ATTENDANCE AND REPRESENTATION

Holders of shares with voting rights who have them registered in their name in the corresponding book-entry register five days prior to the date of the General Shareholders' Meeting, i.e. May 3, 2024, may attend and participate in the Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting, with the right to speak and vote. Any shareholder entitled to attend may be represented at the Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting by another person, even if not a shareholder, provided that the requirements established for this purpose are met. Shareholders, or their proxies, must identify themselves by means of their national identity card or passport. Representation is always revocable and the personal attendance of the represented shareholder at the General Shareholders' Meeting, either physically or by remote voting, shall have the value of revocation.

If the proxy is completed in favour of the Board of Directors, or if the proxy does not contain the name of the person to whom it is granted, it shall be deemed to have been granted, indistinctly, jointly and severally and successively, in favour of the Chairman of the Board of Directors or, as the case may be, in favour of the person chairing the General Shareholders' Meeting, the Vice Chairman, the Secretary or the Vice Secretary of the Board of Directors.

Unless otherwise indicated by the principal in the document granting the proxy, the proxy also extends to proposed resolutions on items not included on the Agenda. If, in accordance with the foregoing, the proxy extends to proposed resolutions on items not included on the Agenda, the specific instruction of the principal shall be understood to be to vote against, unless other express instructions are indicated by the principal in the document granting the proxy.

In the event that the proxy is exercised by the directors of the Company, in the case of a public proxy solicitation, and the proxy has not expressly indicated voting instructions, it shall be understood that the proxy (i) refers to all the items that form part of the Agenda of the General Shareholders' Meeting, (ii) it shall be deemed to vote in favour of all the proposed resolutions formulated by the Board of Directors, and (iii) it shall likewise extend to any points that may arise during the course of the General Shareholders' Meeting outside the Agenda, in respect of which the proxy shall vote against.

For the purposes of articles 523 and 526 of the Capital Companies Act, it is hereby stated that (i) the directors Ms. Romana Sadurska and Mr. Emilio Fullaondo Botella are in a situation of conflict of interest in relation to items 5.1 and 5.2 of the Agenda, each of them with respect to the specific item in which their re-election as director is proposed; and (ii) the Chairman and all other directors of the Company have a conflict of interest in respect of item eighth on the Agenda. The directors may also have a conflict of interest in relation to the proposed resolutions, if any, on items not included in the Agenda.

Shareholders entitled to attend may grant proxy or cast their vote remotely by delivering the Shareholder Card to the offices of the Company, duly completed, by sending it to the Company (a) by post correspondence to the registered office, for the attention of the Legal Department (ref. General Shareholders' Meeting), or (b) electronically through the platform available on the Company's corporate website, and identifying themselves with their (i) electronic ID (DNle) or (ii) recognized electronic certificate of which there is no record of its revocation, under the terms set forth in Law 6/2020, of November 11, regulating certain aspects of electronic trust services, in force and issued by the Spanish Public Certification Entity (CERES), which depends on the public business entity Fábrica Nacional de Moneda y Timbre y Real Casa de la Moneda (FNMT-RCM).

A Shareholder's Guide is available on the Company's corporate website (www.amrest.eu) which provides detailed information on how shareholders may exercise their attendance rights and proxy and remote voting rights. Proxies and remote votes cast by postal or electronic correspondence must, as a general rule, be received by the Company no later than 7 May 2024. The validity of proxies granted and votes cast by remote communication is subject to verification by the Company. In the event of a discrepancy between the number of shares communicated by the shareholder granting the proxy or casting his vote by remote communication and the number recorded in the book-entry register five days prior to the date on which the Meeting is to be held, the latter number of shares shall be deemed valid for quorum and voting purposes, unless there is evidence to the contrary.
