TRANSACTION SUMMARY

The transactions comprise fully amortising Spanish residential mortgages serviced by Caixabank, S.A. (BBB+/OutS/F2).

KEY RATING DRIVERS

Pro-rata Amortisation Unlikely: Bancaja 8's current portfolio balance (CPB) stands at 11.6% of its initial portfolio balance (IPB), approaching its mandatory sequential amortisation trigger of 10%. Also, the reserve fund is currently below its target amount (currently at 94.3% of target) and is not expected to fully replenish before the 10% trigger is breached. Pro-rata amortisation is therefore now deemed very unlikely for this transaction. This has facilitated the upgrades, as in previous reviews the possibility of credit enhancement (CE) reduction due to pro-rata amortisation, combined with reverse sequential amortisation, was limiting the transaction's ratings.

The rating actions also reflect Fitch's view that the notes are sufficiently protected by CE to absorb the level of losses commensurate with prevailing and higher rating scenarios.

Fitch expects CE ratios to also continue increasing for Bancaja 13 as it is also currently amortising sequentially, due to the reserve fund being below its target (72.1%).

Rating Capped by Counterparty Risk: Bancaja 13's class A notes' rating is limited to 'A+sf' due to documented counterparty provisions. The replacement trigger on the account bank is set at 'BBB', which according to our Structured Finance and Covered Bonds Counterparty Criteria cannot support ratings in the 'AAsf' or above categories.

Portfolio Risk Attributes: The portfolios are exposed to geographical concentration, mainly in the region of Valencia (between 55% and 43.2% of CPB for Bancaja 8 and Bancaja 13, respectively). In line with Fitch's European RMBS Rating Criteria, higher rating multiples are applied to the base foreclosure frequency (FF) assumption to the portion of the portfolios that exceeds 2.5x the population share of this region relative to the national count. Additionally, around 50% of each portfolio is linked to loans originated via brokers, which are higher-risk than branch-originated loans and are likewise subject to a FF adjustment factor of 150%.

Stable Performance Outlook: All rating actions are based on a broadly stable asset performance outlook. This is driven by the low share of loans in arrears over 90 days (ranging between 0.5% for Bancaja 8 and 0.9% for Bancaja 13 of CPB) and the positive macro-economic outlook for Spain, as described in Fitch's latest Global Economic Outlook dated March 2022.

Bancaja 13 has an ESG Relevance Score of '5' for 'transaction parties and operational risk' due to account bank eligibility thresholds, which has a negative impact on the credit profile, resulting in at least a single-notch downgrade.

RATING SENSITIVITIES

Factors that could, individually or collectively, lead to negative rating action/downgrade:

Bancaja 8:

- For class A, B and C notes, a downgrade of Spain's Long-Term Issuer Default Rating (IDR) could lower the maximum achievable rating for Spanish structured finance transactions. This is because the notes are capped at the 'AAAsf' maximum achievable rating in Spain, six notches above the sovereign IDR

Bancaja 13:

- Long-term asset performance deterioration such as increased delinquencies or larger defaults, which could be driven by changes to macroeconomic conditions, interest-rate increases or borrower behaviour

Factors that could, individually or collectively, lead to positive rating action/upgrade:

Bancaja 8:

- Class A, B and C notes are rated at the highest level on Fitch's scale and therefore cannot be upgraded

- For junior notes, increased CE as the transactions deleverage to fully compensate for the credit losses and cash flow stresses that are commensurate with higher rating scenarios

Bancaja 13:

- Senior notes' rating is limited to 'A+sf'. To be upgraded above this level, the contractual provisions for account bank replacement would need to be amended to a level commensurate with a higher rating. Fitch would also request an explicit commitment from the issuer to comply with any revised eligibility triggers

BEST/WORST CASE RATING SCENARIO

International scale credit ratings of Structured Finance transactions have a best-case rating upgrade scenario (defined as the 99th percentile of rating transitions, measured in a positive direction) of seven notches over a three-year rating horizon; and a worst-case rating downgrade scenario (defined as the 99th percentile of rating transitions, measured in a negative direction) of seven notches over three years. The complete span of best- and worst-case scenario credit ratings for all rating categories ranges from 'AAAsf' to 'Dsf'. Best- and worst-case scenario credit ratings are based on historical performance. USE OF THIRD PARTY DUE DILIGENCE PURSUANT TO SEC RULE 17G -10

Form ABS Due Diligence-15E was not provided to, or reviewed by, Fitch in relation to this rating action.

DATA ADEQUACY

Fitch has checked the consistency and plausibility of the information it has received about the performance of the asset pools and the transactions. Fitch has not reviewed the results of any third- party assessment of the asset portfolio information or conducted a review of origination files as part of its ongoing monitoring.

Fitch did not undertake a review of the information provided about the underlying asset pools ahead of the transactions' initial closing. The subsequent performance of the transactions over the years is consistent with the agency's expectations given the operating environment and Fitch is therefore satisfied that the asset pool information relied upon for its initial rating analysis was adequately reliable.

Overall, and together with any assumptions referred to above, Fitch's assessment of the information relied upon for the agency's rating analysis according to its applicable rating methodologies indicates that it is adequately reliable.

ESG CONSIDERATIONS

Bancaja 13 has an ESG Relevance Score of '5' for 'transaction parties and operational risk' due to account bank eligibility thresholds, which has a negative impact on the credit profile, and is highly relevant to the ratings.

Unless otherwise disclosed in this section, the highest level of ESG credit relevance is a score of '3'. This means ESG issues are credit-neutral or have only a minimal credit impact on the entity, either due to their nature or the way in which they are being managed by the entity. In issuing and maintaining its ratings and in making other reports (including forecast information), Fitch relies on factual information it receives from issuers and underwriters and from other sources Fitch believes to be credible. Fitch conducts a reasonable investigation of the factual information relied upon by it in accordance with its ratings methodology, and obtains reasonable verification of that information from independent sources, to the extent such sources are available for a given security or in a given jurisdiction. The manner of Fitch's factual investigation and the scope of the third-party verification it obtains will vary depending on the nature of the rated security and its issuer, the requirements and practices in the jurisdiction in which the rated security is offered and sold and/or the issuer is located, the availability and nature of relevant public information, access to the management of the issuer and its advisers, the availability of pre-existing third-party verifications such as audit reports, agreed-upon procedures letters, appraisals, actuarial reports, engineering reports, legal opinions and other reports provided by third parties, the availability of independent and competent third-party verification sources with respect to the particular security or in the particular jurisdiction of the issuer, and a variety of other factors. Users of Fitch's ratings and reports should understand that neither an enhanced factual investigation nor any third-party verification can ensure that all of the information Fitch relies on in connection with a rating or a report will be accurate and complete. Ultimately, the issuer and its advisers are responsible for the accuracy of the information they provide to Fitch and to the market in offering documents and other reports. In issuing its ratings and its reports, Fitch must rely on the work of experts, including independent auditors with respect to financial statements and attorneys with respect to legal and tax matters. Further, ratings and forecasts of financial and other information are inherently forward-looking and embody assumptions and predictions about future events that by their nature cannot be verified as facts. As a result, despite any verification of current facts, ratings and forecasts can be affected by future events or conditions that were not anticipated at the time a rating or forecast was issued or affirmed.
