

THE CNMV AND ITS UKRAINIAN COUNTERPART, THE NSSMC, SIGN A BILATERAL MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

21 June 2022

Today, the president of the Spanish National Securities Market Commission (CNMV), Rodrigo Buenaventura, and his counterpart of the National Securities and Stock Market Commission of Ukraine (NSSMC), Ruslan Magomedov, signed a bilateral memorandum of understanding between the two commissions.

In a ceremony held at the CNMV headquarters, the two presidents signed the document that contemplates the collaboration between both commissions, assistance and mutual consultation, and the exchange of communications to improve investor protection. The agreement also includes the promotion of stability, efficiency, and the development of stock markets in Ukraine and Spain.

In the meeting held by Rodrigo Buenaventura and Ruslan Magomedov, they analyzed the current challenges of the capital markets, especially after the invasion of Ukraine by Russia.