary mail or e-mail must be received by the Company before 11:30 am on the day the Shareholders' Meeting is held. Otherwise, the proxy shall be deemed not to have been granted and the vote shall be deemed not to have been cast, unless receipt of the proxy later but before the holding of the Shareholders' Meeting makes it possible to carry out the due checks and calculations for the preparation and holding of the Shareholders' Meeting.

(d) Right of representation

Similarly, any shareholder having the right to attend the Shareholders' Meeting may grant powers of representation to another person, who need not be a shareholder, to attend the Meeting either in person or electronically, subject to the requirements and compliance with the formalities required by the law, by article 29 of the Bylaws and by article 12 of the Shareholders' Meeting Regulations. Company shareholders entitled to vote who do not attend the Shareholders' Meeting may, prior to the holding of the Meeting, grant their proxies (i) by completing and signing the attendance card issued by the entity or entities responsible for the book entry of the shares or (ii) electronically through the system provided for this purpose on the Company's website (www.fluidra.com).

The document granting the proxy shall include, at least, the following statements: date and agenda of the Shareholders' Meeting, the identity of the principal and of the representative, the number of shares held by the shareholder granting the proxy and voting instructions of the shareholder granting the proxy as regards each of the items on the agenda. If no precise instructions are given, it will be deemed that the vote must be cast in favor of the proposals for resolutions made by the Board of Directors.

In the event of public request for proxy, the document granting the proxy must contain, in addition to the statements contemplated in the above paragraph, a statement as regards whether the representative should vote in favor or against if no precise instructions are given. It will be deemed that precise voting instructions have been given in favor of the proposals for resolutions issued by the Board of Directors when the document recording the proxy does not state that the vote should be cast against the adoption of the resolution.

If the identity of the representative is not specified, it will be deemed that the proxy has been granted either to the Chairman of the Board of Directors, to the Secretary of the Board of Directors or to the Secretary of the Shareholders' Meeting.

If the appointed representative is affected by a conflict of interest in the voting on any of the proposals submitted to the Shareholders' Meeting, and the principal did not give precise instructions, the proxy will be deemed granted to either of the other two persons mentioned in the preceding paragraph, who is not affected by such circumstance.

In the event that the attendance card has been completed and signed by the shareholder, the original may be sent through any of the following procedures:

- (i) By ordinary mail to "Fluidra, S.A. (Attn. Junta General de Accionistas), Avenida Alcalde Barnils,69, 08174, Sant Cugat del Vallés (Barcelona)."
- (ii) Using the "pre-stamped" envelope attached, as the case may be, to the attendance card.
- (iii) By delivery at the aforementioned address.
- (iv) By e-mail to accionistas@fluidra.com.
- (v) By accessing the space dedicated to the General Shareholders' Meeting 2025 on the Company's website (www.fluidra.com) and following the instructions for granting a proxy prior to the General Shareholders' Meeting that will be specified. In this case, in order to prove their identity, the shareholders (or, if applicable, their representative) must identify themselves by means of their national electronic identity document (DNIe) or by means of a qualified and valid electronic certificate issued by the Spanish Public Certification Entity (CERES), dependent on the Spanish Mint (FNMT), or by completing the accreditation form available on the Company's corporate website (www.fluidra.com) with a personalized user name and password. The Company reserves the right to request from the shareholders the additional means of identification it deems necessary to verify their status as shareholders and guarantee the authenticity of the representation.

The Company's shareholders with voting rights who do not attend the General Meeting may, in addition, grant their proxy electronically through the system set up for this purpose on the Company's website (www.fluidra.com). The procedure to be followed by the shareholder to exercise these rights is explained therein.

If a shareholder grants a proxy to the Chairman of the Board of Directors, to the Secretary non director of the Board of Directors or to the Secretary of the Shareholders' Meeting, the shareholder must send the duly completed and signed attendance card to the registered office or confer their representation electronically through the system set up for this purpose on the Company's website (www.fluidra.com).

Any shareholder granting a proxy by mail undertakes to notify the designated representative of the proxy granted for its acceptance. It will be deemed that the proxy has been accepted when the representative sends to the Company (either by ordinary mail, email or by delivery to the registered office) the card for attendance, proxy and remote voting by filling in the space reserved for remote voting.

When the proxy is granted to the Chairman of the Board of Directors, to the Secretary non director of the Board of Directors or to the Secretary of the Shareholders' Meeting, such notice shall be deemed made upon receipt by the Company of the original attendance card.

In order to be valid, the representation conferred by ordinary mail, by email or electronically through the system enabled for this purpose, must be received by the Company before 11:30 hours (CET) on May 7, 2025.

Powers of representation shall in all cases be revocable and the casting of votes or personal attendance of the shareholder represented at the Meeting shall imply their revocation.
